New York Ignoring Race — Castoffs Gain Vengeance

Yankees Run Away With Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's a whale of a race going on in the American League—for second place.

Forgetting the New York Yankees—and how those other seven clubs wish they could—the teams are so closely congregated that only three games separate second place Boston and eighth place Washington.

Alas, the runner-up Red Sox are nine games behind the runaway Yankees, who swept a doubleheader from Cleveland yesterday 6-1 and 6-3. Boston beat Chicago 6-3 in the first game but the White Sox gained a split with a 4-3 decision in the second game.

Chi 3-4, Sox 6-3

Boston is the only American League club other than the Yankees with a better than .500 won-lost percentage. The margin is a mere one victory, 19-18.

Luis Aparicio's only hit — a ninth inning single — drove in Jim Landis with the run that gave Billy Pierce and the White Sox the second game triumph.

1st Game

Boston	030 200 100—6	10 0
Chicago	100 001 010—3	6 0

Baumann (2-2) and Berberet. Donovan, Qualters (4), Fischer (7), Staley (9) and Lollar. Loser —Donovan (2-5). HRs — Lepcio, Jackson.

2nd Game

Boston	010 010 100—3	7 3
Chicago	010 002 001—4	12 1

R. Smith, Fornieles (7) and White. Pierce (2-4) and Lollar. Loser—Fornieles (2-2).

NY 6-6, Indians 1-3

Home runs did it for the Yankees against Cleveland. Yogi Berra's three-run homer in the first game was enough for Whitey Ford, who pitched a six-hitter for his fifth victory. Three-run homers by Elston Howard and Tnos Slaughter in the sixth inning of the nightcap gave Johnny Kucks his third victory. Dick Tomanek was going along smoothly until he gave way under the six-run barrage. Mickey Mantle hit safely in both games to run his batting streak to 14 games.

1st Game

New York	000 301 020—6	10 0
Cleveland	000 100 000—1	6 2

Kucks, Duren (7) and Howard. Tomanek, Kelly (6), Wilhelm (8) and Nixon, Brown (8). Winner—Kucks (3-1). Loser — Tomanek (1-1). HRs—Howard, Slaughter.

Nats 2-3, Det 7-6

Jim Bunning and Hank Aguirre pitched the Tigers to their second and third straight victories on the heels of their nine-game losing streak. The defeats dropped Washington in the basement, three percentage points behind Detroit.

1st Game

Washington	101 000 000—2	8 0
Detroit	000 210 13x—7	11 2

Kemmerer, Hyde (7) and Courtney. Bunning, Hoeft (7) and Wilson. Winner—Bunning (2-4). Loser—Kemmerer (1-3). HR—Plews.

A's 4, Birds 0

Ned Garver continued his fine comeback, pitching a two-hitter for the Athletics against the Orioles. It was the veteran right-hander's third shutout and sixth victory against one defeat.

Baltimore	000 000 000—0	2 0
Kansas City	301 000 00x—4	8 0

Pappas, Zuverink (1), Beamon (8) and Triandos. Garver (6-1) and Chiti. Loser—Pappas (1-1).

Braves Cubs Split Twinbill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four National League clubs — Milwaukee, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis—learned yesterday just how vicious the vengeance of a castoff can be.

Taylor Phillips, Sammy Taylor, Bob Rush, Bill Wight, Curtis Flood, Harvey Haddix and Steve Bilko were the men who gained sweet revenge.

Cubs 1-2, Braves 0-5

Phillips, dealt by Milwaukee to Chicago last December, pitched the Cubs to a 1-0 victory over the Braves in the first game of a double-header. Catcher Taylor, involved in the deal that brought Rush from Chicago to Milwaukee, scored the only run of the game. Then Rush softened the pain by pitching the Braves to a 5-2 victory over the Cubs in the nightcap.

SL 4-3, Reds 2-7

Flood, traded by Cincinnati to St. Louis last winter, singled in the two runs that gave the Cardinals a 4-2 first-game triumph over the Redlegs. Wight, released by the Reds, quenched a bases-loaded, one-out threat in the seventh and went on to hurl hitless balls for 2 2-3 relief innings.

Haddix, traded away by St. Louis two years ago, pitched the Redlegs to a 7-4 second-game victory. Bilko, another ex-Card, ignited the Reds' four-run fourth inning with a home run.

