THAW'S MOTHER WITNESS FOR HIM

(Continued From Pirst Page.) morning, a death in Justice Fitzger ald's family causing an abandonment of the Thursday sitting.

"Battling" Nelson in Court.

"flattling" Nelson, the pugilist, this morning was the center of attraction in the courtroom. The pugilist occupied the entire attention of the spectators up to the time the defendant was called to the bar. Nelson was accompanied by his manager, William Nolan, and they occupied seats just behind the Thaw again came to court laden with letters which continue to come to him from all quarters of the globe. Most of the letters are in praise of the defendant, and he manifestly takes great satisfaction in reading them.

Ever since the trial began Thaw has been making voluminous notes of the testimony. It is now said that he spends his evenings in the Tombs transcribing these notes and arranging them for the use of his lawyers. It is said that he will attempt to make Mr. Delmas sum up the case on the lines he will lay down, based on this record of what he considers the weak points in the prosecution's case.

Costs $15,000 for State's Experts.

Mr. Jerome sent to Controller Metz for an emergency appropriation of $15.00 in special revenue bonds to pay the expense of experts engaged by the state to testify as to the sanity of Harry Thaw on the night he shot Stanford White.

In the trial of Albert T. Patrick for the murder of William Rice, the District Alberts of the murder of William Rice, the District Alberts of the state of the stat Attorney obtained more than $50,000 to pay the expense of experts employed by the state.

TELLS OF HER SON'S TROUBLES

Thaw's Mother Relates Events Leading Up to His Marriage,

NEW YORK, March 6 .- Mrs. William Thaw was called to the stand immediately after court assembled for the session. Clerk Penny had called the roll of the jury when Mr. Delmas whispered to him, and in a loud voice the clerk commanded:
"Mrs. William Thaw to the witness

Mrs. Thaw sppeared a moment later. She was still dressed in the same black trock in which she appeared the first day which she appeared the first day of the triat.

With head erect and well thrown back, she walked to the witness chair. She stopped at the corner of the jury box, and the court crier handed her the Bible. Clerk Panny administered the oath, and as Mrs. Thaw took her place in the chair the court crier announced: the court crier announ

"Harriet Copies Thaw."
Harry Thaw was all interest. He sat facing his mother and seemed extremely nervous. He rested his cheek on his hand and bit his nails. Mrs. Thaw repeated and bit his nails. Mrs. Thaw repeated her mane in response to a question by Mr. Delmas, speaking in a tone so low as hardly to be heard. Mr. Delmas stood immediately to her left.

Mrs. Thaw said that in the Pall and Winter of 1968 she was living in Pittsburglieg son Harry came home, she said, on November 18 or 17, n. day or two before his herether, Joshik's wedding.

"During the time your son Harry was at home, did you notice anything unnatural about his condition?" asked Mr. Delman.

His Face Wore Despairing Look.

"I certainly did." replied Mrs. Thaw.
"Will you please describe what took

"The day when he first came to the door, there was a look of absent-minded-ness on his face, a despuiring look." Mrs. Thaw's two sons, other than the defendant. Edward and Josiah, sat just behind Harry during their mother's testi-"Did the impression of a change in our son grow on you?" asked Mr.

the night. I heard smothered sobs, Some times, when I was awake last at night, I would see a light under his door and ofter found him sitting up at 3 o'clock in the morning. He told me he could not o and there was no use going to bed. ked him to tell me what the matter He said it was impossible to tell me

'Did he at any time, in answer to your estions, freely tell you the story?" He told me freely one night, when I

Mr. Jerome objected to the repetition of the story until Mr. Delmas stated that the time at which it was fold was covered by the testimony of the alienists as a period when Thaw was insane. Then Mr. Jerome withdrew his objection and allowed the witness to give the purport of the conversation.

Told Story of Girl's Wrong.

