Stocks On Shaky Basis

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Professional "shorts" sought further cover in today's stock market and this, together with a little investment nibbling, gave another recovery boost to selected rails and industrials although many pivotals ran out of advancing steam.

Transfers remained in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 shares.

Coca-Cola International, which sold yesterday for the first time in five years at 1150, up 680 points, appeared again today on a few trades and was up 5.

In the declining section were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Caterpillar Tractor, Boeing, Consolidated Edison, Santa Fe, Eastman Kodak, United Air Lines, American Woolen and Greyhound.

Pleasing dividends bolstered Anaconda, Calumet & Hecla, Mack Truck, Abbott Laboratories and Pittsburgh Forgings.

Wheat Price Plunges Today

CHICAGO, May 22 (AP)—A highly erratic close in all May contracts was recorded on the board of trade today. Trading in May futures ended and outstanding contracts must be settled with delivery of the actual grain.

Holders of May wheat sold freely in the last few minutes and the price plunged 10 cents on relatively few trades. The final quotation was $2.70 2.65½, down 3½ to 9½c from yesterday's close.

May oats spurted sharply, moving above $1.00 a bushel in the last minute of trade. The close on a split quotation was 99½c to $1.02½, up 3½c to 6c. May corn ended at $1.84-1.84½, up 1½c to 2c.

Deferred wheat contracts finished ¼-1½c lower, July $2.33-2.32½, deferred corn ½c lower to ½c higher, July $1.69½-½, and deferred oats unchanged to ⅛c lower. July 85⅞-86c.
