HAPPY GOLFER

ATLANTA (AP) — Many a golfer has thrown a club when things went wrong on the course. But T. C. Mann astounded his companions by tossing his five iron toward the green immediately after he had sunk a hole-in-one on the Bobby Jones Municipal course. He was so excited about making his first ace that he forgot himself and threw his club into the air.

Cavemen Tenth In AP Vote

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Milwaukie, victor in 21 of 22 games, continues to be the unanimous choice of sports writers as Oregon's best high school basketball team in the weekly Associated Press poll

But as playoffs to determine contestants in the state tournament get under way the other teams in the top 10 are more closely bunched. Milwaukie, Corvallis, Eugene, Roosevelt of Portland and Marshfield held their places as the first five in that order, but only three points separated Corvallis and Eugene for No. 2.

The top 10 remained unchanged, but there was some shifting in rankings of the lower five in close voting. Gresham took over No. 6 followed by Baker, Albany, Salem and Grants Pass. Only seven points separated Gresham and Grants Pass.

Roosevelt is the only one of the top 10 certain of a state berth in the tournament, which opens at Eugene March 18 The others are in district playoffs.

At least one of them will have to stay home. Corvallis, No. 2, and Albany, No. 8, are in the same district and one will lose out in the playoff.

The poll with season record listed for each team.
