Italy Beats France In Davis Cup

PARIS, July 26 (AP)—Italy was able today to boast of its third European zone Davis Cup tennis title.

Most of the toasts were from Giani Cucelli, No. 1 Italian netman, who came from behind here yesterday to win the deciding match and give his country a 3-2 triumph over France.

Cucelli defeated France's ace, Marcel Bernard, 8-6, 3-6, 4-6, 6-0, 6-1. In the earlier singles encounter France's Robert Abdesselam had evened the series by beating Marcello Del Bello, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

Italy will oppose the victor in the Australian-Mexico American zone final in the inter-zone final at Rye, N. Y., August 12, 13 and 14. The winner of that series will then try to wrest the cup from the United States at Forest Hills, N. Y., August 26, 27 and 28. Australia and Mexico clash at Wilmington, Del., next Friday.

Clark Holds Pace With Pro Golfers

THE DALLES, Ore., July 26 (AP)—Two Oregon professionals and an amateur paced the field today as the Oregon open golf tournament went into ts second 18-hole round.

Holding a two-stroke lead over the rest of the field were Emery Zimmerman of Portland and Bob McKendrick of Oswego, professionals, and Ron Clark of The Dalles. Each was two-under-par at 70.

Bud Ward, former national amateur titlist playing his first pro appearance, was tied with Jim Russell, Walla Walla pro, at even par 72.

Right up among the leaders until he took an eight on the par-four eighteenth was Seattle's Ed (Porky) Oliver. He ended up with a 75 total, well down the list.

The 79-man field will be paired to about 50 today for tomorrow's final 36 holes.

Other first round scores include: Joe Greer, Yakima, and Ron Bowles, Salem, 77s; Norton Seip, Centralia, and Earl Moller, Kennewick, 78s; Ray Whiteside, Shelton, 87; Ed Bates, Corvallis, Ore., 75, and Ed Swanson, Bremerton, 76; Wendell Wood, Eugene, 77; Del Mann, Eugene, 79; Forest Lemloy, Eugene, 80.

Atlanta Lad Grabs Spotlight

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP) Young Walter Baker of Atlanta, Ga., was the center of attraction today as 128 boys polished their golf games for the U. S. national junior championship, opening tomorrow.

Baker fired a three-over-par practice round yesterday over the 6618-yard Congressional Country club course, where the meet will be held. Then he came back to top all practice rounds with a one-over-par 72 in the afternoon.

Some of the few practice scores kept and made public included: Dick Hess of Seattle, Wash., 81.

KF Pilot On Crack Bomb Team

Ensign James E. Cahill, USNR, son of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Knighten of 5323 S. 6th street, Klamath Falls, has just ben selected by the commanding officer of navy attack squadron 54 as a member of the four-man combat team to compete against other navy squadrons in the San Diego area for the air force, Pacific fleet, dive - bombing championship.

Selected on the basis of squadron eliminations, Ensign Cahill's team is competing for the area championship this week, and if successful, will go to the finals which will be held at the naval air station, El Centro, Calif., during the first week of August.

Rules for the championship require that each pilot of the four-man team make 16 dives at the 200 feet circular target by starting his dives at 15,000 feet.

Although only the four-man team will be officially recognized as the best in the air force, Pacific fleet, the pilot scoring the highest percentage of hits in the finals will be unofficially accorded the title of "Best Dive-Bomber in the Air Force, Pacific Fleet."

Boy Breaks Arm In Car-Bike Wreck

Thirteen-year-old Stewart Wayne Vanderwart of route 3, box 641, is resting today in the Klamath Valley hospital after suffering a severely broken arm in a bike-auto accident yesterday afternoon on highway 97 a half mile north of Klamath Falls.

A car-driven by Kenneth McGee of Los Angeles, was traveling north on 97 and passed young Vanderwart who was riding his bicycle on the shoulder, and was half way past when the boy turned his bicycle onto the road and into the side of the McGee auto.

McGee jammed on his brakes, and the car, with a trailer behind, skidded and turned completely around three times before halting.

The boy was taken to Klamath Valley hospital about 3:35 p. m.

Unemployment In Oregon Gaining

SALEM, July 26 (AP)—Oregon has 59a,000 employed persons and has 40,000 unemployed, the state unemployment compensation commission estimated Friday.

The total number of employed a year ago was 606,600, while there were 32,000 jobless at that time.

The biggest drop in employment is in the lumber industry, with 74,100 persons employed, or almost 13,000 less than a year ago.

Klamath Driver Faces Charge

DUNSMUIR, Calif., July 26—M. L. Snyder of Klamath Falls was arrested Thursday, July 21, by Dunsmuir Police Officer Steve Abgaroff on a charge of driving while drunk. Fine was set at $200 by Judge William R. Lee, but he was released on his own recognizance.

Ira D. Waters, 35, arrested with him and charged with being drunk in and about an automobile, paid a $5 fine.

Bank Glad To Lose Business

GUNNISON, Colo. (AP) — There's no profit in re-selling stamps so the First National bank is glad it's out of the "post office" business.

Tellers were puzzled by a flood of tourists asking for stamps, mailing schedules and such until one visitor finally noticed that an arrow sign, intended to point to the post office around a corner, had been moved by the wind until it pointed directly at the bank.

Soviet Sponsors Newest Ballet

MOSCOW (AP) — THE Soviet Union's newest ballet—The Bronze Horseman—has been successfully staged by theatres in Moscow and Leningrad.

It is based on Pushkin's poem of the statue in Leningrad of Peter the Great. It is a new production of the Bolshoi theatre.
