Truck Charge Arrest Made

Joel Anson Danforth, 19, is booked at the County Jail on a charge of violation of the Dyer Act, involving transportation of a stolen truck from Arizona to California.

He telephoned officers here yesterday from Malin to give himself up when he learned that there was a warrant out for him. The federal warrant was issued in Southern California.

Danforth is originally from West Rutland, Vt., but has been living around Malin for several months. Twice last year he was picked up at the request of New York authorities as a parole violation, and both times he was ordered released by New York authorities. He was first placed on parole in New York for theft of a truck.

Henley Slates Soil Confab

Soil fertility is slated for a thorough going-over Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Henley Grange Hall at a public session sponsored by the Orange Agricultural Committee and the Klamath County Agent's office.

Results of fertilizer trials carried on throughout the county are to be discussed by Dr. Al Halvorson, Klamath Experiment Station.

T. L. Jackson, OSC extension soil conservation specialist, is to discuss soil fertility work going on in the rest of Oregon. He is to speak on the new soil testing laboratory at Corvallis, too.

Klamath County Agent Walt Jendrzejewski, reported local farmers have indicated considerable interest in soil testing, and better understandings of testing problems and results should be forthcoming from Wednesday's meeting.

Fairview Home Escapees Captured

Two boys, admittedly escapees from the Fairview Home, institution for feebleminded at Salem, are held in the County Jail here and probably will be returned to the home.

They were booked as Joseph Wesley Moses, 22, and Lee Stanley Sabin, 19.

The youths were picked up by a State Police officer at Chemult Sunday night, and admitted burglarizing a house near Oakridge earlier in the day. A watch stolen from the house is being held at the State Police Office here.

Barbershop Ducat Sale Set Soon

Ticket applications by mail order only are slated to begin tomorrow for this year's Barbershop Quartet Parade to be held in the Pelican Theater April 11.

Approximately 1,800 tickets will go on sale, all reserved admissions, according to Klamath SPEBSQSA Pres. Charles Bane. Ticket applications should be accompanied by checks, cash or money orders, and should be mailed to Fred Southwell 731 Main, treasurer of the local group.

The traditional parade here provides all proceeds for benefits of local youth organizations.

Long Time KF Man Passes

William Van Duker, 71, long-time resident of Klamath Falls, died following a short illness at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Carl D. Matthews, 1737 Wall. He had lived in Klamath Falls 26 years.

Morse Says GOP Fostering War

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) says the Eisennower administration has increased the possibility of World War III by its foreign policy in Asia.

Morse, who bolted the Republicans to support Democrat Adlai Stevenson for the presidency, said yesterday on the televised "Junior Press Conference":

"We must build up the productivity of Europe and take an enlightened capitalism to Asia in order to defeat communism."

Morse said instead the Eisenhower administration is trying to defeat communism on the military field instead of destroying it economically.

Four Die In Accidents

By The Associated Press

Week end accidents in Oregon claimed the lives of four persons—two of them children.

Brooks Fowler Anderton, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Anderton, Coos Bay, drowned Saturday while swimming with his family in a warm springs pool at McCredie Springs. The rest of the family had left the pool and the father had told the boy to leave. But he stayed to swim a few minutes more and drowned.

Susan Ingle, 18-month-old daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Ingle, 34, Corvallis, and Mrs. Ingle's aunt, Mrs. Hazel Forsburg, 65, of Portland, were killed Saturday when a car driven by Mrs. Ingle collided with a Portland Traction Co. bus at a Portland intersection. Mrs. Ingle and another daughter, Marilee, 6, were injured.

Mrs. William E. Bales, Portland, was fatally injured Saturday night when a car driven by her husband skidded off the Coast Highway between Otis and Neotsu. Her husband was hospitalized with minor hurts.
