MARKETS and FINANCIAL

Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) — In the final Saturday session before the summer recess, the stock market was quiet with prices steady.

The stock market goes on its regular five-day schedule next week —with time out for Memorial Day —and it intends to resume trading on a six-day basis in October.

Prices changes Saturday were almost entirely fractional.

Volume came to an estimated $00,000 shares.

Former Basin Woman Dies

A former Klamath County resident, daughter of one of the eariest pioneer stockmen, Mrs. Albert O. (Alice) McLaughlin, died Friday in Oakland, after an illness of two months. She was 79 years old.

Mrs. McLaughlin, a writer of note who wrote the first story of the Modoc War to be written in this country, was the daughter of William Spence who settled on the West side of Upper Klamath Lake in 1889. Part of his extensive land holdings are now the Rock Creek ranch owned by D. E. Alexander, where the families spent their summers.

She had last visited here with a sister, Mrs. W. Montellus, 1852 Logan Street two years ago and leaves many friends in Klamath Falls.

Her widower, now retired survives as does one daughter, Mrs. Maud Ziemer, Oakland, a grandson, Roy Southwell, high ranking army official now in Japan and her sister, Mrs. Montellus here.

RECITAL AT 91

NEW YORK (AP) — Pianist Gustave Becker gave a recital here Friday, the day after his 91st irthday. It was the 80th anniversary of his first concert appearance.

He made his debut in his native town, Richmond, Texas, the day after his 11th birthday.

GRAINS

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat, soybeans and rye maintained a firm tone on the board of trade Saturday, while corn and oats were inclined to lag, at times dipping under previous closing prices. Trade was rather light.

The firmness in wheat was attributed to continued dry weather in the northwestern spring wheat belt and in Canada.

Wheat closed ¾-1 ⅛ higher, July $2.35, corn unchanged to ¼ higher, July $1.84 ¼. Oats unchanged to ¼ higher, July 76 ¾-⅞, rye ¼ to 2 cents higher, July $2.01, soybeans and lard 5 to 8 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $12.25.

WESTERN PINE

PORTLAND (AP) — Orders for western pine lumber fell off a bit in the week ended May 17, but were above the same week last year. Some mills have been strikebound, reducing production from 1951.

Comparative figures reported by the Western Pine Association, in board feet, 000 omitted, for last week, previous week and year ago in that order:

Orders: 62,380; 63,708; 61,598.
Shipments: 58,145; 55,956; 68,791.
Production: 54,020; 51,077; 67,313.

LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO (AP) — Hogs, cattle and sheep sold nominally steady Saturday. The week was featured by a halt in the wide upswing in live hog prices which had been going on for the three previous weeks.

Hogs held little changed most of the week, but producers shipped in the largest supply for a Friday in three months. That broke the market. Barrows and gilts closed the week $1.00 to $1.25 lower while sows were off 50 to 75 cents. Wholesale pork advanced 50 cents to $2.00.

Choice and prime over 1,100 pound steers closed the week steady to 50 cents lower but all other weights and grades of steers and yearlings, along with heifers and cows, finished steady to 50 cents higher. Western fed steers arrived in large quantities, including two loads all the way from California.

Slaughter lambs closed the week 50 cents higher while sheep held steady.

Horse Throws, Injures Girl

Trilby Treat, 19-year-old waitress, was seriously injured late Friday afternoon when she fell or was thrown off a horse in a field off the 3600 block on Anderson.

She is believed to have a broken vertabrae. X-rays were taken at Klamath Valley Hospital after she was brought there by Kaler's ambulance.

The girl is believed to have been dismounting when her foot probably caught in the stirrup and she fell over backwards. She was riding with Dean Collins. Both work at the Hilltop Cafe.

Clubs Defined As Lotteries

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Revenue Bureau has defined merchandise clubs as lotteries.

Businessmen who operate the clubs, the bureau said Friday, must pay the new gambling taxes after July 1.

Bureau officials had told a reporter some time ago that the clubs come under the gambling tax law, but the formal ruling was delayed pending protests of that interpretation by some business groups.

The ruling said merchandise clubs operate as follows:

A group of customers agree to pay, for example, one dollar a week for a period of up to 30 weeks to a businessman. After the second week, one customer's name is drawn from the list and that member makes no further payments. In effect, he gets merchandise valued at $30 for $2.

The next week another name is drawn, and that member gets $30 worth of goods for $3. Only the last person left on the list pays a full $30.

According to the gambling law a lottery operator must pay a $50-a-year gambling occupational tax, by buying a stamp. He also must pay the government 10 percent of his total receipts.

RED OFFICERS ARRESTED

BERLIN (AP) — The arrest of 21 high Soviet officers, among them eight staff officers of the Soviet army of occupation in Thuringia, was reported Saturday by the West Berlin newspaper Telegraf.

NO SUNDAY DRIVERS, THESE — International sports cars travel at high speed as they go around one of the hairpin turns in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. These sleek models are prepping for the Guardsmen's first annual Sports Car Road Races at Golden Gate Park, May 31.

