THE TWO-TONED FOUR-DOOR sedan in the "210" Series typifies the new beauty and smartness of the Chevrolet line for 1954. The "210" Series is one of three offered by the company in an array of 13 body models. Added power and chassis improvements, extension of the Powerglide automatic transmission option to all cars and luxurious new interiors in striking color harmonies are a few of the principal features. The new Chevrolets go on display Friday at Ashley Chevrolet, 410 So. 6th.

KUHS Concert To Be Given Friday

A free concert will be presented Friday evening, Dec. 18 at KUHS, starting at 8 p.m.

Participating will be the KUHS orchestra, under the direction of Walter Smith, and the KUHS choir and boys' and girls' glee clubs.

The vocal part of the program will be directed by Andrew Loney Jr., music director of Klamath Falls schools.

The public is invited to attend this annual concert.

RETIRES

SALEM (AP) — State Supreme Court Clerk Arthur S. Benson, who retires Jan. 1 after 52 years of service, Wednesday received a large silver tea tray, presented by the seven justices.

The presentation was made at a public reception given by the court.

Several hundred persons attended.

Camera Club Party Slated

The Klamath Camera Club has scheduled an interesting program for the Dec. 22 Christmas party, marking close of this year's activity.

A 16mm. sound movie, "Highway to Hawaii," provided by United Airlines will be shown.

Members are asked to take colored slides of the Klamath area to be used in a guessing contest. Prizes go to the lucky. Black and white pictures of cloud effects were shown at the last meeting and were analyzed for composition, subject interest and technique.

Meetings scheduled for January include selection of colored slides for the contest sponsored by the Photographic Society of America, Jan. 5; a movie night program and demonstration, Jan. 12, conducted by Leo Morstad; and a black and white print night, Jan. 19 with "Reflections" as subject matter for the prints.

All meetings of the Camera Club are held Tuesday evenings at 8 p.m. in the Community Lounge, 228 No. 8 Street. Guests are always welcome at the regular meetings.

Movie Fans Aid Hospital

Klamath movie patrons contributed $1486.59 to the Variety Club—Will Rogers Memorial Hospital at Saranac Lake N.Y., in a Christmas Salute fund program carried on in Klamath motion picture houses recently, it was announced by Bert Henson, Klamath Falls chairman.

The hospital is a privately financed institution dedicated to the treatment and care of show business people who have been stricken with tuberculosis, and to laboratory research in the ceaseless effort to find a preventive cure for the disease.

The amusement world in general, and the motion picture industry in particular, can look with pride and satisfaction in the admirably fine job that has been done in taking care of its own people who suffer the ravages of tuberculosis.

The industry feels a deep gratitude to its patrons who have helped with their contributions in making this possible," was the statement of George M. Mann of San Francisco, general chairman for the San Francisco area.