"He told me the story," said Mrs. Thaw, "but not definitely. He said his troubles were caused by something a wicked man had done in New York, probthe wickedest man in New York. He it had ruined his life and he never the happy. That was all I could be happy. get from him for a week."

get from him for a week."

Mrs. Thaw said Harry seemed absorbed, as it he was working with a great problem. He was very fond of music and often he would leave the table and go into a parlor. Mrs. Thaw, as she told of her son's condition, almost broke down. "I would hear lead music upon the piano, which would gradually grow softer and softer, and he would come back to and softer, and he would come back to the table as if nothing had happened.

the table as if nothing had happened.

"The week before Thanksgiving, I understood more. I did not know the girl's name, I did not ask for it. I did not want to know it, but I did know that his condition had something to do with a young girl. He had told me about the wicked man in New York, but it was only later that I found out that this man hid ruined a young girl.

"After I found his condition was due to something which had been done to a young girl, I asked him why he should allow his life to be ruined.

"Harry said the girl had been neglected by her mother, or that she had no mother, or this thing would not have happened. He said there was still a chance for her to be good. I can't recall all that he

o be good. I can't recall all that he Burst Into Tears in Church.

"On Thanksgiving day Harry and I

Here Mrs. Thaw's voice failed. Her face flushed and her eyes filled with lears. Justice Fitzgerald asked if she could proceed. She nodded, but re-

"When," asked Mr. Jerome in a low voice, "dld the defendant first inform you of his relations with the young you of his relations with the young woman who became his wife."

Mr. Delmas objected. He said the question assumed what was not in the evidence. Mr. Jerome changed the form and asked:

"It was the first Thanksgiving in our large and beautiful new church," said Mrs. Thaw, when she was able to resume. Told Nothing of Former Relations.

"Did the defendant ever disclose to you the fact that he had sustained relations with the young woman before ashe became his wife."

"Did the defendant ever disclose to you desire in any way to change your atatement that in your he fact that he had sustained relations with the young woman before ashe became his wife."

"He did not," said Mrs. Thaw firmly. The lunch recess was ordered. "When, Jerome in a low you mean an irresistible impulse?"

"You mean an irresistible impulse?"

"You mean an irresistible impulse?"

"That is all."

Dr. Wagner started to explain, but was stopped by Mr. Jerome's repeating:

"that is all, Doctor."

Mr. Delmas asked but one question upon re-direct cross-examination.

"Doctor, after this long cross-examination, do you desire in any way to change your atatement that in your opinion this defendant when he shot she became his wife."

"He did not," said Mrs. Thaw firmly.

"When your son teturned to Pitts
"You mean an irresistible impulse?"

"That is all."

Dr. Wagner started to explain, but was stopped by Mr. Jerome's repeating:

"that is all, Doctor."

Mr. Delmas asked but one question upon re-direct cross-examination.

"Doctor, after this long cross-examination, do you desire in any way to change your atatement that in your opinion this defendant when he shot the policy was stopped by Mr. Jerome's repeating:

"That is all."

Dr. Wagner started to explain, but was stopped by Mr. Jerome's repeating:

"That is all."

Dr. Wagner started to explain, but was stopped by Mr. Jerome's repeating:

"That is all."

Dr. Wagner.

"That is all."

"That is all." under the gallery. When the choir was she became his wife?"
singing Kipling's 'Recessional.' I heard 'He did not," said Mrs. Thaw firmly.
'He did not," said Mrs. Thaw firmly.
'When your son returned to Pitts- Wagner. The lunch recess was ordered.

falling upon the programme. He was trembling all over, but I duleted him, "As we drove home, I asked him how he had come to forget himself. He said this dreadful thing had suddenly come over him and, if it had not happened, she might have been with us then."

Mrs. Thaw told of Dr. Bingaman's having prescribed a nerve tonic for her son.

on.

After Harry once spoke of the young roman, he often talked of her, said Mrs.

"When did you first learn who the oung woman was?" asked Mr. Delmas. "I cannot recall exactly. I think it was in the Spring of 1904."

