Colavito Ties Major Mark

'The Rock' Smashes 4 Homers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Maybe you remember last year's All-Star game. There were power guys aplenty, Banks and Aaron and Mantle, Berra, Mays and Thomas, Jensen and Cerv, Skowron, Williams, Triandos and Kaline — yet a record was set when no one got an extra-base hit.

The game was played at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium.

It's the toughest home run park in the majors. In the five years it has been a big league ballyard, only seven visiting sluggers had hit as many as two home runs in one game there. No one had hit three in one game.

Yet that's where Cleveland's Rocky Colavito tied a major league record Wednesday night by becoming the eighth player ever to hit four in one game. He also became only the third to do it with successive shots, tagging drives of 360, 400, 400-plus and 425 feet as the Indians blasted the Orioles out of the AL lead 11-8.

Colavito, 25, now has hit 18 for the season, one behind league leader Harmon Killebrew of Washington. These were his first of the year against the Orioles and they came against three right-handed pitchers. Colavito, a right-handed slugger who should "prefer" lefty pitchers, has hit all but three of his 18 off right-handers.

With Baltimore jolted loose from a deadlock, Chicago's White Sox took a one-game lead in the AL by beating Washington 4-1. New York climbed above .500 for the first time since April 25 by defeating Kansas City 6-4, gaining control of fourth place by one percentage point over Detroit, despite a 10-9 Tiger victory at Boston.

Indians 11, Birds 8

Colavito, who walked in the first inning, drove in six runs and scored five with his 4-for-4 explosion. His homers — for a total of 105 in a five-year career — came in the third with one on, against loser Jerry Walker (4-3); in the fifth (bases empty) and sixth (one on) against Arnie Portocarrero; and in the ninth (bases empty) against Ernie Johnson. Three reached the left field bleachers, the other went over the left-center field fence.

Only Lou Gehrig of the Yankees (1932) and Pat Seerey of the White Sox (1948) had hit four in one previously in the AL. Six have done it in the National League with Boston's Bob Lowe (1894), the first, and Gehrig the only ones to hit four in succession.

The Indians finished with six homers which were good for all but one of their runs. Minnie Minoso and Billy Martin hit the others the seventh for both.

Right-hander Gary Bell (5-5) was the winner with Mike Garcia's help in a four-run seventh.

ChiSox 4, Solons 1

Early Wynn (8-4) gained his first complete game in five starts for the White Sox, beating the Senators with a five-hitter. A hit batter and an error by catcher Hal Naragon, allowing Al Smith to score while attempting an inside-the-park homer, gave the Sox two runs in the first inning against Hal Woodeschick (0-1). Killebrew, given a "night" by the fans, beat out an infield hit and scored Washington's lone run in the fourth.

Yankees 6, KC 4

Elston Howard's two-run double clinched it for the Yankees as they scored four in the seventh. It was their 11th victory in their last 13 games and third in a row. Art Ditmar (4-4) was the winner against Bud Daley (5-4).

Braves' Swap Proves Costly

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For all their pitching depth, maybe Milwaukee's Braves made a mistake when they ended Gene Conley's rebellion by peddling the right-hander to Philadelphia.

They've lost seven of their last 12 games, with only three complete games from their staff in that span. And Wednesday night they lost their second in a row, 5-2 at St. Louis, reducing their National League lead to one game while Conley was beating Los Angeles 2-1 with a four-hitter.

Conley, who was peddled after an 0-6 season because he refused to quit his winter job with professional basketball's champion Boston Celtics, has lost as many as he's won (3-3), but that's not bad for a pitcher with a last place club.

While the Braves continued to stumble, second place San Francisco closed in with an 11-7 victory at Pittsburgh. Cincinnati defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-4.

Phillies 2, Bums 1

Conley gave up nothing but singles, walked only one and struck out two in a duel with loser Danny McDevitt (3-6) and Clem Labine. The Dodgers scored in the fourth when Junior Gilliam singled and came around on Wally Moon's single and a doubleplay.

Cards 5, Braves 2

The Braves scored in the first two innings on home runs by Hank Aaron (16) and Del Crandall (8), but the Cards came from behind for three unearned runs in the fifth on an error, Manager Solly Hemus' pinch double and two-out two-baggers by Gino Cimoli and Bill White. Bob Rush (4-2) was the loser.

Alex Kellner (2-1) was the winner with Lindy McDaniel's relief help over the last four frames.

