Big Ten Selects Oval Team

CHICAGO (AP) — Big Ten track coaches have selected a 35-man squad, including eight athletes from both champion Illinois and runnerup Michigan, for the annual meet with the Pacific Coast Conference.

The meet will be held at Northwestern's Dyche Stadium in suburban Evanston June 15.

The PCC, with performances generally running better this season than they have been in the Big Ten, is favored to win, as it has in eight of 12 previous meets.

Illinois' double sprint champ, Willie Williams, heads the Big Ten delegation, and will be joined by five other Illini winners in Saturday's Big Ten outdoor meet: Ralph Fessenden in the 440; Willard Thomson, high and low hurdles; Gene Maynard, 880, and Dale Foster and Jim Wright, who shared the pole vault title with Bob Ehrhart of Northwestern.

Michigan's entries include three individual champions, shot putter Fritz Nilsson, discus man Roy Pella and high jumper Mark Booth.

Michigan State's John Cook, mile champ; Iowa's Earl Smith, broad jump winner, and Purdue's Gene Matthews, two-mile titlist, also will compete. Rich Ferguson, Iowa's two-miler who set a meet mark of 9:03.4 last year, failed to make the team. Stomach cramps handicapped him in the conference meet.