"Do you recall the conversations you and with your son at that time?"

Jerome Clearly Shows Hand. Mr. Jerome objected on the ground that air. Jerome objected on the ground that there was nothing in the evidence to show that Thaw was insane at that time. The conversations, he declared, should be confined to the periods of insanity as testified to by the experts.

Mr. Delmas replied that Dr. Wagner had testified that Thaw's insanity began in 1903, when he heard Evelyn's story.

Mr. Jerome interrupted: "Are you invoking the rule which I pointed out yesterday." he asked, "that the presumpion of the defendant's insanity continues tion of the defendant's insanity continues until otherwise proved?"

"That is the rule of law which I invoked to cover the point I now wish to make." replied Mr. Delmas.
Mr. Jerome now, for the first time since the trial began, mentioned publicly the possibility of a suspension of the trial for the appointment of a commission in lunaey.

have testimony here," said "that this defendant was insane in July, 1962, insane in November, 1903, insane on April 4, 1904, and Insane June 25, 1906. Why does he not continue insane right down to the present time if the presumption Mr. Delmas cites is correct? And why should not this trial cease. rect? And why should not this trial ceas—be suspended until the matter of th defendant's present state of mind can b inquired into."

nquired into"'
Mr. Delmas rose to reply. "The question of a suspension of this trial is not before your honor for determination," he declared. "The presumption which I have cited permits us to give the testimony which is under discus-

Overruled After Long Argument.

The argument was long, the attorney taking sides opposite to those they took yesterday, when Mr. Jerome desired to obtain from Dr. Wagner testimony re-garding conversations he had with Thaw in the Tombs during the last five visits he made to Thaw. Mr. Jerome argued that, while, as he claimed yesterday, insaulty once established is presumed to continue until it is shown that the con-dition has disappeared, in this case Dr. Wagner's testimony was proof criough to overcome the presumption. He said the experts had testified that Thaw was in-sane at periods from 1901 to 1905. The de-fense, he said, wished the judge to rule that for three years Thaw was continuously insane.

"But now." he said. "after sever and able to advise his counsel."

If it were claimed that Thaw is insar

now. Mr. Jerome said, it was only a mat-ter of appointing a commission in lunacy and stopping the trial.

Justice Fitzgerald interrupted to say that the matter of a commission was not before him and that he was simply pass-ing on Mr. Delmas' objection. Justice Fitzgerald read from a decision covering the point, and sustained the objection. which allowed Mrs. Thaw to proceed with Thaw Wants to Marry Girl.

Mrs. Thaw then testified as to con ersations with her son between Thanks ving. 1905, and Harry's departure for urope in the Spring of 1904. "He told me the girl's name," said Mrs.

Thaw, "He said she had been persuaded to go upon the stage, which was very bad for her" Harry returned to Pitts-burg, she said, in November, 1904.

burg, she said, in November, 1904.

"Did he speak to you again about the young girl?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"There had been a horrible scandal." said Mrs. Thaw, "or at least they made it out a scandal. I remember my expressing my disapproval of his coming home in the same ship with the girl. He explained it all to me. He was still of a mind to marry her."
"You have said nothing before about his wanting to marry her," Interrupted

Mr. Delmas

Mr. Delmas.
"I must have forgotten it," replied Mrs.
Thaw. "He told me in November, 1963, that he wanted to marry her, but that he had been frustrated." Mrs. Thaw said that in February, 1905, she and Harry took a trip south. "He then asked me to come on to New York and meet the young woman," continued Mrs. Thaw. "In March, I did so. Yes. t was not necessary that I give my con-ent but I did."

Jerome insisted that Mrs. Thaw give the entire conversation with her tim of on as far as she recalled it.

Past Must Be Closed Book.

