Cleveland Holds Lead By Dividing

Bums Fall To Reds; Sox Split

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The wildest American League pennant race of 'em all may have been decided by the most costly wild pitch in 51 years.

Thrown by Ed (Whitey) Ford, the errant pitch enabled the Cleveland Indians to split Sunday's momentous doubleheader with the New York Yankees and put them in a position where they probably can win a second straight flag with only six victories in their remaining 11 games.

Hoot Evers scored from third base with two out in the eighth inning as the pitch skittered past catcher Yogi Berra and that was the run that gave the Indians a 3-2 triumph after bowing, 6-1, in the opener. As a result, they maintained their 1½-game lead over the Yankees, a 3½-game edge over the Chicago White Sox and a six-game bulge over the Boston Red Sox.

VICTORIES

Thanks to Sunday's split, the Indians can finish the campaign with a 94-60 record by winning six of their last 11 games. To tie the Tribe, the Yankees would have to win eight of their last 12, the White Sox would have to take 10 of their last 13 and the Red Sox would have to sweep all 13 of their games.

Ford carried a 2-1 lead into the eighth frame but with one out served up a home run ball to Bobby Avila that tied the score. Evers followed with a double and Al Rosen was purposely walked. Ford induced Larry Doby to hit into a force play at second base but his 1-0 pitch to Ralph Kiner was the wild one and Evers dashed over the plate.

A crowd of 65,310 saw southpaw Tommy Byrne spin a four-hitter and the Yankees route 16-game winner Early Wynn in the opener.

Frank Sullivan became the League's first 18-game winner when he pitched the Red Sox to a 6-2 victory but the White Sox bounced back in the second game with a 7-2 triumph.

SHUTOUT

Southpaw Billy Hoeft pitched his seventh shutout and 16th victory to give the Detroit Tigers an 8-0 victory but Ted Abernathy's four-hitter earned the Washington Senators a 1-0 win. Kansas City and Baltimore also split, the A's winning, 4-3, and the Orioles coming back for a 4-2 decision.

Johnny Klippstein missed the National League's second no-hitter of the season on Pee Wee Reese's ninth-inning single as the Cincinnati Redlegs downed the champion Brooklyn Dodgers, 9-0 and 5-3.

The Milwaukee Braves downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-4 and 9-1, Eddie Mathews hitting a grand-slam, ninth-inning homer in the opener and Humberto Robinson pitching a six-hitter in the nightcap. In single games, Ernie Banks and Willie Mays each hit his 43rd homer as the Chicago Cubs beat the New York Giants, 7-5, and the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5, with Larry Jackson picking up his sixth win in relief.

PITCHING — Tommy Byrne, Yankees, and Johnny Klippstein, Redlegs; Byrne, 35-year-old lefty, four-hit the Indians, striking out five and walking two in 6-1 first game victory that gave Yanks a doubleheader split; Klippstein, no-hit National League champion Dodgers for 8 1-3 innings before Peewee Reese singled for the Dodgers only hit, in first game as Cincinnati swept two 9-0 and 5-3.

BATTING — Bobby Avila, Indians, had 4-for-8 in twin bill, getting two of Tribe's four-hits in opener and homering in both games; his first scored lone run in 6-1 defeat, his second tied it at 2-2 in 3-2 nightcap victory.

Owl Hoots Meet Tonight

All Oregon Tech boosters are invited to the dinner meeting of the Owl Hoots this evening at the Willard Hotel starting at 6 o'clock according to newly elected president, John Schubert.

The booster's club is preparing their year's agenda in support of the Owls, one that is shaping to be one of the finest athletic years in the school's history.

Prospective members as well as the old members from last season are urged to turn out and help support the Owls by working through the Owl Hoots.

Seattle Hosts Coast League Confab Today

SEATTLE (AP) — If meeting in successful surroundings will have a salubrious effect, the Pacific Coast League should solve some of its fexing problems Monday.

The PCL baseball club directors are to meet to slap the stethoscope on some ailing franchises.

The meeting was called by PCL President Claire Goodwin. And one of the interested onlookers will be George Trautman, the Minor League baseball czar.

