MANZANITA OES

The open Holy Bible was the theme at the meeting of Manzanita Chapter No. 172, OES Wednesday evening, October 15, in the Scottish Rite Temple. The Holy Bible was the center of a display in the east with the motto for the year, "Kindness and Forbearance One Toward Another," in gold letters above the Bible and gold ribbons down each side of the display.

Worthy Matron Gladys Chubb and Worthy Patron W. E. Anderson welcomed honored members, Junior Past Matron Evelyn Biehn and Junior Past Patron Marion Grant, and had them escorted to the east. In a ceremony honoring the junior past matron and patron, the Courtesy Stars presented to Sister Evelyn 25 miniature ladies and gentlemen on a styrafoam base, representing the new members initiated and affiliated into Manzanita Chapter last year. They presented to Past Patron Grant a miniature grand page escort representing his honor as a grand page escort at Grand Chapter in Portland.

Sister Evelyn and Brother Marion were escorted to the chapter Bible, which they signed as the ninth junior past matron and patron of Manzanita Chapter.

Helen McCornack, worthy high priestess of Naomi Shrine No. 5, White Shrine of Jerusalem, was introduced and given a hearty welcome. Mrs. McCornack is a past matron of Manzanita Chapter and a past grand representative of New York in Oregon of the Grand Chapter of Oregon.

Hazel MacFarlan was given a special welcome as a first time visitor to Manzanita Chapter.

The altar was draped in memory of Bertha Folts of Portland who died June 10. She was one of the first 12 members initiated into Manzanita Chapter.

Following the meeting, ice cream and angel food cake were served in the dining room by Maude Fergeson, Annie Vinson, Joyce Lanphear, and Emogene McCarty. The dining room was decorated with bronze mums and cattails.

The next meeting is scheduled for October 22. Preceding the meeting will be a no-host dinner at the Willard Hotel for all OES members to honor Grand Associate Conductress Elsie Oliotti. For reservations call Lois Murphy at TU 4-6735. Conductress Elsie will pay her official visit to Manzanita Chapter that evening and conduct school of instruction.
