Gaels, Washington Picked As Coast's Leading Clubs

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The smart boys say that the sun has set on the University of San Francisco's basketball empire and the teams to watch on the Coast this season are Washington and St. Mary's.

Coach Phil Woolpert, whose Dons swept to the NCCA cage title in 1955 and 1956 and the regionals last spring, lost every one of their starters. He still has good veterans on hand as Mike Preaseau, John Cunningham and Dave Lillevand. But he plans to keep the wraps on his offense more, work more for key goals, and concentrate especially on his beloved defense tactics.

The word out of Seattle is that Coach Tippy Dye at last has the squad he was waiting for. Bruno Boin (6-9) returns after spending a year out of school and is steeped in a lot of extra savvy gleaned with the Buchan Bakers. Doug Smart, (6-7), gives Dye the other half of a one-two punch which could leave other Coast teams groggy. He also is well stocked in lettermen.

At St. Mary's, Coach Jim Weaver beams over the fact that he is so deep in material that he has a "starting seven" rather than a starting five. Al Claiborne, a 6-8 sophomore center, has given the Gaels the "big man" so long needed. And Tom Meschery, a sophomore forward, is supposed to be the all-around type of workman that coaches dream about.

"Sweet Charley" Brown, who played a major role with Elgin Baylor in lifting Seattle to the NCAA finals last spring, is expected to be the Chieftains wheel this year now that the tick-tock man is gone. Other cagers, who functioned under the great Baylor shadow also may come into their own—men like Jerry Friazell, Don Ogorek and Francis Sauders, Elgin's cousin.

Even if the Chieftains had another hot year they could not return to the NCAA tournament as they were banned last April until Sept. of 1960 by the group after an investigation which saw Coach John Castellani being replaced by Vince Cazzeta.

Here's a look at some of the other teams:

UCLA— Coach John Wooden never has had a losing season with the Bruins who own six PCC titles under him. Eight lettermen are back from last year's squad headed by Walt Torrance, the Bruins' top rebounder, and is 6-9 and considered a great center.

California—Coach Pete Newell only has five lettermen back and will have to rely on veteran Al Buch and Darrel Imhoff to help keep the squad rolling.

Southern California—Coach Forrest Twogood is looking for a better season than the last one. He has eight sophomores returning but lost three good men in Jim Pugh, Monte Gonzales and Jack Mount.

Santa Clara—Has height and speed but Bob Feerick says he has no depth beyond his starting team. The club also lacks muscle although it is expected to finish strong in the West Coast Athletic Conference.

Stanford—Good depth and experience but lacks that big guy.

Gonzaga—Sould be one of the best Coast independents. Seven lettermen are returning to Coach Hank Anderson including France's Jean Claude LeFebvre, the seven foot, three-inch man who averaged 14.5 points per game last year but was to nice on defense.

Washington State— Looks like another losing season and Coach Marv Harshman, replacing Jack Friel who retired after 30 years, is looking to a strong freshman team in 1959.

Idaho—Good contender although not big. Coach Harlan Hodges has center John Liveious back to spark a fast, hard-shooting unit.

Pepperdine—Coach Duck Dowell might upset the dope and win the WCAC title. He has good personnel headed by Sterling Forbes and Bobby Sims, a pair of fine performers who stand 6-6.

College of Pacific—Van Sweet thinks he has the WCAC's best center in LeRoy Wright but fears a rugged schedule which includes a date with Cincinnati and a guy named Oscar Robertson.

Oregon—expected to be solid defensively with long-shooting Bud Kuykendall back as a guard. Coach Steve Belko's big problem has been to uncover a good center.

Oregon State—Coach Slats Gill is bereft of Dave Gambee and Ken Nanson. The Beavers have height and might be dangerous, however, if center Gary Goble finds himself, Gill says.