Before calling for prescriptions for the ailing San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento franchises, the magnates probably will have mulled a couple of items in Monday morning's Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Item one is about the 1955 attendance for the 1955 Pacific Coast League champions—the Seattle Rainiers. The club, which won the pennant in the first year under managership of its one-time schoolboy pitching ace, Freddie Hutchinson—ex-pilot of the Detroit Tigers—drew 387,207 fans. That's better than a 100 per cent increase over 1954, when the club drew only 151,071. The team finished fifth in 1954.

Item two was an open letter to the directors from Royal Brougham, the sports editor of the P-I. In it, he twitted the California end of the league for having what he called a big-shot complex and major league yearnings. He advised them to try to sell successfully Coast League baseball, instead of distracting fans with dreams of going major-league.

The Oakland team is ready to go north of the border to Vancouver, B.C., next year. The San Francisco team is in the process of being sold by the group that called itself the Little Corp. to a radio-TV executive.

Things are rocky in Sacramento, but the Sacs hope that they can sell a few players and trim their season losses below $60,000. San Diego recently changed hands. Things apparently aren't too rugged in Los Angeles, Hollywood and Portland.

And Seattle? No complaints, except those to be aired at Monday's PCL meeting.

No Form, Favorites Seen For Golf Meet

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

RICHMOND, Va. (UP) —There is no such thing as form or favorites in the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship which opened today at the Country Club of Virginia.

There was a time, back in the days of Bobby Jones, Lawson Little and Bud Ward, when there were a few truly great amateur performers and the rest of the whole were in-and-out hackers.

But today any man in the field of 200 starters can take the big silver trophy home and stick it up on the mantlepiece.

The simple reason is that in this day there are so many superb golfers. Right this moment there are buys batting the ball disgustedly around their home courses who failed to qualify but, on a week in which they had their game "up," could "take" the fellow who grabs the silverware next Saturday.

Look back over the last few years and you'll see that this is the way it has gone of late. You can start as early as 1946, when a fellow named Ted Bishop won a playoff in his section for the final qualifying spot.

Bishop went unnoticed to the amateur and he proceeded to win it.

Move on to 1950 and possibly you'll remember that Frank Stranahan, the millionaire muscleman from Toledo was favored to take the tournament. In the finals he was expected to annihilate an unknown lad from Rochester, N. Y., named Sam Urzetta. But Sam made the putts too long and, at the end, Frank fell far short of winning.

The best of the nation went at it again in 1952 and in the finals were a Pittsburgh real estate man, a 17-year-old kid, a New York lawyer who wasn't even the champion of his own club and an unknown from Texas named Billy Maxwell, who was no better than the number two man on his college golf team. But Maxwell emerged as the best amateur in the nation.

The next time around was something of a sensation. The honor was picked up by a 47-year-old congressman named Jack Westland. Nobody had heard of him golf-wise since he played on the Walker Cup team—20 years earlier.

In the past two years, the marbles were picked up by two red-hot amateurs looking eagerly toward the pro ranks. One was Gene Littler and the other was Arnold Palmer. They gave it the pro treatment, coming up to the tournament red hot, and so they scraped in.

They were extremely lucky. Because whether it's an amateur or a pro tournament it is almost impossible to pick the winner in this era of crowded golf courses. The last two winners of the U.S. Open—Ed Furgol and Jack Fleck—prove as much. Never were horses any darker.

Logart Favored In Bout Tonight

NEW YORK (UP) — Isaac Logart, speedy Cuban welterweight, is favored at 8½ to 5 to beat lanky Al Wilson of Edgewood, N. J., tonight in their television 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

Although neither is ranked among 147-pound contenders, each is a crowd-pleasing fighter. For that reason Logart will be engaging in his fourth straight bout at St. Nick's; and Wilson, in his third straight.

Logart, the harder puncher, knocked out 19 of his 47 opponents. He lost only five bouts but was held to five draws. Wilson registered eight kayoes in his 41 scrapes. He lost 14 and drew twice.

Lopez Sees AL Flag For Club, Faces Nats

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—The league-leading Cleveland Indians were in Washington today, sitting squarely in the driver's seat and not even the sight of their season-long jinx team could scare Manager Al Lopez and his band of happy warriors.