WOMEN'S PREROGATIVE THE WORLD OVER — Communist women prisoners of war on Koje Island flatly refused medical treatment a few days ago. Exercising their right to change their minds, these prisoners climb into a truck en route to the camp hospital for minor medical attention. American guard (left) is closing the compound gate behind them.

CAUGHT WITH HIS BRIDGE DOWN— Deputy Sheriff Michael Rivich (left) serves court order on John Rialas, bridge tender at East Chicago, Ind., compelling him to open bridge and allow passage of the Standard Oil tanker Red Crown. Rialas ignored the order until court orders had been served on city officials. The tanker contains 2,700,000 gallons of gasoline and has been bottled up since May 1 because striking oil workers refuse to allow the bridge to be opened.

IT WAS LOADED— Three-year-old Richard Lindberg Jr. is carried from hospital at Chicago by father. Boy was treated for a bullet wound after he shot himself while playing with his grandfather's pistol. He may lose sight of right eye.

Ridgway Against Bombing Of Red Manchurian Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway has told senators he believes that United Nations bombing of Communist bases in Manchuria would increase the force into the Korean War.

His feeling on this issue was disclosed with publication Saturday of a heavily censored transcript of his testimony at the general's closed door appearance before the senate armed services committee Wednsday.

The committee, headed by Sen. Russell (D. Ga.) released the transcript after cutting out many sections for the stated reason of national security.

The transcript quoted a question by Sen. Morse (R.-Ore.): "Is it your military opinion that the bombing of Manchurian bases would greatly increase the danger of bringing Russian air forces into the Asiatic war."

"In my opinion, it would, sir," was the quoted reply of the former U. N. Commander in Korea.

Another Morse question in the transcript was: "Are you in position to advise this committee this morning as to whether it is true that we do not have air superiority in Asia in case the Russian Air Force should come into the war?"

"Reply omitted for security reasons," the transcrip read.

Speaker Rayburn said in a House speech Friday that the United States has lost air superiority to Russia.

Asked by Morse whether the loss of Korea by force of arms or voluntary withdrawal would threaten the security of Japan," the general said:

"Very definitely, sir."

"I think it is an unchanging Communist objective to obtain military control of the entire Korean peninsula," he continued.

U.S. Doctors, Nurses Hurt

PUSAN, Korea (AP) — American doctors and nurses are shocked and grieved at the way their Chinese and North Korean patients at the U.N. Hospital for war prisoners here have turned against them over the past month.

Their faithful treatment, they complained, was repaid with last Tuesday's riot. One prisoner was killed and 85 injured when American infantrymen entered a compound of recalcitrant prisoners.

Trouble began April 16 when Reds protested a U.N. screening order. Communist-led prisoners in three compounds ran up Red flags and took control. The nurses and doctors continued to treat the sick at the compound gates.

"One doctor was white with rage. He couldn't believe it," said Lt. Col. Philip J. Niel Jr., Louisville, Ky., chief medical officer at Enclosure 10 where Tuesday's fight occurred. "We thought these people were appreciative of the care we gave them."

"We've given the same care to the prisoners we would to GIs," said Capt. William A. Miller, Oklahoma City, Okla., chief orthopedic surgeon. "A patient is a patient as far as we're concerned."

LOGGERS STRIKE

EUGENE (AP) — Crews of the Lane Pacific Logging Co., 40 miles east of Eugene on the McKenzie River, went on strike Thursday in a dispute over the discharge of an employe.

Army Builds Huge Prisons

KOJE ISLAND, Korea (AP) —Army engineers on this prison island are working day and night with everything from bulldozers to picks and shovels to build two huge enclosures for more than 80,000 Communist war prisoners.

The new enclosure will contain compounds designed to hold 200 prisoners each. By splitting up the Red prisoners, U.N. authorities hope the job of maintaining order here will be eased. The areas should be ready in two weeks.

Koje's compounds now hold almost 5,000 prisoners each.

The opportunity to gather large numbers of prisoners has enabled fanatic Red leaders inside Koje's enclosures to put up a solid front against attempts by camp authorities to maintain order.

Youth Jailed After Fight

Hubert Dale Perry, 17-year-old Bonanza ranch hand, is held in the County Jail in connection with a March 22 dance fight at Bonanza which put another boy in the hospital for a week.

The injured youth was identified as Bob Bergman, Klamath Falls.

Young Perry was brought into Juvenile Court Friday on a delinquency petition, and was turned over to the District Attorney for prosecution in a trial court. No formal charge had been placed against him this morning.

Tractor Kills Eugene Farmer

EUGENE (AP) — A tractor pulled itself over backwards Friday afternoon, killing John W. Michael, about 65, a farmer.

Coroner Fred Buell said Michael's son Donald found his father dead under the tractor which had been hitched to a pipe stuck in the ground. The tractor apparently toppled in making the pull.

HORSE RACES

PENDLETON (AP) — More than 800 fans Thursday watched the first of three night quarter horse race programs being held in conjunction with the annual Northwest Quarter Horse Association meeting.
