Another "At Home"

"Just For The Boys"

FELLAS" . . . that's the way it started last year, when d Mrs. Nerseth opened their house on New Year's Day crowd of son Marvin's pals . . . and that's the way it ntinue. By popular demand this New Year was a repeat television added) . . . and some 25 of Marvin's friends welcomed at the Nerseth home, 2027 Del Moro.

ughter Gail, assisted her mother with the wide array nches" (built for male appetites) . . . and a varied as- nt of cookies . . . served with quantities of hot coffee. was swell of you to have us again this year . . . we had t time . . . see you next year" . . . (or whatever the "real George" vernacular is at the moment), was in e a forecast to the Nerseths that this second year "at makes two of what promises to develop into a tradi- "many".

p center, Mrs. Nerseth with Bill Matthews (next to her), y Christensen, Racine, Wis., center, holiday houseguest Nerseth home; and son Marvin. All three are Stanford .

Upper right, perfect sense of touch is evinced by the two hands unerringly making contact with the cookies . . . absolutely without the aid of an eye. Tom Murdock from Willamette, and Jim Davidson (associated with his father in business) . . . deftly help themselves from the tray offered by host, Dr. Nerseth (with no words or food lost).

Upper left, Gail Nerseth, Tom Upington, (center) Western Washington College of Education; and Dave Cummings, Oregon State, peruse a copy of the Stanford "Quad". Lower left, (l to r), Bill Harlan, Southern Oregon College of Education, and Clayton Hannon, University of Oregon, "quaff and quip".

Lower right, Bill Matthews again, at the left, Don Day, (center) OSC; and Kit Johnson, Lewis and Clark; having a fascinatin' time with "Here We Go Again" . . . which title perfectly expresses the spirit of the "repeat" party.

Group picture, a camera study in score reactions (a guess) . . . anyway it was taken just after the telecast of the Rose Bowl hassle.

Front row, on the floor (l to r), Marvin Nerseth, Sam Montgomery, (OSC); Jim Peak, (U of O); and George Brandt, (KUHS); Second row, same order, Dave Cummings, Bill Harlan, Dick Ward, (Lewis and Clark); Harvey Christensen, (between Marvin and Sam); Bill Matthews, Don Day, Kit Johnson, Tom Murdock, Dave French, (Willamette); and Tom Upington.

Two in back, Clayton Hannon (almost); and Jim Davidson. And there were others who had to leave before the photographer showed up . . . so it's actually a good baker's two-dozen men who know now what they'll do next Jan. 1.

Marilyn and Margaret Gerber Entertain With A Buffet Supper For About 30 Guests New Year's Day

e spacious, "homey" Henry Gerber residence, 329 reet was the scene of great holiday activity, climaxed get-together buffet supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Gerwin daughters, Margaret and Marilyn for about 30 of iends on New Year's Day at 5:30 p.m.

e party hours were dedicated to the festive board, and much lively conversation.

than the hosteses' sister, uests were Barbara Cusilyn Miller, Jean Owens, ary, Phil Lewis, Mr. and hard Geary, Ronald Hershom Murdock, Marvin Nerorge (Stevie) Stevenson, George Knight, Reed Custer, Bud Deller, Lester Larson, Joyce James, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tockey, Chick Quinowski, Beverly Eells, Robert Van Vactor, Janice Larson and Kenneth Doty. Ensign Doty was a houseguest at the Gerbers' over the New Year weekend. He left Sunday for Vallejo, where he is attending California Maritime Academy.

Invited, but unable to "join the crowd" — were Frances Stearns, who had to return to Chicago early to make it to Evanston and her alma mater, Northwestern, on time; and Sylvia Hillis, who left on Friday with her parents to attend the East-West game in San Francisco, and went from there back to school at the University of Arizona in Tucson.

Marilyn Gerber left on the 2nd for the same school, where she is studying geology and anthropology. Margaret left the next day for Oakland, where she is studying art and music at Mills College.

ZULEIMA NILE CLUB

Nile Club of Klamath ld its regular monthly meeting Jan. 6, at the Hotel. Clever balloon arts and dolls of foreign formed the centerpiece table.

nt Charlotte Osborn introelen Cox, general chairarrangements, who pre- r committee, composed of wing members: Charlotte Lynne Martin, Lorraine ois Mills, Florence Stein- Pat Stites, Emma West, Schulze, Josephine Young, a Underwood, Kathleen n, Letha Murphy, Elva Josephone Kittredge, Ailsa all and Geraldine Duncan. R. Andrews, a member of Temple No. 16, Sacra- as a guest of Lois Ser-n Thompson introduced W. Stearns, who showed pictures of a European h she with members of y took last summer. Mrs. gave interesting com- the various places shown many amusing experien- had, resulting from the they let the tour plan they went along.

resident appointed Phyllis rgaret Larkin, and Jean to serve on the nominatmittee which will make its the February meeting. Day for the local club celebrated at this time.

chairman, Dixie Bebber members that sewing turned in at, or before, and those who have not th the sewing may bring ticles to be included nk or green wash Turkish hand towels, aplets of any size to ton, chairman of Box committee, re- packages were sent at Greenville, S.C. gift was presented Dyre. Special prizes to Mary Barkdoll, El- er, and Blanche were played following with Claudine Van rge.

Merrill Couple Married in Reno

The Community Baptist Church in Reno, was the setting for the wedding of Yvonne Conner and Frank A. Testerman, Dec. 17.

The Rev. Glen Wise, cousin of the bride, read the service at 3 p.m., with only members of the immediate family president. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Conner, Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Testerman, Poe Valley. Mrs. Verna Haskins, grandmother of the bride, was also present.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white knit suit with red accessories. A white orchid was worn at her shoulder.