Giants 11, Bucs 7

Willie Kirkland and Orlando Cepeda homered for the Giants, who cracked six Pirate pitchers for 19 hits. Winless George Witt lost his fifth. Sam Jones (7-5) won his fourth in a row, but needed Stu Miller's relief help in a five-run seventh.

Reds 6, Cubs 4

Solo homers by Roy McMillan and Frank Robinson in the last two innings clinched it for the Reds. Bob Purkey (6-7), beat the Cubs for the first time since 1955. He allowed only four hits, but gave way to reliever Orlando Pena because of a blistered finger in the eighth. Glen Hobbie (6-6) was the loser for the Cubs, who scored on two-run homers by Sammy Taylor, in the fifth, and Ernie Banks, who hit his 15th in the ninth.

SS Jamboree Set For Gem Friday Night

The South Suburban Little League swung into its first season as a member of the National Association of Little Leagues with a pair of loop counting games Wednesday night. One was played on the Kingsley Field diamond while the other was underway on the brand new 30-acre, eight-diamond plot, Washburn Field.

At Kingsley pitcher Bill Williams hurled the Kingsley Field nine to a 6-5 victory over Metler Bros. while at Washburn the House of Discount was busy collecting a 14-3 triumph over Oregon Food. Chucker Bob Abbey was the winner while Daryl Fisher was charged with the loss.

Friday night the South Suburban aggregation, which includes, in addition to the six major league teams, 14 minor clubs, will present its grand opening, a mammoth jamboree in Gem Stadium beginning at 7 o'clock.

Fully arrayed in their new uniforms, which will not be worn until the occasion of the jamboree, all 20 teams will be presented to the parents and fans by director Bob Abbey.

At 7 p.m., following the playing of the National Anthem, Boy Scout Troop 100 will officiate at the flag presentation ceremonies. After the opening ceremony members of the teams, coaches, managers and umpires will be introduced.

Following a drawing for game positions the major teams will pair off for three two - inning games. The innings will consist of four runs or three outs.

Dale Putman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Putman, will toss out the first ball and get the games underway. Young Putman, a friend of most of the Little Leaguers in the area, is a polio victim.

League action for both the South Suburban major and minor leagues will get underway again on Monday, June 15. This Saturday all parents and players are requested to report to Washburn Field to conclude the final work necessary on the eight diamonds.

A smooth-working Klamath Falls American Legion baseball team, behind the two-hit pitching of Blake Griggs, sailed past Lakeview 8-2 to win the first league game of the 1959 Legion season in Gem Staidum Wednesday night.

Griggs, who faced only three extra batters over the seven innings, walked none, struckout 12 and poled a two-run triple off the scoreboard to star in this victory.

The next scheduled action for Hi Hatfield's Legionnaires comes Saturday at Gem Stadium when they host the Bend Legion in a pair of non-counting seven inning tests.

The first game against the state champion Bend aggregation will begin at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon while the second test will start at 8 p.m.

The Saturday night game is a special Little League Ballpark benefit game, all the proceeds from the game to be turned in as the Legionnaires contribution toward the new home of the Little Leaguers.

Wednesday night centerfielder Rich Depew, who seems to have regained his batting eye, got things started for the KF club as he lashed a sharp single in the first inning off losing chucker Charles Cossey. Depew romped home with the first Legion tally when rightfielder Bob Yunck connected for a double in his turn.

Depew also pulled the cork on a big six-run Klamath Falls fourth inning when he blasted his second base knock. Depew and Yunck, who was hit by Cossey, both scored easily when Griggs exploded the triple to deep center.

Catcher Dave Saks, the top KF sticker of the night, scored Griggs with a single and before the inning was over the Legionnaires had counted three more markers off a single by first baseman Don Gresdel, a long sacrifice fly by shortstop Steve Binney and a pair of walks off Cossey.

Saks returned in the fifth stanza to power a mighty triple to right center and then score when Gresdel got aboard via an error on Lakeview shortstop Doug Maxwell.

Maxwell got one of the Lakeview singles in the first inning but died on the sacks. The Lakers two runs came in the top of the sixth canto, when after two were out, Mike Deming got aboard when third sacker Estin Kiger committed the only KF miscue. Moments later he scored when catcher Larry Peters blasted a double. Peters also scored off two successive passed balls charged to KF catcher Saks.

Lakeview pitcher Cossey issued three bases on balls and fanned three KF batters but between his mates eight errors were collected to assist in the Lakeview downfall. Third baseman Deming was charged with three as was second baseman Garry Peters. Maxwell and first baseman Jerry Sawyer were credited with the other two mistakes.