'Ancient Archie' Can Become KO King

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The next time Archie Moore knocks out an opponent he will become the KO champ of all time. Charlie Norkus, the Port Washington, N.Y. veteran could be the unwilling victim Monday night in San Francisco.

Moore, who admits 41 although the record books claim he is 44, has 126 knockouts according to a fight-by-fight count of his record dating back to 1936. That puts him in a tie with the late Young Stribling who stopped 126 from 1921 to 1933.

Old Archie has to settle for decisions in his last two bouts against Willie Besmanoff and Howard King. His 1958 KO victims were Julio Neves in Rio, Bert Whitehurst in San Bernardino, Calif., and Bob Albright in Vancouver, B.C.

Sugar Ray Robinson and Rocky Graziano, two former middleweight champions, are supposed to show up in the same ring Monday night at St. Nicholas Arena in New York. They won't be wearing gloves, of course, but will be working in the corners of two welters.

Robinson is due to second Otis Woodard and Graziano to work behind Eddie Andrews of Lowell, Mass., in a 10-round rematch. Woodard won the first bout, April 14.

Unbeaten Bobby Scanlon who has only one draw to mar a perfect record in 28 pro fights, will box Bobby Rogers of Chicago in a lightweight match Wednesday at Chicago Stadium. It will be carried on ABC-TV.

Scanlon is a Buffalo, N.Y., boy who moved to San Francisco where he has become a main event fighter.

Rogers has a 14-4-3 record.

Ellsworth (Spider) Webb, derailed in his drive toward the middleweight title when he was upset by Holly Mims, will try to get back on the path Friday at Miami Beach, Fla. His opponent will be Jimmy Beecham who had concentrated on fighting only Willie Vaughn in 1958. In three starts against Vaughn, Beecham has won one, lost one and fought one draw.

Klamath Kubs Defeat Weed To Retain League Lead Tie

Northern Cal League

Sunday's Results

Klamath Falls 11, Weed 9
Yreka 4, Mount Shasta 2
Dunsmuir 5, Scott Valley 4

The Klamath Kubs maintained their place in a tie with Yreka for the Northern California League lead as they whipped Weed 11-9 at Gem Stadium Sunday. Yreka got by Mount Shasta 4-2 to hold up their end. In the other league game, the Dunsmuir nine warded off a last-inning surge to defeat Scott Valley 5-4.

Behind the 11 hit pitching of Charlie Bogle, the Kubs counted three big innings and halted a Weed rally in the top of the ninth to keep their perfect record.

Eight Weed errors against three for the Klamathites made the big difference as the Kubs outhit the Sons by only one blow, 12-11.

In the nome half of the first the Kubs got under way as leadoff man Clyde McHaffey got aboard on an error, advanced on a single by Fred Miller, and then scored on a trim single by George Hanson. Miller scored moments later when Irv Whitt was safe on another bobble Hanson marked on a fielder's choice and Whitt followed him across the plate off a single by Bill Copeland.

In the third Linderman tripled to lead off the inning and then scored along with Whitt, when the Sons committed another error. Scott Hartley walked and then scored on a one-base rap by Willie Dunster.

Linderman collected another triple in the bottom of the fourth and then tagged up to score on an infield score to give the Kubs an 8-4 bulge.

Weed counted four times in the fourth and then closed up the gap in the sixth stanza when they took advantage of pitcher Bob Simmons' triple, a Kub error and two, two-out singles by Bob Groppi and Raul Perez before Bogle could put out the Weed fire.

Klamath tallied three more runs in the sixth when Linderman pounded out a two-run double and Hanson singled.

The top of the ninth saw the Sons put on a spurt but fail, two runs short.

According to Whitt, there is a possibility that the Kubs may meet Scott Valley in a makeup game at Gem on Memorial Day. The original meet was rained out. Regular league play will continue next Sunday.

In the Dunsmuir-Scott Valley clash the Merchants counted five runs on only five hits and committed four bobbles to knock down the Stars 5-4. Scott Valley outhit the Merchants by seven knocks but couldn't hang them together. The Stars also committed four errors.

Scott Valley used Fisher and Roberts while Bill Howard did the catching.
