Bly, Merrill, Henley, Chiloquin Nab Wins

Some teams ran true to the preseason dope sheets and some didn't, as the county B basketball season got under way at four points throughout the county Tuesday night.

The Bly Bobcats of coach Al Samples scrambled to the top of the heap as they collected their second league win in as many starts with a 56-39 upset victory over the Bonanza Antlers at Bonanza while the lone A-2 school in the conference, Henley, escaped with a 52-50 decision over the Malin Mustangs, on the Hornet court.

In the northern end of the county the Chiloquin Panthers bombed the Gilchrist Grizzlies 55-34 while in town the Sacred Heart Trojans played an unwilling host to a 43-33 defeat at the hands of the Merrill Huskies.

The Bly quintet and the Gilchrist crew are the only squads to have played two league games. The Bobcats dumped the Grizzlies last Friday night in their first encounter.

Merrill 44, SHA 33

The Merrill Huskies added game number three to their unbeaten string for the early season as they splurged for 15 points in the fourth quarter to hand the Sacred Heart Trojans a 44-33 defeat on the SHA court.

The contest, the first league activity for both squads, took on the aspect of a scoreless tie for the first four full minutes, until SHA's Tom Amberg broke loose for two quick layups and a free throw to give the Trojans a 5-0 bulge. From here on the pace quickened as the Huskies scrapped to catch up.

Despite a deadly hook shot by Bruce Brickner, the Husky high pointer, Merrill failed to break even before the quarter whistle sounded; the score 10-8 for the Trojans.

In the second period the Trojans hit a dry spot as the Huskies caught up after three minutes of play. They moved ahead on a jumper by John Haskins, 14 - 12, and from here on they were never headed. The period ended 19-13 for Merrill.

During the third the Trojans caught again and narrowed the gap to 29-25 at the close of the stanza.

Chil. 55, Gil. 34

The Chiloquin Panthers collected their first conference win of this year by swarming over the outgunned Gilchrist Grizzlies 55-34 on the Chiloquin floor.

Paced by center Ron Hoggarth who potted 21 points to notch top shooting honors for the night, the Panthers spurted off to an early 19-5 lead at the end of the first period.

The halftime score was 29-14 for the Panthers.

Henley 52, Malin 50

Coach Ted Ammerman's Henley Hornets posted their third cage win of the season as they outlasted the scrappy Malin Mustangs, 52-50, in a nip and tuck affair on the Hornet's home court.

Neither team could build any kind of a lead as they traded basket for basket throughout the second period. At halftime, the score stood at 22 - all.

The Mustangs gave their spirited group of rooters something to yell about during the third quarters as Jim Owens, Miller, Abe Kirkpatrick, and Rick Illian hit for consecutive baskets to give the Mustangs a brief 33-29 lead.

But the Hornets were not to be denied as Doug Kammerer, Phil Swisher and Ray Jackson all tallied baskets, giving Henley a lead which they never relinquished.

Bly 56, Bonanza 39

Bly, rated the shortest team in the County B League, paid no attention to the obvious height disadvantage and bombed their way to a 56-39 victory over the Antlers in the Bonanza gym.

Led by Jerry Patzke who has rocketed into the league scoring lead, the Bobcats held a narrow 12-11 at the end of the first period then drew away to a 25-18 halftime bulge.

The teams held their position throughout the third stanza; the count standing 38-30 for Bly. In the fourth frame Patzke and Co. took the bit again and counted 18 points while holding the Antlers to 9.

U.S. Netters On Sidelines

MELBOURNE (AP) — America's final two Davis Cup players, Barry MacKay and Alex Olmedo, were shunted to the sidelines in long, rain-plagued matches today as three Australians and a surprising Spaniard swept into the semi-finals of the Victorian Tennis Championships.

MacKay, fighting back repeatedly from the brink of defeat, lost a 2-day marathon duel to Andres Gimeno, 21-year-old son of a Barcelona professional, 6-3, 6-3, 10-12, 13-15, 6-1. The big Dayton boy's game seemed to collapse after a footfault call cost him the opening game of the last set.