"After meeting the young woman," sh resumed, "we returned to the hotel and Harry asked me if I had any objection to his marrying her. I told him it was not necessary for me to give my consent. against my wishes. I said I was per-night ir feetly willing. I did afterwards make replied: one condition—it was not to prevent the "They indicate marriage, but I told Harry if he married dant was insane.

upted Mr. Delmas.
"We arranged that the woman should onie to Pittsburg and we arranged for haperonage, etc. When Harry came nome for the wedding, he seemed to be home for the wedding, he seemed to be laboring under a great stress and feared that the wedding would be interfered with by the young woman's mother on account of the girl's minority."

After a recess of 15 minutes, Mr. Delmas announced that his direct examination of Mrs. Thaw was concluded and Mr. Jerome began his cross-examination. He asked Mrs. Thaw if she was not for a time after her husband's death a trustee under his will. Mr. Delmas at once objected This is not proper cross-examination, said he. "This matter was not gone into and I hardly can conceive that it is the purpose of the District Attorney to attempt to discredit the witness.

Thaw's Income Moderate.

Mr. Jerome was profoundly respect ful in his attitude toward the defendant's mother as he continued his cross examination. He asked the witness if she would kindly state what her son's income was subsequent to June, 1964. "I am not able to say exactly. It was certainly not what the newspapers have said."
"Was the income from his father's estate? "It was from his own estate inherited from his father."

Mrs. Thaw said she could not give any figures, but would say that the income was a "moderate one." "When," asked Mr. Jerome in a low voice, "did the defendant first inform you of his relations with the young woman who became his wife." Mr. Delmas objected. He said the him."

"He said she had told him it would be a very unsuitable match. I said if she came to me her past would be a closed book. The man's name was never mentioned in my presence."

"I did not understand, mademe, what you said about this defendant's remarks to you about Miss Nesbit's mother being of no help to him."

"He said she would not help nim to raise the girl out of her condition."

After one or two unimportant questions, Mr. Jerome closed his cross-examination.

erome, "he expressed a desire to you "He did." burg in the Fall of 1903," asked Mr.

"Did he ever express a fear that others would prevent her from accepting Wants to Tell of Heredity.

"Is that all I am to say?" asked Mrs. haw. Mr. Delmas said there was noth-Thaw. Mr. Delmas said there was nothing more for her to say.

"I wanted, if permissible, to say something about heredity." said Mrs. Thaw, rising in her seat and speaking earnestly. In a low voice, Mr. Delmas explained that there would be nothing more she could say.

Mr. Delmas then stated that the defense would call only two more witnesses—experits—who would be re-nesses—experis—who would be re-quested to answer a hypothetical ques-tion covering the whole case from be-ginning to end and embracing every fact which has the remotest bearing on the case. The two alienists to be called are Drs. Hammond and Jelliffe. Justice Fitzgerald announced that, owing to a death in his family, he would not hold court tomorrow. Ad-journment was taken then until 13:39 Friday morning.

EXPERT FINISHES TESTIMONY

Friday morning.

Wagner Says Thaw's Reason Was Clouded on Day of Marriage.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Dr. Charles Wagner, who has been under cross-examination since Monday afternoon, was again called to the stand in the Thaw trial this morning, and District Attorney Jerome began to ply him with the charlest second to the standard to the charlest second to the standard to the standar questions regarding Thaw's will and codicil. Dr. Wagner said he believed that when Thaw wrote the section of the will providing for a fund for the prosecution of anyone who might take his life, his mind was clouded and he did not have as clear an idea of such matters as a man who was wholly sane, but enough to be able to appreciate that the taking of a human life was a crime.

"Doctor, when this defendant stood up to be married upon the same day that the will was signed, did he know what he was doing?" asked Jerome. "I don't think his mind was entirely

"Was it clear enough for him to understand that he was getting married?"
"Yes, he understood it."
After questioning Dr. Wagner regarding the letter written by Thaw in 1903 to Attorney Longfellow, Mr. Jereme suddenly asked:

"Was there any period between 1905 and 1905 when this defendant was in full possession of his faculties?"
Dr. Wagner hesitated a moment and they realled:

then replied: "There are several months in that period of which I have no record. It is possible that there may have been re-covery during that time."