St. Mary's Shocks UCLA With OT Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The word got around before the season started that the St. Mary's Gaels of California would be a team to watch in college basketball this winter. They lived up to expectations Friday night by defeating UCLA in overtime 62-59.

A basket by Dick Sigaty with 17 seconds left in the overtime gave the Gaels victory after the regulation game ended 54-54. The struggle was the second of a doubleheader at San Francisco that featured the nation's program. Stanford beat Santa Clara 55-49 in the first game.

West Virginia, the nation's top-ranked team of a year ago, and Kentucky, the national collegiate champions, are among the teams out to maintain their supremacy of last year.

Other rated teams at the end of the 1957-58 campaign in action are Kansas State, San Francisco, Temple, Maryland and Kansas. All were ranked among the top 10 in The Associated Press final poll last season.

Tennessee turned back Michigan 80-66 and Wyoming ousted Kent State 75-67 in first round games of the Midwestern Invitational Friday night.

Portland stunned defending tournament champion Montana State 57-49 and little Max Perry sank a pair of free throws in the final seconds as Utah State squeezed past Idaho State 65-62 in the opening round of the third annual Idaho State tournament.

Clemson jarred Duke 56-55 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game as Walt Gibbons sank a 10-foot push shot with seven seconds left to go.

Xavier of Ohio, the National Invitation Tournament victors, was hard-pressed to down New Mexico A&M 58-52.

In other games Friday night Wichita whipped Arizona State University 89-80 despite a 33-point performance by the losers' Al Nealey, Colorado overcame Washington 70-63 in overtime as Gerry Schroeder collected 21 points, Southern California walloped Loyola of Los Angeles 70-54, Utah overwhelmed Oregon State 70-41, Oregon outlasted Brigham Young 79-57 in overtime, Miami (Fla.) crushed Tampa 113-71, Drake humbled Omaha 83-52 and Brown trimmed Trinity (Conn.) 75-66.

Keglers Bid For Pin Title

CHICAGO (AP)—A scant 2 pins separates the top 3 men bowlers after 12 games in the World's Invitational Match Game Championships in the Chicago Coliseum.

Lou Campi, the 52-year-old mason contractor from Dumont, N.J., had a slim one pin lead over J. B. Solomon of Dallas, Texas, and two pins over former all-star champion Dick Hoover of Akron, Ohio.

Campi added a 1,286 Friday to his first round 1,287 for a 12-game score of 2,573.

Solomon, a Texas bowling supply store operator, had 2,572, while the portly Hoover finished with 2,571.

In the women's division, pert Jere Price, a 26-year-old bowling instructor, moved into the lead with 1,705 pins for 8 games.

Mrs. Price displaced the first day leader, Shirley Garms of Palatine, Ill., who fell to third with 1,646. National all-star champion Merle Matthews of Long Beach, Cal., was runnerup with 1,690 pins.

The 128 men are fighting for 15 places in the finals which open next Tuesday. The 64 women are also fighting for 15 final berths.

Carrigan Leads So. Oregon Win

ASHLAND (AP) — Gordon Carrigan led Southern Oregon 70-63 in an overtime basketball victory over Chico State here Friday night.

He flipped in 11 field goals and 2 free throws for 24 points and was strong on the backboards, capturing 13 rebounds.

Carrigan got strong backing from Dave D'Olivo with 17 points and Chuck Smith with 11. Don Richardson potted 16 points and Alan Derby 14 for the visitors.

Cassady Out With Ankle Hurt

DEROIT (AP) — An injured ankle will keep Howard (Hopalong) Cassady out of the Detroit Lions' game with the New York Giants Sunday. He sprained his ankle in a practice session Friday.

Cassady is the fourth key player lost by the Lions in the last 12 days. End Jim Doran has returned to his Iowa farm, limping on an injured leg. Tackle Gil Mains is recovering in a hospital from a knee operation. Tackle Bob Miller has a back injury.