Dolores Conner, sister of the bride, was her only attendent, and H. A. Testerman, father of the bridegroom, was best man.

After a honeymoon trip to Salt Lake City, they are now at home in Merrill.

TULELAKE GUILD MEET

TULELAKE—Mrs. Amos Hoyt, new president of the Guild of the Tulelake Presbyterian Church, presided at the business meeting that followed the 1:30 p.m. luncheon in the church annex Jan. 6. Devotionals were by Mrs. Chester J. Main. Mrs. Leonard Meshke was in charge of the program.

Mrs. R. D. Aikens read a litany for fathers and mothers. A bulletin on the dedication of the new Presbyterian Church, Brookings, was shown. Pastor of the church is Hugh Bronson, former pastor of the Community Presbyterian Church here.

Mrs. Lillian Turnbaugh sang two numbers, "This Is My Task," and "Afterglow," with Mrs. Meshke at the piano.

There was a moment of silence in memory of the late Mrs. Cora Stevenson, mother of Mrs. Herman T. Street, who died recently in Oklahoma.

A letter was read from Mrs. Terry Hansen, the former Irene Forsythe, missionary, who escaped from China ahead of the Red army.

Mrs. Chester J. Main was elected president of the Martha Circle of the Guild to succeed Mrs. William Schindler who resigned. Other officers are Mrs. Otto Haynes, vice-president; Mrs. H. T. Street, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. D. P. Reid, in charge of aid to war torn countries reported that 524 pounds of clothing was sent overseas last year. It was also voted to send $25 to Marvin Nelson, missionary to India.

The next general Guild meeting will be held Feb. 3 at the home of Mrs. Ronald Ward and a 1:30 p.m. dessert luncheon is planned by the Martha Circle, Jan. 20, at the home of Mrs. Main.

Auxiliary To Canton Crater 7

The Ladies Auxiliary to Canton Crater No. 7, Patriarchs Militant, honored its charter members with a program and presented each with a gift at the Dec. 10 meeting. They were, Ladies Grace Wells, Nina Beck, Effie Redkey and Anna Bean.

President Mary Pope presented gifts of beautiful handmade candles to the following members who had perfect attendance records during the past year: Ladies Isabelle Foster, Arloa Andrus, Kate Hogue, Sadie Mae Wallace, Stella Dryden and Jennie Hurn.

Officers elected to serve in 1954 were: President Isabelle Foster; Vice President Lucile Wirtz; Secretary Harriett Estes; and Treasurer May Anderson.

Next meeting will be Jan. 14. Refreshments will be served by Isabelle Foster and Harriett Estes.

Bridal Shower For Mike Carrolls

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scherer, Keno, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Carroll. Mrs. Carroll is the former Helen Scherer.

A large crowd attended the event, and the honored guests received many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. R. Griffith and Mrs. Melvin Griffith.

ETHEL ZIMMERMAN . . . daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Chiloquin, who left last Monday by plane for St. Louis and then to Washington, D.C. to train for an administrative job overseas with the State Department.

The Saturday before she left, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Staiger gave a farewell party for her. Ethel showed some of the colored pictures she took during the past two years in Japan—and on the round-the-world route she took on the trip home. Cards were also played later in the evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gienger, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Norval, Bill Norval and Mrs. Fred Markwadt.

K C PAINT STORE

FORMERLY GENERAL PAINT

NOW OPEN

AT

OUR NEW LOCATION

520 KLAMATH AVE.

• Featuring General Paints • Wall Paper

• Equipment Rental KEITH CODDINGTON, Owner

★ WE GIVE S&H GREEN STAMPS

PAST NOBLE GRANDS CLUB

The Past Noble Grands Club met on Tuesday Jan. 5 at the home of Mae Anderson for a one o'clock potluck luncheon.

Election was held and the following were voted to fill the offices for 1954: President, Mae Anderson; vice president, Anna Bean; secretary, Margaret Biden; treasurer, Alma Cofer.

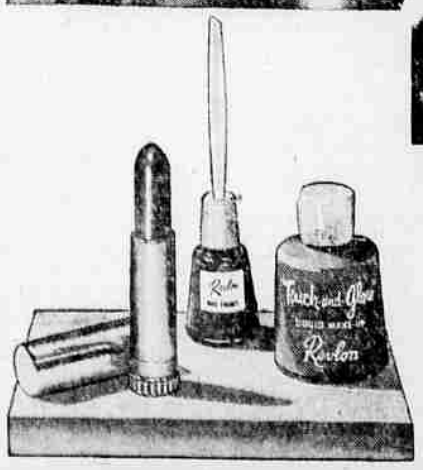
Committees appointed were: Sadie May Wallace and Lina Motschenbacher, calling; Elizabeth Ramsby and Anna Bean, visiting. Get well cards were sent to Alice Goeller, Rose Keesee, Jennie Hurn and Esther Mast.

The following members were present and sewed on quilt blocks: Florence Custer, Georgia Zollman, Anna Bean, Nellie Wattenburg, Alma Cofer, Sadie May Wallace, Kate Hogue, Mae Anderson, Ida Grimes, Lina Motschenbacher and Elizabeth Ramsby.

Florence Custer invited the club to meet at her home, 241 Hillside, Tuesday, Feb. 2, at one o'clock.

Now!

Make LEE HENDRICKS your headquarters for all your Revlon beauty needs!



We're proud to announce that we now have a complete line of fabulous Revlon Products . . . Touch-and-Glow, Moon-Drops, White Sable, Aquamarine Body Luxuries, Non-smear Lipstick, Improved-Formula Nail Enamel . . . and all the other Revlon cosmetics you love so well! So don't wait . . . come in soon for all your Revlon beauty needs!

LEE HENDRICKS

2212 So. 6th "Your Neighborhood Druggist" Phone 4321