Reasoning in a Circle. Mr. Jerome took up a number of works by various authors on psychi-atry and asked Dr. Wagner's opinion of the works and the writers. For haif an hour this line of questioning was kept up, Dr. Wagner admitting that most of the authors noted were learned men. Following this Mr. Jerome returned to Thaw's letter, In explaining that a man might be insane and still have a working knowledge of many matters, Dr. Wagner said that in the institution of which he is superintendent he has a patient who, although the most insane man he has ever seen, is a good shoemaker. One of this man's delusions, which affects him three or four times a day, is that people who are hundreds of miles away are eating something that causes

After finishing with his questions based on Thaw's letters, Mr. Jerome asked Dr. Wagner: "Do you know a disease known as

"Is reasoning in a circle a sign of circular insanity?"

1905. "I don't know what you mean by "He reasoning in a circle."

"The kind of reasoning you have been doing." Mr. Delmas objected and asked that the remarks be stricken out, accusing the District Attorney of making an inference that the witness was a vic-tim of circular insanity. Mr. Jerome settled the matter by withdrawing the remark.

Insane When He Fired Shorts.

Mr. Jerome next took up the events upon the Madison Square Roof Garden the night Thaw shot and killed Stan-ford White. He asked the witness if He said he did not want to do anything the separate acts of the defendant that against my wishes. I said I was pernight indicated insanity. Dr. Wagner

"They indicate to me that the defenone condition—it was not to prevent the married the girl and came to my house to live here in the East, her past life must be a closed book—her past life in New York."

"We will come to that presently," interrupted Mr. Delmas.

"We arranged that the woman should "would your online as to the defen-

"Would your opinion as to the defendant's condition be influenced if you knew that he had taken a large amount of liquor that afternoon?"
"I would want to know how much susceptible to fiquor during lucid in-tervals, are they not? There is noth-ing in the disease which would make them immune to the effect of liquor, in

"Nothing that I know of."
"Is there anything in the hypothetical question that enables you to tell whether the defendant was insane drunk?" "There is nothing whatever in the question to indicate intoxication, much ess to indicate insanity."

No Evidence Thaw Was Drunk. Dr. Wagner explained that the pallid face, slow and measured tread, the staring eyes and deliberation of the defendant at the time of the tragedy were not indications of alcoholism.

Mr. Jerome then took each of the facts as given in the hypothetical question and asked the witness if each one might not have been the act of insanity. Dr. Wagner said there was no act that might not have been performed by a same man.

"A sane man can do anything he likes," said the witness, "provided he has the capacity. An insane man is often impelled to do things which he

You mean an irresistible impulse?"

Light Turned on Prudential Life Insurance.

SURPLUS PAID BY INSURED

New Jersey Committee Proposes Limit to Capital and Profits. Dryden's Company Pays 219 Per Cent Dividend.

TRENTON, N. J., March 6 .- Senator Hilley today presented to the Senate, the report of the special committee appointed last year to investigate the subject of life insurance in New Jersey. He also offered seven bills, drafts of which were embodied in the report, to carry out the on mittee's recommendations.

By far the greater part of the report is devoted to the Prudential Insurance Company of America, the largest of the four npanies under investigation. Principal among the recommendations is one that a bill be enacted limiting the amount of capital stock which any life insurance company may have to $2,000,000 and the dividends which may be paid thereon from future earnings, so long as the company continues to conduct the participating life insurance business, to 10 per cent upon the stock; and providing that upon the dissolution of the company small have, out of the ultimate distribution of assets, not more than $2 for $1 of the face value of their shares. This bill provides, however, that where accumulations greater than that amount already have taken place, as claimed in the case of the Prudential, the stockholders shall not be deprived of their rights thereto. Among other recommendations are the following: ompany may have to $2,000,000 and the dations are the following:

Must Choose in September.

