Truck Firm Plans Slash

OMAHA (AP)—A trucking firm Wednesday said it will slash its rates April 20 on meat and packinghouse products hauled to the West Coast from Missouri River points.

The announcement was made by Watson Brothers Transportation Co.

Those rates, the firm said, will be in effect pending an Interstate Commerce Commission ruling on Watson's application for the rate changes.

The announcement was made after the ICC ended a hearing here on the proposal.

The firm originally intended to put the new rates into effect last September, but they were suspended by the ICC until April 20.

An official of the firm said the lower rates were intended to return to regulated common carriers the transport of meat now handled by non-regulated and private carriers.
