Stevenson To Resume Party Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson returns to the political platform this fall with Wisconsin and New York appearances which may precede a November announcement in Chicago that he wants the Democratic party presidential nomination again.

A Democratic National Committee spokesman said today Stevenson will resume party activity after a self-enforced layoff since last year with a speech at the Wisconsin Democratic State Convention in Greenbay Oct. 7-9.

The 1952 nominee will then join former President Truman and New York's Gov. Averell Harriman for what may be a significant appearance at a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner in New York City Oct. 31.

Stevenson also has been booked as one of the speakers, along with Truman and other party leaders, at a meeting of national committee members and state chairmen in Chicago Nov. 17-19.

A Stevenson supporter said that while there might be some "raised eyebrows" at the choice of a party committee dinner for the occasion, he sees no reason why the former Illinois governor should not announce in the Stockyards Amphitheater site where he was nominated in 1952 that he is available again.

Stevenson's New York appearance took on added significance when it was learned that he, Harriman and Truman had been selected personally as speakers by Carmine DeSapio, Democratic national committeeman and Tammany leader.

DeSapio has given all the signs that he is running Harriman for president. Harriman has said he is for Stevenson but few party associates have any doubt he would become quickly available for the nomination if he thought Stevenson couldn't make the grade.

DeSapio's inclusion of Stevenson among the speakers was interpreted as indicating he isn't ready yet to go all out for Harriman and isn't cutting his lines to the Stevenson camp.

Logger Killed Near Grants Pass

GRANTS PASS (AP) — A logging accident about 18 miles southwest of here killed Lester Oden, 48, Wednesday.

According to witnesses, among whom was his 14-year-old son, Oden was in a wheeled loader which was being towed by cable attached to a tractor. The cable broke.

He was found unconscious beside the loader and was dead, from a skull injury, on arrival at a hospital here. It was not immediately determined whether Oden was struck by the snapping cable or thrown beneath the loader's wheels.

The widow and four children survive. The Odens recently moved to this community from Rogue River.

Yreka Zoning Protest Heard

YREKA — The Yreka city council is considering the possibility of changing the present zoning ordinance as a result of protests to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's plan to build a dial switching center in a residential district near the city's business section.

The council held no meeting this week and it is expected that the matter will be brought up again at next week's session.

City Attorney J. P. Correia told council members that the present zoning ordinance does not bar certain types of businesses from being started in residential areas. Correia was instructed to request model ordinances from the League of California Cities for the guidance of the council.

Protests were received from citizens who expressed the belief that property values in the area would be lowered. The telephone company wants to set up the building at the proposed site because of cost considerations. Company spokesmen said there would be no traffic in and out of the building because it would be used only as a dial switching center. Only maintenance vehicles servicing equipment in the building would be in the area, they said.

Record Attendance Awaited At Annual California Fair

SACRAMENTO (UP) — Californians happily took an exciting inventory of their state's progress, achievements and future today as the clicking of turnstiles announced the opening of the 1955 California State Fair and Exposition.

Fair directors and officials looked hopefully for new records in attendance as the gates swung open for the 11 days of the great show. Weather was in the low 90s and some 60,000 persons were expected to pass through the gates.

Opening ceremonies found 11 maidens, finalists in the fair's beauty contest, pouring a solution of waters from all over the state into a pond in the Marriage of California Waters ceremony. Gov. Goodwin J. Knight performed the "marriage," designed to illustrate the impact of water on California development. Following the rites, Knight's wife, Virginia, was presented with a "bridal wreath" by Walter Kane, Bakersfield publisher.

The bouquet contained four vials of water from separate sections of Kern County and their smallness was intended to spotlight Kern County's need for supplemental water to irrigate its fertile farmlands. Knight was made an honorary commodore of the Port of Stockton following the "nuptial" ceremony.

Opening day at the 101st annual fair was Sacramento County Day, 4-H Club Day and National Guard Day, with the Sacramento Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Air Force also honored. More than 1100 4-H Club youngsters capped a busy five-day annual convention at nearby Davis by attending the fair.

Judging of livestock and other agricultural and industrial products continued throughout the day. Highlights of the afternoon were the final selection of the Maid of California. She was to be crowned by Mrs. Knight and received a $1000 U.S. savings bond.

Also in the afternoon was the first of nine days of horse racing.

In the evening the spotlight will switch to the stage before the racetrack grandstand where Gordon Macrae will star in a "spectacular built around the tunes of Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein. Will Rogers Jr. is master of ceremonies and Macrae was supported by the voice of Marion Bell.

Also on the evening bill was the horse show.