That after January 1, 1908, no domesti pany shall write both participating and nonparticipating policies; all stock companies to elect on or before September 1 of this year whether they shall con duct a participating or nonparticipating duct a participating or nonparticipating policy after the 1st day of January, and that annual accounting be made to policy-holders by classes of the portion of the surplus belonging to them and the setting aside of such a portion as part of the surplus to their credit.

The committee reports that, upon the whole, it found that the companies under investigation have been carefully administered, their funds well invested, and the salaries of their officers not so high as to require restrictive legislation.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company was found to be a purely mutual company, and to have shown a steady growth.

steady growth. The report contains an extended review of the Prudential from the time of its organization in 1872 under the name of the Widows' and Orphans' Friendly So-ciety, with a capital of $25,000, until the present, when it has a capital stock of $2,000,000 and a surplus of $18,580,000. The report says:

Profits Belong to Insured.

If the story of the atockholders be correct If the story of the stockholders be correct, the surplus of this company in law beloags to them. The present surplus of $18,589,000 afferris $204 for each dollar of the $81,600 contributed to the enterprise, and this in addition to annual dividends of $200,000, or 219 per cent paid for many years past.

The truth is that this vast accumulation of money, now amounting to more than $125,006,000, was all contributed by, and in ethics all belongs to, the policyholders, after a fair deduction for the expenses of operation and just and liberal return to the promoters of the enterprise.

enterprise.

It has been stated that at the present rate of progress this surplus is likely to be at the end of 1807 $23,000,000 and at the end of the end of 1907 $23,000,000 and at the end of 1908 $25,000,000. This money ought, in some way, to be assured to the policyholders, except such part as justly now belongs to the holders of the stock.

Rather than allow this accumulation to go on for the benefit of the stockholders, we would favor the repeal of the charter of the corporation and a reorganization of it under the general law.

It is in place of this extreme measure that the committee prepared the bill limiting the amount of capital stock of any insurance company to $2,000,000 and restricting the profits of stockholders.

RYAN OFFERS WAGE SCALE

Miners' Pay May Depend on Price of Copper.

BUTTE, Mont., March 6,-At the special meeting of the Miners' Union today the report of the committee which met with John D. Ryan, managing director of the Amaigamated Copper Company, several days ago, was accepted and the commit-tee was given extended power toward bringing about an agreement between the miners and the employing companies con-erning the new scale of wages It is understood that Mr. Ryan had offered a scale dependent upon the price of copper for the next five years, with 34 per day as the maximum wages for underground miners as long as copper shall remain at above 18 cents per pound. The scale provided $3.50 as the minimum if the red motal shall fall below 18 cents

There was some discussion at the meeting relative to the demands of the smeltermen for a higher wage schedule and the committee was instructed to meet with a committee from the Mill and Smei-termen's Union at an early date to agree consumption.

WHITE PLAGUE

Its Extermination Is Prevention.

There are a great many articles now appearing in print on the subject of consumption, whose ravages are on the increase, not only in America, but also in

That there should be a systematic and determined warfare against this awful discuse is now becoming evident to all persons having at heart the welfare of the human race.

A well-known physician, who has made tuberculosis a study for a number of years, states most emphatically that the majority of cases of consumption origin-ate in a neglected cold or cough. This causes inflammation and weakening of the lungs, and renders them liable to the attacks of the tubercle germ, which at present is very prevalent. He also states that the new soluble form of pine is probably the most powerful, active agent ever known for the quick relief of acute and chronic colds and for healing and stimulating the lungs and bronchial tubes.

Inquiry at a leading druggist's elicited

Inquiry at a leading druggist's elicited the information that the pine product above referred to is known as Concentrated oil of pine, and the formula for its use is as follows: One-half ounce of concentrated oil of pine; two ounces of glycerine, half pint of whiskey; mix and shake thoroughly and use in tablespoon doses every four hours.