Although no one would dare say so publicly, the Clevelxnd players feel the American League flag is as good as theirs now—barring an unforeseen collapse. And that's the farthest thing from their minds.

Yesterday's lead-saving split in New York, thanks to a winning eighth-inning rally in the nightcap, preserved their 1½-game advantage over the Yankees and left them in an envious position with only 11 games left, none with the Yankees.

The Yanks lost the second game 3-2 after winning the opener 6-1.

The second game loss was the bitterest blow of the year suffered by Yankee Manager Casey Stengel. He was a picture of gloom.

"You can't win a pennant by splitting four games with your two toughest rivals," he growled, referring to the last two series against Chicago and Cleveland. "How can you expect to win a championship if you can't get a winning streak."

There was a different air in the Indians' clubhouse.

"We just want to go the way we are and stay the way we are," said Lopez smilingly. "We're in good shape now.

"I figured on a split in New York although I was hoping for two. Had we won both, we'd be in real good shape instead of just good. If we get by Washington, we ought to be in excellent position although it won't be a cinch. I still think it will be real tough all the way."

Neither Lopez nor any of his players can understand why the Senators have proved such a jinx team to the Indians all year. As Lopez said, "We just seem to play our worst against them and they play their best against us."

The records bear Lopez out. Washington, with 12 victories over the Indians in 19 meetings so far, is the only club with an edge over the league leaders.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UP)—Coach Al Kircher says his Washington State Cougars have made needed improvements in reserve depth and on the line and will make a good showing in Saturday's season opener against Southern California.

Kircher has an all-letterman squad including an all-senior line. The line remains the same as last year except at center where John Clark of Wallowa, Ore., is leading a battle for the position with Skip Pixley of Spokane and Doug Leifeste of Sunnywide, Wash.

MOSCOW, Idaho (UP)—The University of Idaho Vandals return to the practice field today to polish up rough spots revealed in a full-game scrimmage Saturday.

"They need more polishing, thats obvious," said coach Skip Stahley after veteran "reds" took the "whites" 21-12. Outstanding work was displayed, however, by quarterback Howard Willis. Tackles Jerry Kramer and Tony Anderson, and fullback Wilbur Gary.

STANFORD, Calif. (UP)—Coach Chuck Taylor said today his Stanford Indians will "be better prepared for COP this time than we've ever been" when the two teams clash in the seasons opener at Palo Alto Saturday.

"We've worked harder and longer than ever before for this COP game," Taylor said. The coach said he was satisfied with the work of fullbacks Bill Tarr and Al Harrington and indicated Tarr was top choice for the first string.

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—The California Bears drop to one-a-day workouts today for the first part of the week during registration and then resume full-scale practice for Saturday's opener in Pittsburgh against the Pittsburgh Panthers.

The cautious Coach, Pappy Waldorf, said "This is a young squad that needs a lot of football. We've accomplished a great deal, but then we started farther back."

LOS ANGELES (UP) — UCLA Coach Henry (Red) Sanders today pondered his tailback "problem." He has four top flight candidates for the position and each has taken turns looking impressive at the spot.

It was Doug Bradley's turn Saturday as the Bruins held a full game scrimmage. Bradley completed four out of four passes for 57 yards and two touchdowns in the workout. Other top candidates for the spot are Ronnie Knox, Sam Brown and Gerry McDougall.

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Coach Jess Hill of Southern California today studied movies of the Trojans' first full scrimmage since the team began workouts a week ago.

Stars of the Saturday drill were Jon Arnett, C. R. Roberts, Gordy Duvall, Ernie Zampese and Ellis Kissinger.

Crawley Wraps Up Oval Wins

Bob Crawley maintained his torrid pace in the local hardtop racing picture as he cleaned the board of all honors in Sunday's benefit hardtop program at Klamath Speedway. The late afternoon-early evening show as a success and the proceeds turned over to the Sam DeMorgandie family.

DeMorgandie, a local hardtop driver, suffered a broken leg a week ago and will be on the sidelines for sometime. The club donated the race expenses and time for the benefit of their speedway partner.

In the day's racing activities, it was all Bobbin' Bob Crawley and his K-66 hardtop as far as the winner's circle was concerned. Crawley picked up wins in the main event, which made his three in-a-row and seventh of the year, the final heat and the A-trophy dash. The only stumbling block came in the third heat where Crawley placed second behind Eddie Boyd.

