Camp Six

By ELEANOR THOMSON

Summer Bible School closed Aug. 16 with an inspiring program held in the cookhouse. Nearly all the parents attended this evening service and program which was ably directed by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Burkart, directors of the school.

Lucille Napier, Oakland, paid her parents a short visit about the middle of August. He parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Napier long-time camp residents. Miss Napier has informed us that she is now working in her capapcity as a Registered Nurse for the Standard Oil Company in Oakland.

Corky Fugate, son of Cal Fugate, Klamath Falls, spent a week recently visiting his grandparents here, the Henry Napiers. Little Julie Nell Napier, daughter of Mr. in which he lost the sight of one and Mrs. Jules Napier of Eugene, spent several days here with her grandparents, the Henry Napiers, while her parents were in Portland making arrangements to move there. They have sold their Eugene home and will live in Portland where Mrs. Napier has secured a teaching position and Mr. Napier intends to continue his medical studies.

Mrs. Herb Janes and daughter Juanita, Portola, Calif., came up for a visit with Mrs. Janes' sister, Mrs. Jack MacCartie, who lives near here at Rodeo Springs, and to get her young son, Bert, who has been spending the summer with his aunt. They spent from Aug. 19 to the 24th at the MacCartie summer home.

Friends of the Archie West family who lived for many years in camp and now lives in Medford, will be saddened to hear of an industrial accident sustained by West eye. It was caused by a sliver of steel driven directly into the pupil.

The Gus Hall family has purchased a home in Klamath Falls near the Weyerhaeuser district and has moved in from camp in time for their daughter, Anita Gail to start school in the first grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Heywood and son Wayne, spent nearly all of August on a vacation during which they did considerable traveling through the Northwest. The first 10 days were spent at their church's Annual Summer Camp meeting at Gladstone Park near Portland. In Portland they were guests of the LeRoy Millers. At Dayton they had a visit with a sister of Heywood's, Mrs. Leo Schrammeck. They spent one night at The Dalles with the Art Schoonhoven's, then up to Soap Lake, Wash., for two nights at the home of Mrs. Bess Sage. Thence to Spokane and a visit with Heywood's brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Heywood. Here Heywood and son "Skip" took a side trip up to Boville camp while Mrs. Heywood went over to Moscow, Idaho, for a short visit. The Heywoods next visited the Bert Heywoods at Weippe, Ida., then motored through the Salmon River country and home through Burns and Lakeview, Ore. The elder Heywoods returned to their home in camp while "Skipper" continued visiting for ten days at the Harold Marks home on Denver St. In Klamath Falls.

Mrs. D. V. Huck, together with three Klamath Falls women, Mrs. L. A. Smith, Mrs. Harvey Martin and Mrs. Lee Mayfield spent three days of fishing Annie Creek, near Crater Lake Park, during the latter part of August. Mrs. Heywood managed the camp store in Mrs. Huck's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Glassburn and son Roger have moved to Klamath Falls where Mr. Glassburn will be employed. Roger will attend KU High as a Sophomore. The Glassburns will be missed, but their friends here wish them happiness and success in their new venture.

Mrs. Thomas Thomson returned Aug. 17 from Sidney, Mont., where she was called because of the death of her father, H. J. Halvorsen, Aug. 4. Funeral services were Aug. 7 at Sidney. Mrs. Thomson and daughter Jeannie who accompanied her, left Sidney Aug. 13 by car together with her two sisters, Betty Halvorsen, Sidney, and Esther Eyer, Seattle, Rose Turner, Sidney, and Edna Pillis, Cleveland, Ohio, friends of Miss Halvorsen. The five women enjoyed a beautifully scenic trip through Montana, Idaho and Washington. The party arrived in Seattle Aug. 16. On Aug. 17, Mrs. Thomson boarded a United Air Lines plane and flew to Klamath Falls and thence home to Camp Six.

Miss Georgia Thomson celebrated her 15th birthday anniversary with a party the evening of Aug. 23, together with Joe Leatherwood of Bly whose birthday is also in August. The party started out with 18 guests and a wiener - roast and swim at Bly Park, and continued with dancing, opening of presents, and sharing birthday cake and punch at the Leatherwood home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tomson helped the Leatherwoods with the party.

Mrs. Everett Heywood will drive the school bus this year, taking over from George Smith who has been the driver for the past four years. The Smiths have recently moved to a new job in Bly. And here's some more news concerning the versatile Mrs. Heywood. She has recently purchased a Hammond Electric Organ, and reports that she is certainly enjoying making music on it.

Mrs. Peter Katchis and infant daughter, Mary P. are expected home after Labor Day from several weeks spent in Portland at the home of Katchis' brother John.

Mrs. Gordon Good entertained at a Stanley Party at her home, Aug. 22.

Mrs. Harold Marks, caretaker of the Heywood home in their absence, entertained a group of women, at a game party Aug. 13. Mrs. Jack MacCartie was winner of most of the prizes. The week previous Mrs. MacCartie entertained a group of camp women with an afternoon of cards at her Rodeo Spring home.