Lakeview Nips Alturas Braves

LAKEVIEW — Tim Sullivan paced the Lakeview High Honkers to a season-opening overtime victory over Alturas here Friday night, 43-39.

The 6-3 Lakeview forward scored 25 points for high game honors, plus netting all six of the Honker points in the overtime period of play. The two clubs ended the regulation period tied at 37-37, after a pair of free throws by Lakeview's Frank Eganoff knotted the count.

Alturas led 5-3 at the end of the first quarter, but Lakeview pulled up to a 16-16 deadlock at halftime. The two clubs matched points and were tied at the third period record, 25-25.

In the preliminary contest, Alturas' Jayvees won a 38-31 decision from the Lakeview juniors.

Browns Vie With Eagles, Eye Pennant

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In 1949 Steve Van Buren, a tank on cleats, set a National Football League rushing record for the Philadelphia Eagles. That was the year Philadelphia won the Eastern title by 4½ games and went on to defeat the Los Angeles Rams for the world championship.

That was before Paul Brown brought Cleveland into the league in 1950. . .

And before Jimmy Brown, the Brown who broke Van Buren's record, came along in 1957.

Philadelphia fans haven't had a conference championship since, but they can witness the clinching of one Sunday if the right things happen in the right places.

The places are, of course, Philadelphia, where the Eagles entertain the Browns, and Detroit where the world championship flag now flies.

The Lions already have been stripped of their Western Conference title, but they can have a lot to say about who wins the Eastern crown. Sunday they play the New York Giants (7-3) and a Lion victory combined with victory by Cleveland (8-2) can wrap up the Browns' eighth conference title in nine years.

The Brown-Lion victory combination would send Cleveland against Baltimore for world championship at Cleveland Dec. 28.

The Colts, with Baltimore's first conference flag already in the bag, sent uncanny Johnny Unitas, their star quarterback, after a league passing record Sunday at Los Angeles. The Colt signal-caller has thrown TD strikes in 23 league games, and a pass for a touchdown Sunday would crack the record held by Cecil Isbell of the 1941-42 Green Bay Packers. The Rams (6-4) sought second place, which they shared with the Chicago Bears.

The Bears are home to the Chicago Cardinals in an interconference game. Other Sunday contests have the Pittsburgh Steelers (6-4), with an outside chance to tie for the Eastern title, at Washington, and Green Bay at San Francisco.

Colorado '5' Beats Huskies

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Colorado ruined the University of Washington's basketball season opener Friday night by taking a surprising 70-63 loss on the Huskies in overtime.

Colorado's Buffs went in front, 50-49, with 9:06 left in the game. The teams traded the lead in the final minutes of regulation play. The Huskies' Bruno Boin sent the game into overtime by tying the score, 63-63, on two free throws with 39 seconds left.

Washington had led at the half, 34-31.

Ball control paid off for Colorado as the Buffs' scored two quick points to take the lead while holding the Huskies scoreless.

Gerry Schroeder of Colorado topped all scorers with 21 points. Smart paced the Huskies with 17.

Montana State Beaten By Pilots

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—The University of Portland basketball squad rallied in the second half and defeated Montana State 57-49 in the annual Idaho State invitational tournament.

Montana State is the defending champion.

Chuck Rogers and Dick Jolley led the winners. Rogers had 16 points and Jolley 14.

Portland will play Utah State—winner over Idaho State by a 65-62 score—in Saturday's tournament final.

Oregon College Tips George Fox

MONMOUTH (AP) — Oregon College overcame an early George Fox College lead and breezed to an easy 66-47 victory in a Friday night basketball game.

George Fox of Newberg led 13-8 at the 10-minute mark.

But then Gary Henry of Oregon College, a forward, threw in 17 points in the last 10 minutes of the half, the Oregon College defense tightened and the team left the floor at intermission with a 35-17 advantage.

Dale Herron, who topped all scorers with 28, sewed up the contest for the winners with two free throws in the last 36 seconds. He sank all his 12 free throws.