Following Crawley in the main event of the benefit program came Dale Himelwright in K-33. Third place went to Allen Bousman with Glenn Stevens claiming the number four finish. Fifth and sixth places were snared by Pee Wee Roufs and George Smith.

In the speedway B-main, Ken Kime rolled his K-48 across the finish line for the win with Jim Kranz copping the second best results. Third place went to Wes Bishop and Vern Wonzer snared fouth place laurels. Fifth car under the checkered flag was K-30 driven by Kenny Conner.

The final heat win went to Crawley with Bud Cook in second spot. Third and fourth places were Roufs and Eddie Boyd's. Johnny Bowers drove his K-73 hardtop to fifth spot in the 10 lap battle. Winners in the three heats were Murrell Betsch, Roufs and Boyd. Runnerup spots in the 10-lap events went to Jim Kranz, Bowers and Crawley.

Bill Chambers won his first trophy by snaring the B-trophy dash and Crawley added another to his collection by winning the A-dash. Placing behind Crawley were Cook and Matt Christian, while Conner and Kine battled to second and third spots in the B-trophy.

Fast times were turned in by Crawley with a 19:90 time-in. Cook and Bud McLeod were next at 20:30 and 20:40. Johnny Hitson had a 20:60 quarter-mile time as did Christian.

Track officials announced yesterday that there would be two more races before the season closes.

Kansas City Buys Two Suds

SEATTLE (AP) — A pitcher and catcher who helped put the Seattle Rainiers in the top spot of the Pacific Coast League have been sold to the Kansas City Athletics of the American League for an undisclosed sum and four ball players.

The sale of pitcher Lou Kretlow and catcher Joe Ginsberg was announced today by Dewey Soriano, Rainiers general manager.

Kretlow, who joined the Rainiers in June from Baltimore, won his first 12 games here. In four of the first five games, the southpaw pitched shutouts. He has played with Detroit, St. Louis and Chicago in the majors.

The 28-year-old Ginsberg has been doing an iron-man stint behind the plate for Seattle since catcher Ray Orteig was injured. Ginsberg used to catch Seattle manager Freddie Hutchinson when both were with the Detroit Tigers. He was traded to Cleveland and then went to Indianapolis.

The names of the four players, two of them outright and two on option, from Kansas City, cannot be disclosed until after the major league draft in December.

Russian Teams Win

MOSCOW (UP) — A Russian team defeated a touring British squad, 220 points to 141, Sunday in the first track and field meet ever staged between the two nations in Russia. The British team left today for Prague where it will compete in an international meet this week.

Sprig Captures S-C Trial; KF Dog Second

Snuffy Beliveau made it a clean sweep as far as the 1955 Shasta Cascade Retriever Trials were concerned when he handled Sprig of Swinomish to the top ladder of the Open All Age Stake of the annual S-C fall retriever trials that closed yesterday afternoon at the Lost River Ranch.

In last spring's trial at the Geary Ranch, Beliveau took top spot with Nicobet's Black Candy. Candy didn't run this trial, and it looked as if another Lab handled by Beliveau had taken the kennel spotlight when the judges acclaimed Sprig the winner.

The Open division was one of the tightest battles seen by local retriever followers with just a few points separating the top four dogs. Giving Sprig a close look-in for the lead honors was Oakcreek's Sir Dorchester (Ty), a Golden owned and handled by Jim Stilwell of Klamath Falls.

Third spot went to Nelgard's Baron, a male Chesapeake owned and handled by Cliff Brignall of Anaheim, California. Fourth place selection by the judges was given to Marian's Timothy, a black Lab owned and handled by Mrs. Marian McPhail of Tacoma.

Certificates of merit were taken by Look Judge Look, a Lab owned by R. E. Theinhardt of Renton, Washington, and handled by Paul Shoemaker; Bakelib Donder another Labrador owned and handled by Herbert Fleishhacker Jr., of San Francisco; and Noah of Swinomish owned by the Carnation Farm Kennels and handled by Garth Stocker. A reserve CM went to Shoemaker's Belle of Zenith, a Lab owned by Mike Wasnick of Seattle, for its top showing along with the other leading dogs.

