LADIES AID

MERRILL — Mrs. Effie Eagle and Mrs. Mary Pickett were hostesses for the November meeting of the Presbyterian Church Ladies Aid at the Eagle home. Mrs. Wilbur Haskins was in charge of the devotionals, the singing of hymns.

Fancywork left over from the recent bazaar will be on sale at the Ben Franklin store. Mrs. Harriett Fotheringham, Mrs. Ruby Mitchell, and Mrs. Pearl Moore were appointed the committee in charge of nominating new officers, which will be elected at the next meeting Dec. 17. A Christmas gift exchange will be held at that meeting. There is a 50 cent limit on gifts, and members with children are requested to bring a child's gift. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bernace Wilson.

The members voted to donate $10 to the Community Chest, and will also purchase a Care package.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following members. Mrs. G. A. Milne, Mrs. Lyle Huffaker, Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick, Mrs. Warren Fruits, Mrs. Frank Hunnicutt, Mrs. Harriett Fotheringham, Mrs. Warren Conner, Mrs. Pele McNeil, Mrs. Miles Moore, Mrs. J. L. Haskins, Mrs. R. A. Smith, Mrs. Ben Mitchell, Mrs. Bernace Wilson, Mrs. Winifred Taylor, Mrs. George Offield, Mrs. Myron Haskins, Mrs. Verna Haskins, Mrs. Wilbur Haskins, Mrs. Dwight Eagle, Mrs. Martin Winther and one visitor, Mrs. Cora Wilkins.

PLAYERS CLUB

The Library Club Room was gayly decorated with snowmen and candles by the hostesses, Mrs. C. F. Leithoff, Mrs. E. R. Olson, Mrs. Winston Purvine and Mrs. Robert Woods when they entertained Players Club Wednesday evening Dec. v.

Following introduction of guests and a short business meeting cards were in play with high in bridge awarded to Mrs. Jack Rhodes and low to Mrs. Maude Rupert, high in pinochle to Mrs. E. G. Murphy and low to Mrs. J. B. Weaver.

SURPRISE SHOWER

CHILOQUIN — A real surprise party! The stork provided the biggest surprise at the pink and blue shower for Mrs. A. A. "Bud" Soukup, given last Tuesday by Mrs. Ernestine Ortis.

Invitations were issued on the previous Thursday—on Friday the guest of honor gave birth to a wee little boy, five pounds two ounces—at Klamath Valley Hospital. On Tuesday the guests met and were joined by Mrs. Soukup and tiny Gerald, who weight four pounds fourteen ounces that day. They had been brought home from the hospital for the surprise.

Guests hemmed diapers during the afternoon and took turns holding the tiny boy, the third child and second son in the Soukup family.

Mrs. Todd Deffenbacher took the special award for the day.

Attending were Mrs. James Huff, Mrs. Martha Nelson, Victoria Nelson, Mrs. Chester Jack, Mrs. Friedman Kirk, Mrs. Floyd Ohles, Mrs. Ed Doty, Mrs. Layton Hoback, Mrs. Lloyd Peters, Mrs. Todd Deffendbacher, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Manual Ochoa, and Mrs. Gerry Wolff.

Sending gifts but not present were Mrs. Elmo Lobert, Mrs. Anton Zadina, and Mrs. Earl Knauss.