Sophomore Bob Skousen led Brigham Young with 20 points and his teammate Jon Nicholl had 19.

Selvy Helps NY Triumph

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frank Selvy, the Furman All-America who was traded away by the St. Louis Hawks in the National Basketball Assn., is starting to pay dividends for the New York Knickerbockers.

Selvy, a former collegiate scoring champion, tossed in a 15-foot jump shot with 2 minutes to play to give the Knicks an uphill 110-108 victory over the Detroit Pistons Friday night. No other games were scheduled.

The triumph moved New York back into a first place tie with the idle Boston Celtics in the Eastern Division race, each with 12-6 records. The Pistons remained second in the Western section, but dropped five games behind the pace-setting Hawks.

Selvy returned from the armed service last season and never could regain his scoring touch. He rejoined St. Louis this year, but the Hawks finally gave up on him and sold him to New York early in the season.

ELLENSBURG, Wash. (AP) — Portland State College of the Oregon Collegiate Conference lost a basketball game to Central Washington 79-66 Friday night.

Stan Weber was high scorer for the Portland team with 19 points.

The score was tied 31-31 at the half.

Oregon Frosh Top Centralia

EUGENE (AP) — The Oregon Frosh basketball team got off to a high-scoring start for the season against Centralia Junior College 81-49 here Friday night.

The Frosh were paced by two all-Staters, Charlie Warren of Eugene and Glenn Moore of Klamath Falls. Warren scored 25 points, Moore for eleven.

The Frosh led at halftime 43-19, limiting Centralia to only three field goals. The visitors sank only 12 during the game.

Don Jordan Beats Akins, Wins Crown

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Youthful, unheralded Don Jordan of Los Angeles today reigned as the new welterweight champion of the world.

Jordan won a stunning upset Friday night over Virgil Akins of St. Louis, a veteran many astute boxing people felt would give the Californian a horrible beating.

But it was the other way around as the two clashed at the Olympic Auditorium before 7,344 fans and a national television audience in Akins' first defense of the crown won last June. The decision was unanimous, by a substantial margin.

Jordan, 24, a 3-1 underdog, got off to an early lead and never relinquished it. He never was in serious trouble and wound up giving the 30-year-old champ a bad beating.

Referee Lee Grossman under California's 10-point per round system gave it to Jordan 145-138; Judge Mushy Callahan had it 145-132 and Judge Tommy Hart 146-136.

There were no knockdowns but Akins survived a hectic bombardment in the 10th round.

Jordan, the boxer, also proved to be Jordan the hitter, and equal to Akins in rough-housing and brawling, which was the main offense of the Honey-Bear last night.

Jordan came up with a bad cut over the left eye — he said it was from a butt — and Akins' right eye was slashed and eventually reduced to a swollen mess in the 10th round.

Akins has a contract for a rematch within 60 days. The rematch may be delayed while both fighters' wounds heal.

Akins weighed 145½ and Jordan 145.

Jordan was lightly regarded despite his ranking as the No. 1 contender. He gained it by whipping Isaac Logart and Gasper Ortega.

Akins was the solid choice off his smashing knockouts over Tony De Marco and Vince Martinez the past year in his remarkable climb to the heights of the 147-pound division.

EOC Loses New Home Opener

LA GRANDE (AP) — Eastern Oregon College opened its new basketball coliseum here Friday night by suffering a 58-54 defeat at the hands of College of Idaho.

The Idaho team, a member of the Northwest Conference, was never behind. However, the score was tied at 44 early in the second half.

Eastern Oregon's Tom Neel was high for the game with 17 points. Bob Moreno led the winners with 16.

'Skins Swamp Beavers

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The University of Utah basketball team swamped Oregon State of the Pacific Coast Conference 70-41 in the opener of a two-game series here Friday night.