QUALIFYING

In the Amateur division which was held Friday afternoon and Saturday, Jim Stilwell handled Ty into the top spot, and in doing so qualified the local retriever for the nationals to be held later this year near Sacramnto. Ty's qualifying made it two Klamath dogs entered in the "big show" of retrieving. Hal's Spi-Wize-Zeke, a Lab owned and handled by Hal Shidler also gained entry this past season. Zeke didn't run in this past weekend's trial because Shidler was serving as a judge.

Second place in the amateur went to Tarblood Spidercreek King, a Lab owned and handled by Shidler. Third was Jibodad Dandy owned and handled by James Bryan of Bremerton, Washington. Fourth spot among the amateurs was presented to Brignall's Fleet, a Lab owned and handled by Hugh Adams of Bakersfield, California.

CMs in the amateur class were presented to Belle of Newport, owned and handled by Beverly Utter of Los Angeles; Beavercreek Bandit, a Lab owned and handled by Herbert Fleishhacker, Jr.; Kip of Geneva, a retriever owned and handled by Kenneth Denman of Medford; and Blind of Wake another Lab owned and handled by Beverly Utter.

RUNNING

Saturay's trial action also saw the running of the Qualifying Stake. Princess Black Belle, a female Lab owned and handled by Earl Wescott of Medford, led the Qualifying field with Manzanel Curlew owned by Joe Rothchild of Oswego and handled by Roy Wallace copping second best results. Third place went to Sky-Hy-Ty, a Golden owned and handled by Harold Trunnell of Eugene. Sir Dorchester's Chief, Don Stroud's Golden captured fourth place.

Qualifying CMs were presented to Klamath River Flash, a lab owned by Clark Gable of Hollywood and handled by Dick Morgan of Keno; Sir Charles of Mt. Whitney, a Golden owned and handled by John Feeback of Klamath Falls; Crater Lake King II a Lab owned by Bill Easter of Klamath and handled by Dick Morgan; Victor of Little Poerre another Lab owned by J. J. Heneghan of Seattle and handled by Paul Shoemaker; and Rough Bumps of Mira Monte, a Carnation Farm Kennels retriever handled by Garth Stocker.

Following the running of the Open yesterday, Beverly Utter was presented with the James Stilwell Best Amateur Handler Trophy for her outstanding job during the three day trial. Stilwell, who acted as publicity chairman for the weekend field work, said this fall's trial was one of the best held here, and a great deal of the credit goes to Mable Henzel and her assistants at the Lost River Ranch. The cooperation that was shown the retriever people by Mrs. Henzel was tops, Stilwell reported.

In Friday's first day retriever competition, Jibodad A-Bar-H, a male Labrador walked away with the Derby Stakes. Jibodad is owned and handled by Adolph Hraba of Dayton, Oregon. Second place went to Jelly Bean, a Golden owned by Jim Stilwell and Dale Thornton of Klamath Falls and handled by Stilwell.

Third and fourth spots went to two other black Labs. Black Lava snared the third place award under the handling of Tom Rickard. Lava is owned by Lee Carter of Klamath Falls. Fourth dog in the derby was Marian's Herbert Sherbert owned by Herbert Fleishhacker Jr. of San Francisco and handled by Roy Gonia.

A reserve certificate of merit went to Black Gum's Trey a Labrador owned by Portland's Robert Karr and handled by Roy Wallace. Other CMs were presented to Ra-Pele a Lab owned by Hugh Nichols of Hollywood and handled by Snuffy Beliveau, Ore-Wool Sam, black Lab owned by Jack Henry of Klamath Falls and handled by Henry and Hot Toddy's Mindy Jim Johnson's Lab handled by Tom Rickard. Mindy is another Klamath Falls retriever.

Two other male labs swept certificates as Andy's Butch owned and handled by Morris Anderson of Wendel, California and Swifty owned and handled by Peter Alport of Portland turned in good performances in the five derby series.

According to judges and trial officials, the Derby Stake was one of the best held this year on the Pacific Coast is not the best. Judge Richard Reeves of Tucson, Arizona reported the dogs and handlers did an outstanding job.
