Pioneers Remain Unbeaten

By The Associated Press

Lewis and Clark remains the only unbeaten team in Northwest conference football play and favorite to retain the championship after last weekend's games.

Coach Joe Huston's Pioneers had an easy time beating Willamette, 41-12, while Linfield upset Pacific, 6-0, to dump the Badgers out of a first place tie with Lewis and Clark.

RUNAWAY

Caley Cook, L. & C's speedy frosh halfback, put the Pioneers in the lead early in the first quarter with a 28-yard touchdown run. After quarterback Bruce Longhalla plunged four yards for a second score, L. & C made it a runaway. The Pioneers counted again once in the second period, twice in the third, and once in the fourth.

Willamette's two touchdowns came in the last quarter. Passes by quarterback Benny Holt accounted for both. He threw 36 yards to Chuck Lewis for the first score and 23 yards to Charley Noone for the other.

UPSET

Ad Rutschman's running helped Linfield in its upset of Pacific. But it was a 15-yard pass play from quarterback Mel Fox to end Jack Leonard that produced the winning touchdown in the second period.

The Badgers, who upset College of Idaho the previous weekend, made several strong scoring bids in the first half, but were completely checked by a stout Linfield defense in the last two quarters.

The Flamingo, a $50,000 added mile and an eighth feature for 3-year-olds, will be held at Hialeah next March 1.

When the Philadelphia Phillies won the National League pennant in 1915, their current manager, Eddie Sawyer, was a 5-year-old lad in Pawtucket, R.I.

Hal Miller, 6-4 and 220 pounds, is the heaviest man on Georgia Tech's football squad. A junior from Kingsport, Tenn., he is 21 and plays right tackle.

Phil Rizzuto, popular Yankee shortstop, was the first member of the world champions to collect 100 hits this season.

O'Reilly, Knox Sign; Melby Meets Ghost

Matchmaker Mack Lillard announced yesterday that he had signed Jack O'Reilly and Glen (Baldy) Knox for a rematch Wednesday at the armory.

O'Reilly, who sent out "I wuz robbed" howls after losing last week's match on "disqualification," wouldn't sign until Lillard and Knox agreed to:

(1) Two referees to handle the bout—one inside the ring, one outside, and

(2) A no time limit match.

GETS GHOST

Bill Melby, Salt Lake City's Mr. America of 1948, signed for a return to the armory ring, asked for the Galloping Ghost.

Inasmuch as the masked man refuses to perform in any bout but the main event, this match, one hour time limit, will share main event billing with the O'Reilly-Knox donnybrook.

Carl Engstrom, recovered from a knee injury that kept him off last week's card, meets Gordon Hessel in the half hour opener.

Engstrom is a Swedish boy who hails from Chicago.

This will mark the third O'Reilly-Knox match. With the bad blood, it's expected to top even last week's hassel for thrills.

O'Reilly has promised he'll "get Knox" any way possible.

Melby, who pleased the women fans last season, is taking on a tough assignment in the Ghost. But he's a classy performer who is up to the task.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Castleberry's drugs.

Teachers Blank 6 Grid Foes

NEW YORK, (AP)—The list of the nation's unbeaten, untied college football teams has dwindled to less than 40 and only one of them has not yielded a point.

Boasting the lone unbeaten, untied and unscored upon record is Pittsburg (Kans.) State Teachers college, which has rolled up 163 points in six games while holding its opponents at bay.

Seven of the nation's top 10 elevens in the Associated Press poll have unblemished records. The other three — California (No. 1), Texas (No. 4) and Texas Aggies (No. 6) dropped their first games last Saturday.

Michigan State (3) and Georgia Tech (5) each has won five games. The others—Tennessee (4), Maryland (7), Illinois (8), Princeton (9) and Baylor (10) have perfect marks in four contests each.

Among the second ten, Stanford (13), Cornell (14) and Northwestern (18) have not tasted defeat.

Pendleton Reports Attendance Gain

WALLA WALLA, (AP)—Pendleton reported the largest attendance average, but all teams in the new Tri-State baseball league were a financial success.

That was the report yesterday of officials of the semi-pro league. The loop, comprised of teams from Pendleton and La Grande, Ore., Lewiston, Ida., and Walla Walla, was established last year. The Lewiston entry for next year is uncertain because that city tentatively has applied for a Western International league franchise.

Tulelake Wallops Merrill

It was a bad weekend for Merrill.

Not only did the Merrill spuds finish in the also-ran class, but Tulelake's football team doled out a 44-7 whomping to the Huskies in the annual Spud Festival game Saturday.

The Huskies played without two regulars—tackle Bill Weishans and fullback Bruce Sanders—sidelined by Coach Ray Rader for disciplinary reasons.

Jack Hendrickson scored Merrill's only touchdown, capping a 70-yard drive in the second quarter with a two-yard spurt off tackle.

On the first offensive play of the game, Bill Sowles passed to Jerry King on a 43-yard touchdown play. Sowles scored from 11 yards out minutes later, culminating a 60-yard drive with a gallop off tackle.

The Honkers added their third touchdown in the first quarter. Bill White cruising 45 yards into the end zone.

Sowles found Art Goldblatt with a touchdown pass in the second frame. White scored again in the third on a 12-yard run.