Gary Goble and little Jim Anderson led the faltering OSC attack with eight points each. Six-foot-10 Pearl Pollard was high for the winners with 13 points, while 6-4 DeLyle Condie had 12.

Anderson directed the hapless Staters in the first half and Goble took over the job in the second half.

Utah led 38-26 at the half. OSC got only three field goals and sank only five free throws in the second period.

The Staters hit .250 during the first half and .170 for the total game.

County Schools Open Cage Seasons With Two Jamborees

By WAYNE SCOTT
Herald and News Sports Writer

The rafters rang in both the Chiloquin and Henley High gyms as fans from all over Klamath County helped eight schools officially usher in the 1958-59 B basketball season Friday night in the first round of a double two-day jamboree.

At Henley the Merrill Huskies escaped with a 45-44 victory over the Malin Mustangs in the evening's opener and the host Henley Hornets were hard-pressed to collect a 46-36 win over the determined Bonanza Antlers in the nightcap.

At the same time on the Chiloquin court the undermanned Gilchrist Grizzlies suffered a humiliating 72-16 defeat at the hands of the Bly Bobcats in the opener after which the Sacred Heart Trojans withstood the challenges of the host Chiloquin Panthers to win 47-42.

Merrill 45, Malin 44

Despite a first game raggedness the Huskies jumped off to an early four point lead as high-pointer Bud Maupin canned his first shot followed by a quickie by Dean Haskins. Neither hit another bucket for the balance of the first half but their efforts were enough to spark the Huskies to a first quarter lead of 13-6.

A hectic second period saw the Mustangs pull to within two points, 16-14, with the frame half gone before Merrill got moving again to stretch their lead to 25-16 at the intermission.

In the third stanza Maupin and Malin forward Jim Owens waged a scoring duel with Maupin getting the best of it to boost the Huskies out to a 38-26 bulge.

The acoustic tile in the Henley gym was hardly enough to contain the roar as Owens and teammate Rick Illian combined forces to score 14 markers and give Malin a 42-42 tie with only 2:30 left in the game.

Here Maupin took over again to count Merrill's last three points; just enough to withstand the Malin onslaught. A slam bang last minute of play saw the ball change hands numerous times, neither squad holding on long enough to count another bucket.

In the second game the Henley Hornets charged out to a 10-2 lead before the test was three minutes old, catching the Bonanza squad off the pace. Antler Tom Ellis canned a long one from the corner to put Bonanza on the board but Hornet forward Phil Swisher dumped three two-pointers from the outside to pace his team to a 15-8 spread at the quarter post.

In the second frame Bonanza guard Gary Dayley warmed up and sunk three from the field as the Antlers outscored the Hornets 10-9. The half ended with the count 24-18 for Henley.

The persistent ball hawking and modified press used by the fast moving, close checking Antler squad helped to move them within one basket, 24-22, shortly after the opening of the third stanza. However Leroy Larson, Swisher and Burell Gober finally got the range and regained a margin for Henley before the third period ended 36-28.

At Chiloquin the Grizzlies, one of the youngest squads in the league, were completely overpowered by the Bobcats who surged off to a 20-0 lead by the end of the first quarter then stretched it to 33-6 before the intermission.

Led by veteran Jerry Patzke who scored 36 points, and Jim Patzke with 22 the Bly aggregation used all seven of the suited-up members of the team in piling up their one-sided score.

SHA 47, Panthers 42

In the crowd pleasing feature game of the Chiloquin half of the jamboree the Sacred Heart team got away to a short lead then managed to keep their distance until early in the fourth quarter when the Panthers came within an ace of closing the gap at 35-34 only to see the Trojans start hitting again and match the Panthers point for point; each of them counting 14. The halftime score was 33-28 for Sacred Heart.

Throughout the game shooting percentages for both teams were even. Each hit for a .320 mark from the floor while Chiloquin was successful on 10 of 20 free-throws and the Trojans marked 11 for 20.
