Stock Leaders Show Losses

NEW YORK, May 16 (AP)—Bearish contingents regained control of the stock market today and pushed down leaders fractions to 3 or more points, many to new lows for the year or longer. A late surge of offerings brought a few losses or as much as 6.

Trends were only moderately irregular until a relatively urgent selling flurry in the third hour tumbled aircrafts, steels, motors, rails and a wide assortment of industrials. Dealings then tapered and quotations stiffened here and there. Most pivotals were at or around bottom near the close. Transfers picked up to about 1,390,000 shares.

Conspicuous in the casualty column were Glenn Martin (in the wake of an omitted dividend), Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, Sperry, Lockheed, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Steudebaker, Montgomery Ward, Gimbel, American Telephone, Anaconda, Kennecott (despite an increased special payment).

Homestake Mining was an exception, recording a 1947 peak before giving ground.

Persistent pessimism over business, consumer resistance, the outlook for profits in the face of rising wages and other costs, labor legislation and taxes served to put most professionals on the liquidating side.

Bonds trailed with stocks.

Grains Show Retreat

CHICAGO, May 16 (AP)—Grains retreated under fairly aggressive selling during the later part of trading on the board of trade today, losing practically all their early upturn which had extended to several cents.

Liquidation came into May wheat when it was rumored that some cash wheat may be bought at Minneapolis for shipment here for delivery on May contracts. Feed grains displayed strength most of the day but weakened along with wheat late in the session.

Wheat closed unchanged to 5⅛c lower, May $2.70, corn was ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher, May $1.74⅞-⅞, and oats were ⅛c lower to 1⅛c higher, May 94⅞-⅞c.

LIVESTOCK