The Concentrated oil of pine comes put up for medicinal use only in half-ounce vials, enclosed in round air-tight screwtop cases, which protect it from atmospheric changes and retain all the original oxone. It should not be confused with some patent medicines that are put out under similar names and style of packunder similar names and style of package. These, owing to their impurities and the fact that they are not soluble, are liable to produce permanent kidney dis-be on a basis acceptable to the large com-

TIED UP BY LEGAL POINTS

Iroquois Theater Trial Blocked From Reaching Jury.

DANVILLE, Ill., March 6.-The trial of Will J. Davis, charged with manslaughter on account of the fire in the Iroquois Theater in Chicago in 1995, is now at a standstill so far as evidence is concerned and promises to be tied up in the courts indefinitely on legal points.

When these points have been passed to the court, more of vital importance will be submitted. The defense offers to admit the facts. The prosecution denies its right to do so. Counsel representing the state said it would be shown that the theater was incomplete when opened and unfinished at the time of the fire and that Mr. Davis knowingly violated the ordinances relating to safety in public playhouses.

The defense moved that the prosecution be required to introduce the ordinance in question, the theory being that, should the court hold the ordinance invalid, there would have been no law for

The court set Friday for hearing the

JUNGLE DOES NOT ATTRACT Pigmy Not Ready to Return to His

Congo Home. NEW YORK, March 5.—Ota Bengs, the Congo pygmy, who has been living in the Howard orphan asylum, Brook-lyn, since he was taken from the mon-key house in the Bronx Zoo last Seplyn, since he was taken from the mon-key house in the Bronx Zoo last Sep-tember, through the efforts of the negro clergymen of New York, refused to go back to the immele yesterday.

Professor S. P. Verner, who brought him to this country and turned him over to the park authorities until such time as he should return to Africa, started for the Congo yesterday with an American exploring expedition. Be-fore he started he called on Ota Benga and told him he would take him back fore he started he called on Ota Benga and told him he would take him back to Africa if he wished to go. The pygmy, who is rearning the Eng-lish language, wants to become quali-fied as a missionary before he returns, and told Professor Verner so. The Baptist Ministers' Association of New York, it is stated, intends to send Ota to the Virginia seminary at Lynch-burg as soon as he rets a good hold on burg as soon as he gets a good hold on the English language. It is thought it will take about eight years to make a good missionary out of Ota.

Los Angeles Now Headquarters. LOS ANGELES, March 6.-The Wells Fargo Express Company has made changes in its southwestern district and s today establishing general headquarters in Los Angeles for the new division of the Southwest. San Francisco has hitherto been headquarters for the territory reaching from there south to Guaymas, Mexico, and east to Albuquerque and El Paso. The new district, with Los Angeles as headquarters, includes Southern California, State of Sonora, Mexico, and Arizona. John S. Mills is superintendent of the new division.

division.

Train Plunges Down Bank. WARREN, Pa., March 6,-Train No. 23, on the Western New York & Pennsyl-23, on the Western New York & Pennsylvania division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, plunged over a 25-foot embankment near Irvington tonight and nine persons were injured, none fatally. Two cars were thrown from the rails and down an embankment into a pond of water.

Shaw Heads Trust Company. NEW YORK, March 6. - Leslie M

Scott's Emulsion soothes and heals the affected membranes with glycerine, restores the tissues and builds up the blood with cod liver oil, strengthens the nervous system with hypophosphites.

off germs of bronchitis, pneumonia or

Scott's Emulsion will break up and cure the most stubborn cold.

