CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybeans and wheat enjoyed early buying flurries on the board of trade Friday but by the close most of their gains had faded.

Buying in the soybeans was based on a private crop forecast sharply reducing estimated production from a month ago. Strength in crude bean oil helped. Toward the finish the market had to absorb profit taking prior to the weekend.

In wheat the May and July contracts ran up 2 cents at one time. They held their gains quite well. Buying was based on continued dry weather in the Southwest with practically no moisture forecast for the next five days.

Wheat closed ¾ lower to 1 ⅝ higher, Dec. 1.92 ⅞-¾, corn 1 cent lower to ¼ higher, Dec 1.44-1.44 ⅛, oats ⅜ lower to ⅛ higher, Dec. 74 ¼, rye unchanged to ¾ lower, Dec 1.13 ¾-1.14, soybeans ½ lower to ½ higher, Nov 2.60 ¼-2.60, and lard 10 cents lower to 40 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Social Security At Root of More Marrying Oldsters

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—More elderly persons are marrying nowadays but the number still is small, a New York State legislative committee reports.

The Joint Legislative Committee on problems of the Aging yesterday attributed the increase in late marriages to social security.

The committee, of which Sen. Thomas C. Desmond, 65, is chairman, said the program enabled oldsters to support themselves rather than live in institutions.

Truman, who spent about 30 minutes here yesterday while en route from Caruthersville, Mo., to his home, said that Warren was as "fine a man as I know."

About 300 persons were on hand when Truman took the train from here to return to Independence, Mo. He had attended an American Legion fair in Caruthersville.

Paperboys Get Patterson Send-Off

National Newspaperboy Day, which will be observed Saturday, received official recognition from Oregon's governor, Paul L. Patterson, who stated that experience as a newspaperboy provides youngsters with "a lot of the stuff that goes into building a successful and happy life."

Governor Patterson, who designated Saturday, Oct. 3, for observance of Newspaperboy Day in Oregon, knows whereof he speaks. As a boy, he carried the Portland News, Portland Telegram, Oregonian, Oregon Journal and the Seattle Star.

"This work starts the boy off as an individual businessman," the governor said. "He develops habits of regularity, responsibility and thrift from the realization that he must meet a set schedule, both as to prompt delivery of his papers and handling his financial obligations."

PUZZLER — How this grasshopper got inside the hermetically sealed speedometer case of a new 1953 Ford owned by Earl C. Cole of Parsons, Kas., is an answerless question so far. Mechanics say they will have to remove the speedometer from the instrument panel and dismantle it to remove the grasshopper. The car has been driven only 53 miles.

The deer kill this year has been a great deal smaller than last year, according to the Division of Fish and Game. The number of hunters coming into the area were less than previous years, in some areas only half. During the first two days 83 bucks were checked through the quarantine station. One reason for the small bag is that this year there must be three points or better; last year forked horns were legal, which automatically reduced the number of deer to become legal target this year.

The Board of Trustees of the Federated Church sponsored a dinner Sept. 26 for the Alturians and newcomers. This was the first dinner of the season and drew a large crowd. Omar Coppedge, president, welcomed the newcomers and Mrs. Betty Cron presided over the social hour. Dinner was prepared by wives of the Board members.

The next dinner date, to be announced later, will be served by the Phil Goods, Art Hughes, Chris Starrs and Mrs. Claire Eddie.

An oil stove at the residence of Mellie Miller on Court Street caused a fire Sept. 28, which the local fire department quickly put out.

Two skits were presented by Mrs. Ella Vance and Mrs. McKee of Likely depicting the correct way to visit your child's class and teacher. Reports were given on the State Convention at Long Beach and the Timberline Tri-District Convention at Redding. New members of the local schools and Board of Education were introduced.
