AUNT JEMIMA, famed Quaker Oats personality, was welcomed to Klamath Falls Wednesday by members of the Klamath County Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Jaycees are sponsoring an Aunt Jemima pancake festival this weekend. A pancake breakfast was held Friday morning in the armory with a second breakfast scheduled for Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m., also in the armory. The Jaycees have scheduled a series of public appearances of Aunt Jemima at Klamath Falls schools. Stan Randolph, general chairman for the Jaycees of the event, is shown here with Aunt Jemima.

Career Soldier Plan Studied

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (UP) — The Defense Department's Gardner Committee returned to Washington today to draw up recommendations for "some fundamental changes in military pay and compensation policy" to attract more desirable career soldiers.

The 11-member advisory committee ended a two-day tour of inspection here Thursday and a spokesman said the group will meet Sept. 25 in Washington to consider the adoption of recommendations.

The committee was established to make recommendations for major legislative and administrative action to attract and retain top personnel in the armed forces. It is headed by President Ralph J. Gardner of General Electric Corp.

Missing Socialite Said Discovered In Desert

EL CENTRO, Calif. (UP) — A woman who claimed she was Mrs. Evelyn Latham, 51, missing wife of a wealthy investment broker, was found by sheriff's deputies in the desert east of here today.

The woman was brought here by ambulance to a local hospital while authorities attempted to verify her identity. Two other women allegedly were kidnaped at the same time Mrs. Latham disappeared.

Officers said one of the two women, who was kidnaped and later released, was a former business associate of Mrs. Latham.

Mrs. Latham vanished Wednesday night and was reported missing by her husband, George from their lavish seaside home. The missing woman is president and her husband vice president of the American Investment Co., the Balboa Realty Co., and the Latham Realty Co., here.

Latham told officers his wife vanished while taking care of their four-month-old granddaughter. The child was found unharmed.

The two other women reported that they were kidnaped the same night. The women were Mrs. Beatrice Winn, 37, who previously had been in deals with the Lathams, and Mrs. Lucille M. Whisenand, 36.

The women said they were taken from Mrs. Winn's home by two gunmen who blindfolded them and drove them to Calexico, Calif. Mrs. Winn said she heard one of the gunmen ask the other in Spanish:

"Did you get all the money from Latham?"

Latham in his report to police said several corporation check books signed by Mrs. Latham were missing. Latham had filed a suit against Mrs. Winn charging that she was holding more than $12,000 in jewels belonging to a Chula Vista, Calif., Company.

The two women said they were driven to a point near the Mexican border in Mrs. Winn's car. They said two other persons followed the gunmen in a second car. Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Whisenand said they were finally released and told to keep driving south into Mexico or be killed.

'Third Party' Opens Confab

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — A "third party," claiming it holds the balance of power in the presidential race opened a national convention today with 2,500 delegates on hand from 27 states.

The States' Rights Party, a mingling of ousting Southern conservative Democrats and northern anti-federalists, is offering independent electoral slates.

Clarence E. Manion, former dean of the Notre Dame Law School, will make the keynote address tonight. The convention ends Saturday.