Two intercepted passes gave Tulelake two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, Bill Olson scampering 34 yards on one and guard John O'Keefe covering 29 yards on the other.

Branch Rickey, Pittsburgh Pirates' general manager, caught and played the out-field for the New York Highlanders in 1907. In 1914 he failed as a pinch hitter in two games with the Browns.

Clyde King, crack relief pitcher for the Dodgers, appeared in 43 games for Brooklyn in 1945.

WSC Aerial Game Beats OSC Beavers

CORVALLIS, (AP) — The Oregon state Beavers, stunned by a defeat that virtually eliminated them from the coast conference football race, will begin work today for next Saturday's contest with California.

The Beavers were upset Saturday by Washington State, 26 to 13, after twice holding the lead. The result was a letdown for OSC followers after the Beavers' inspired game against Southern California, which they lost, 16-14, on a disputed play.

The passing combination of sophomore quarterback Bob Burkhart and end Ed Barker was the big actor in the Cougars' victory.

THE SCORE

After Oregon State had scored in the first period on a 12-yard run by halfback Dave Mann, Burkhart flipped a 27-yard pass to Barker, who ran 40 more to the tying score.

A Pass interception on the WSC 15 set up an OSC touchdown in the second period. Halfback Bill Anderson scored it from three yards out, and Jim Cordial converted.

Halfback Bud Roffler of WSC tied it with an 11-yard touchdown run and a conversion before the half.

Burkhart and Barker went to work in earnest in the third period. A 56-yard pass play from Burkhart to Barker provided the winning touchdown.

Then, the Cougars marched 59 yards to an insurance score, with Burkhart's passes a big factor. Fullback Jim Head plunged the final two yards.

Washington State threatened twice again in the last quarter but couldn't score. In the final minute, fullback Ray Hobbs tried a field goal that failed.

The teams were even in first downs—14 each. OSC had a slight rushing advantage—222 yards to 194. The difference is shown in the passing department, where WSC rolled up 229 yards to Oregon State's 61.

Four Apply For League

WALLA WALLA, (AP)—Four cities applied for membership in the Tri-State semi-pro baseball league yesterday, but directors postponed a decision until their December meeting.

League officials said the delay would give Lewiston, Ida., time to clarify its position. A member of the semi-pro league last season, Lewiston is attempting to underwrite a franchise in the professional Western International league.

Unofficial applications for membership in the semi-pro circuit were received from Baker and Hermiston, Ore.; Nampa, Ida., and an army team from Richland, Wash.

REAL PRO — Among his numerous other distinctions, Herman Hickman, Yale's large football coach, is president of the Connecticut chapter of The Society of Amateur Chefs.

Michigan State will have five freshmen on its 1951 football squad.

Georgia Tech's football team will be dominated by sophomores this season. The squad includes nine seniors, 18 juniors, 26 sophs and three freshmen.

Giants, Browns in Crucial Tilt

NEW YORK, (AP)—The New York Giants, only team holding an advantage over the Cleveland Browns, take their unbeaten record to the gridiron of the once defeated National football league champions in the pro circuit's No. 1 game Sunday.

The Giants, with a 13-13 tie by Pittsburgh the only blot on their record, chalked up their third victory of the campaign yesterday with a great third period scoring splurge that downed the Philadelphia Eagles, 26-24.

At the same time, the Brown's defense also proved their best offense as they blanked Pittsburgh's Steelers, 17-0, for their third success in four outings.

DEFENSE

Coach Brown's defensive unit was the big factor in Cleveland's shutout of the Steelers. In addition to staving off two Pittsburgh scoring threats, the defensive players scored the two touchdowns. Lou (The Toe) Groza's 17-yard field goal produced three points and marked the 15th successive game in which he has kicked a field goal.

Meantime, the battle for the National conference lead was reduced to a two-team affair—Chicago's Bears and Los Angeles. A week ago five teams were deadlocked.

The Bears, with John Lujack coordinating his passing with the running of rookie John Dottley, defeated San Francisco 13-7. A 67-yard run by Dottley on the end of 10-yard pass from Lujack produced one TD and the ex-Notre Dame ace sneaked over for the other after the 200-pound fullback had smashed 11 yards to the one.

SHUTOUT

The Rams, exploding for all of their points in the second half, shutout Green Bay 28-0. Dan Towler, 220-pound rookie, went 79 yards; Bob Waterfield hit Tommy Kalmanir with a 38-yard pass and Norman Van Brocklin connected with Elroy (Crazy Leg) Hirsch for 81 yards for three touchdowns—all in seven minutes. Jerry William scored the final one.

Lujack was injured in the fourth period and carried from the field.

Sammy Baugh, playing every minute the Redskins were on the offensive, passed for the touchdown that gave Washinton a 7-3 triumph over Chicago's Cardinals and the Skins first victory of the season.

Bob Celeri's aerial work was instrumental in bringing the New York Yanks from behind four times as they tied the Detroit Lions' 24-24. Leon Hart accounted for two of Detroit's touchdowns catching 15 and seven-yard passes for scores.

When Tommy Holmes hit in 37 straight games in 1945 for a National League record he drove out nine homers, three triples, 11 doubles and 43 singles for a total of 66 hits.
