Stocks Show Recovery Move

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—Aided by further short covering and modest investment purchasing, individual stocks negotiated a fair rally today although many market leaders did little or nothing and dealings reverted to apathy.

The ticker tape loafed after an active opening. Early gains running to 2 or more points for favorites were reduced in most instances at the close and a number of pivotals slipped to the minus ranks. The fact that activity dwindled on the comeback, in contrast to heavy turnover when selling ruled, was a sobering influence for boardrooms. Transfers for the full stretch were in the vicinity of 900,000 shares, about half of Monday's total.

Losers at the last were Goodyear, Goodrich, American Telephone, N. Y. Central, Northern Pacific, Great Northern Railway, Schenley, Woolworth, Douglas Aircraft, Glenn Martin, North American, General Electric, Curtiss-Wright, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville and Eastman Kodak.

The "blue chip" carrier issue, N. Y. & Harlem, dropped 25 points at 250 on 10 shares, first sale since April 28.

Good dividends gave a moderate lift to Cleveland Graphite, American Export Lines, Colorado Fuel and Keystone Steel. Others in the supported section included Southern Pacific, Delaware & Hudson, Illinois Central, Eastern Air Lines, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Steel.
