Grains End Year With Good Gains

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains rang out the old year in rather appropriate fashion on the board of trade Monday. They sank at the start, reversed their trend, pushed ahead of the previous close and ended with gains.

That was a capsule performance of what happened during the year — a crop from February through June and an upturn since then, which thus far reached its peaks on Dec. 10. Dealings were active Monday as they have been for most of the year.

Wheat close ¼-1½ higher, March $2.59¼-¼, corn ⅛ to 1 cent higher, higher March 94½-⅝, rye 3 to 4 cents higher, May $2.09¾-2.10¼, $292 and lard 3 cents lower to 13 cents hundred pounds higher January $14.12

Stock Market Shows Small Gain

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed out the old year Monday with a modest gain and a late flurry of trading.

Changes amounted only to fractions either way with a mere handful of exceptions. Many leading issues traded unchanged virtually the entire session.

Trading came to an estimated 1,300,000 shares.

Oils, chemicals and rails contributed good support to the list from time to time. Among the better acting issues were Chesapeake & Ohio, Monsanto Chemical and Standard Oil N.J.

Forger Gets 3-Year Term

Douglas Dale Fenning, 20, was sentenced to three years in prison shortly before noon today on revocation of a three-year probation imposed last July on a charge of forgery by endorsement.

He has been held in the county jail since December 16 when he was arrested on the complaint of a 24-year-old woman that he tried to rape her.

The original charge upon which he was sentenced regarded a $127.18 Southern Pacific payroll check. Fenning admitted forging the name of Peter A. Peterson on the back of the check and cashing it.

Fenning said he picked the young woman up downtown the night of December 15 and after a few drinks they drove to a point near Algoma where, he said, she took off her clothes.

He said he intended to seduce her, but was "startled at the cooperation."

However, the girl told police she resisted him and jumped out of his car when they came back to town.

Also in circuit court this morning was Kenneth Mack Anderson, 20, who has pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary—stealing potatoes from a railroad car at Adams Point.

His sentencing was deferred until an FBI report of his previous record, if any, is received. He has admitted a grand larceny arrest in Seattle and desertion from the Coast Guard.

Girl Held In Knifing Try

A 16-year-old Indian girl is held in the City Jail for Indian authorities following a reported attempted knifing of a 15-year-old boy in a downtown theater Saturday afternoon.

According to City Police, this is what happened:

The girl was sitting behind the boy and asked him to remove his hat. He reportedly refused and she threw the hat in the theater aisle.

Then, police said, the boy slapped the girl's face and she drew a knife on him.

The boy's 13-year-old brother, reportedly stepped in between the two, and stopped the affray.

In The Day's News

That's where the danger lies. If Stalin decided that way, he'd be wrong. We'll stand for being pushed around only just so long. Then we'll fight.

In that event, World War III would be on, in all its horror.

I'm haunted by the fear that we haven't handled the Russians right. We've TALKED tough. Extremely tough. But, in the pinches, we've always given. As in Korea. As in Hungary.

I wish we had Teddy Roosevelt back.

He believed in SPEAKING SOFTLY but carrying a BIG STICK. If we had followed that sound advice in all our dealing with Russia, we'd be better off now.