ALL DRUGGISTS; SOc. AND $1.00. ტტტტტტФФФФФФФФФФФФФФФФ

IF YOU WANT

THE BEST $3 HAT

SEE THAT IT HAS THIS LABEL

50,000 SOLD, NOT ONE RETURNED

BEN SELLING

LEADING HATTER

the Treasury went into effect Monday the Treasury went into effect Monday, took up yesterday his duties as president of the Carnegie Trust Company. Secretary Shaw found little time yesterday for his work. He spent most of the day receiving those who called to wish him well in his new undertaking.

It is the purpose of Secretary Shaw to reside for a time at the Fifth-Avenue Hotel, where he will be joined by his family a week hence.

Kills Wife and Man.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March & Mrs. Fred Schwomeyer and William Gill died today from bullet wounds inflicted by the woman's husband at Ben Davis. Schwomeyer had started from his home for Indianapolis, but missed a car and returned home. He found his wife and Gill together. Gill was shot five times and the woman once. Schwomeyer states that his home had been ruined. The men had for years been close friends.

Case Against Penrose Complete. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 5.-The prosecution in the Penrose courtmartial rested its case today. A number of the discharged Brownsville soldiers will be summoned to testify in behalf of the deedy, which for a quarter of a century has carned unqualified praise. Restful rights are assured at once. Cresolene is a Boon to Asthmatics

Bronchitis, Coughs,

Diphtheria, Catarrh.

Confidence can be placed in a rem

All Druggists Send postal for criptive bookles. Cresolene Antiseptic Throat Tablets for the irritated throat, of your druggist or from

The Vapo-Gresolene Go.

DEN MEATS AT The HARRY WOOD MARKET

BEEF" OR GERM-RID-

ON THE CORNER-FIRST AND ALDER STREETS Prompt service, attendants neatly garbed, courteous and obliging; surroundings sunny and pleasant. This market is a miniature "Spotless Town," everybody "busy as bees" -but good-natured. What's to pay? Read:

	everybody busy as bees -	-out good-na	tured. What's to pay! Read:
	Choice Brisket Beef Beef Necks to Boil. Beef to Stew Beef Kidneys Oxtails, per pound. Pigs' Feet Corned Beef Veal Shanks, broth Beef Sh'lder Roast. Pot Roast Beef Beef Sh'lder Steak. Best Round Steak. Rump Roast Beef Hamburger Steak. Veal for Stewing Beef Tripe	4e 4e 4e 5e 5e 5e 6e 7e 7e 7e 8e 8e 8e 8e	Sirloin Steak 121/26 Small Porterhouse .121/26 Fancy Porterhouse Steak 121/26 Fancy "T"-Bone Steak 121/26 Beef Rib Steak 121/26 Veal Rump Roast 121/26 Leg Roast of Veal 121/26 Rib Roast of Veal 121/26 Rib Veal Cutlets 121/26 Rib Veal Cutlets 121/26 Legs of Pork 121/26 Leaf Lard 121/26 Pickle Pork 121/26 Side Pork 121/26 Pork Sh'lder Roast .121/26
			Beef Rib Steak 121/20
١
1	Beef Sh'lder Roast.
1	Pot Roast Beef		Rib Roast of Veal 121/26
j	Beef Sh'lder Steak.	76	Rib Veal Cutlets 121/20
ı	Best Round Steak.	Se .	Legs of Pork 121/20
ı	Rump Roast Beef.	Sc
ı		8c
ì
ı	Beef Tripe	8e
ı	Pork Hocks	8c	Pork Chops 121/20
ı	Pork Mix'd Sausage	10e	Loin Roast Veal 15c
H	Breast of Veal	10e	Loin Veal Cutlets. 150
H	Beef Brains	10e	Pork Loin Roast 150
1	Loin Steak	10¢	Pork Steak 15
	Rolled Rib Roast	10e	Hams
	Sh'lder Roast Veal.	10e	Breakfast Bacon 171/20
	on ider roast vear.	1	Dicakiasi Dacon 11/20

THE HARRY WOOD MARKET CO. Special Prices Given to Hotels and Restaurants.

CORNER FIRST AND ALDER STS.