Grain Prices Advance Slowed

CHICAGO, (AP)—The advance in grain prices ran into some stumbling blocks on the board of trade today. Wheat and soybeans were tripped up, but the feed grains cleared the hurdles to continue their upswing of the previous session.

Wheat closed ¾-⅞ lower, December $2.59 ¼-⅛, corn ¼-1⅜ higher, December $1.84 ¾-⅞, oats ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, December 97 ⅝-¾, rye (new style) 1½ to 2 cents lower, December $2.01⅝, soybeans 1 to 3½ lower, November $2.99 ½-¾, and lard 5 cents lower to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, November $15.55.

Buyers Exclusive But Prices Gain

NEW YORK, (AP)—Buyers were exclusive in their selections today in the stock market, but their demand was heavy enough to send prices higher.

Inspiration was given to the market in rotation by coppers, radio-television issues and air lines.

Gains ran a little past 2 points at the best. There were plenty of fractional minus signs, however. In some cases losses went to three points in high-price brackets.

Despite the interest shown by buyers, volume of business was held down to an estimated 1,200,000 shares, well under average. Yesterday's total came to 1,180,000 shares.

The market started mixed and drifted along a narrow course. The first upwide interest was shown in the coppers with favorites like Anaconda and Kennecott going up around a point.

Non-Support Gets Prison

A sentence of one year in the Oregon state prison was given Amos Bates, 47, yesterday afternoon, on charge of non-support of minor children.

Bates was placed in the county jail over the weekend for violation of probation. He was placed on probation October 26 for two years on the non-support charge.

According to officers, Bates violated his probation by being drunk. He was given a five-day county jail sentence and fined $5 for being drunk on a highway.

According to the district attorney's office Bates was the father of 11 children, seven of whom are still minors.

Bates told Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg he had contributed about $50 to his family's support over the past four years and that the family was receiving $194 relief from public welfare.

Also in circuit court yesterday on charge of violation of probation was James Everett Elledge. He was returned here from Danville, Ill., by Sheriff Jack Franey.

In December of 1948, Elledge was given five years probation here in circuit court on charge of assault with intent to rob.

Sheriff Franey said Jack Herwick will be returned here today from Martinez, Calif., by a deputy sheriff to face charge of non-support of minor children.