Olmedo, handsome Peruvian from the University of Southern California, battled Mal Anderson, Australia's Davis Cup ace, on virtually even terms for three sets then seemed to surrender meekly 4-6, 6-2, 15-13, 6-3. The match was finished in swirling winds with gusts up to 30 m.p.h.

In the semis, Gimeno next plays top seeded Ashley Cooper, Wimbledon and U.S Champion who beat Bob Mark, Australia, Tuesday 6-3, 6-3, 6-8, 12-10. Anderson faces Neale Fraser who won a match of Australian left-handers from Rod Laver 6-3 6-3, 6-3.

Washington St. Tops Whitworth

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Washington State College collected its fourth straight basketball victory Tuesday night when the Cougars recovered from a 6-point halftime deficit to overcome Whitworth College 53-42.

Whitworth was leading 29-23 at halftime but WSC sprang a tight full-court press on the Pirates that held them to only 13 points during the stanza.

High man for the Cougars was Dick Axelson with 15 points but there wasn't a Whitworth player who came through with double figures. Bob Crist and Jack Alzina had nine apiece for the Pirates.

some respects will take care of him.

The Washington State College Cougars who lost the chance to negotiate to play in a postseason football game because of a Pacific Coast Conference rule won't be able to even watch one because of another PCC rule.

The WSC alumni association had planned to send the entire team to San Francisco to see the East-West game. But association president Robert Neilson of Spokane said the proposed trip was called off at the request of WSC athletic director Stan Bates.

Bates reportedly told the association that furnishing transportation, rooms and tickets for the team would be in violation of the Pacific Coast Conference's aid-to-athletes policy although he appreciated the desire to do something for the team.

The alumni group had originally planned to sponsor the Cougar gridders as spectators at the Rose Bowl, but switched to the East-West game when WSC players Bobby Newman and Bill Steiger was selected to play in the Shrine classic.

Speaker Rites Slated Thursday

HUBBARD, Tex. (AP) — Tris Speaker, one of baseball's greatest centerfielders, will be laid to rest tomorrow beside his parents in a hilltop cemetery studded with cedars.

Speaker, 70, died Monday of a heart attack while fishing 30 miles west of this central Texas town he called home.

Services are scheduled for 11:30 a.m. EST tomorrow at the Wolfe Funeral Chapel here.

West Virginia Snares Fourth Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There seems to be no stopping the West Virginia Mountaineers as they continue their domination of the Southern Conference.

West Virginia won 26 of its 28 starts last season to compile the best won-lost record among major college basketball teams. The Mountaineers won 12 straight conference games, captured their league's tournament championship and wound up as the nation's top-ranked team in the final Associated Press poll.

The lads of Coach Fred Schaus romped over The Citadel 89-61 last night for their fourth consecutive victory. It was the Mountaineers' third conference success and 39th in a row over a span of four seasons.

West Virginia, ranked No. 4 in the first weekly poll, has won the Southern Conference tourney for the past four years. Last season the club bowed to Manhattan in the Eastern regionals of the National College championships.

Only two other members of the top 10 teams saw action last night. North Carolina State, No. 5, edged Clemson 56-54 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game and sixth-rated Tennessee whipped Wake Forest 61-50 in a non-league affair.

West Virginia, which also has defeated Furman, VMI and Penn State this season, displayed its best brand of ball in outclassing The Citadel. The Mountaineers opened up a 12-point gap early in the second half and coasted the rest of the way.

The Citadel, regarded as a possible threat to WVU's conference stranglehold, was stymied by the Mountaineers' pressing defense and went without a field goal for five minutes in the second half.

St. Mary's, ranked 14th, lost its first game after three wins. California nipped the Gaels 57-55 for the Golden Bears third straight success. Marquette, No. 17, stayed off a second half rally to turn back Creighton 53-49 as 6-9 Mike Moran collected 17 points.

Dan Englehardt's 15-foot jump shot with eight seconds left gave North Carolina State its narrow verdict over Clemson. The Wolfpack came from behind to post its fourth triumph, scoring eight consecutive points in the final minutes as Clemson ran out of gas after leading 54-48.

After Lou Pucillo tied the game with two minutes left, Clemson's Walt Gibbons missed a 1-and-1 free throw attempt with a minute to go. N.C. State froze the ball and set the stage for Englehardt's winning basket.
