Nor-Cal All-Star Test Looms; Klamath Kub Future Brighter

The outlook brightened in the Klamath Kub semi-pro camp today when manager Irv Whitt learned that he would be able to use a quartet of American Legion ballplayers for the balance of the Kubs' league and exhibition baseball season.

Named to the Kub roster and cleared by the American Legion and coach Hi Hatfield were Legionnaires Blake Griggs, pitcher, Rich Depew, outfielder, catcher Dave Saks and utility-man Don Willey. With the exception of Griggs, each has another season of American Legion eligibility remaining.

The addition of the four Legion stars considerably improves the Kub chances for the remainder of the season. They will take up slack created when the Kubs lost Mike Dolan, Bob Lawery, Butch Dollar and Rube Johnson.

Whitt exclaimed happily, "This will keep us from having to fold after the All-Star game. At the rate we were going we would have had a tough time trying to field enough players for a ballgame. This move takes the pressure off—we might even win a few from here on. Each of these boys plays good ball—they won't have an easy time of it but I know they are capable of giving a good account of themselves."

Said Hatfield, "As long as it doesn't hurt the boys' Legion futures—and it doesn't—I'm happy that they will be given the chance. The experience will be good for them and we have a lot of good ball weather left."

Although the Kubs are currently sharing the Northern California League basement with Dunsmuir there are two league games remaining on the 1959 calendar. Depending on how the Kubs are in these two tests the possibility exists that they might yet make the President's cup playoff which follows the close of regular season play. The top four clubs in the standings are eligible to enter the playoffs.

The entire loop backs off from league action this weekend as Weed plays host to the annual Nor-Cal All-Star game Sunday.

Following the All-Star test Sunday at 1 p.m. in Weed the Kubs resume league action on Sunday, August 2, when they host the Scott Valley Stars at Klamath Falls.

Regular play is wrapped up August 9 when the Kubs trek to Mount Shasta for a contest with the Seals.

Whitt, first baseman Dean Dunson, pitcher-outfielder Mike Dolan, outfielder Floyd Linderman, infielder Mike McKenzie and pitcher Ed Vegley will all make the trip to Weed for the North-South game. Whitt will serve as coach for the South squad which is managed by Charley Farrell.

The North squad will be managed by Yreka's Denny O'Brien and coached by Weed's Jim Fruzza.

The South complement includes players from Klamath Falls, Mount Shasta and Dunsmuir while the Northern contingent is made up of Yreka, Weed and Scott Valley. The game is one of the highlights of the Nor-Cal season, ranking second only to the President Cup playoffs in importance and color.

The additions to the Kub lineup bring batting averages ranging from Rich Depew's .263, the lowest, to Griggs' .441, the highest. Griggs also boasts a 7-won, 3-lost American Legion pitching record.

Kub averages show seven players, three of which may be entirely inactive for the balance of the season, ranged above the .300 mark. John Bianchi leads the other three with a .429 mark while Dean Dunson and Floyd Linderman are next with .324 and .313 respectively.

Practice, Practice Stars Lot

Long hours and lots of hard work have been the lot of the Klamath Falls Little League, Inc. All-Star Team this past week as they sharpen their fielding and batting eyes in preparation for the big test confronting them this weekend.

Saturday at 4 p.m. on the new diamond at Mills Little League Park the KF Stars, Klamath Falls first entrant in Little League tournament action, tangle with Lakeview in a one game subdistrict playoff which determines the team to move on into the district finals in Portland July 31.

The Saturday tourney was originally scheduled as a three-way affair, but Bend, the intended third party, eliminated itself from the meet for undisclosed reasons.

Lakeview, old hands at tourney play, since this is the third year of National Association, will field a unit composed of Johnny Bach, Ken Blalock, Jerry Cook, Richard Drinkwater, Billy Duke, Mike Hale, Ray Harland, Gary Moss, Bryan Newcombe, Tom Newcombe, Jeff Sullivan, Jim Tooke, Greg Tracy and Mike Wiggins. Lakeview manager is Bob Howard, formerly of Klamath Falls, and Harold Cook is coach.

Manager B. M. Antle's KF nine includes Jim Patzke, Tim Bailey, John Parisotto, Terry Rogers, Tom Schiff, Steve Young, Larry Barnes, Dave Johnson, John Hammersley, Dick Bath, Mike Spiker, Randy Smith, Bob Moss and Jon Crume. Tom Narramore and Curt Coleman are listed as alternates.

Assisting Antle are coaches Veryl Young and Bob Moore.

Saturday's game will be the initial regular test played on the newly constructed Mills Little League Park. The contest will be preceded by a brief ceremony led by Gene Favell.

Concession stands donated by Pepsi Cola will be in operation at the park. The general public is invited and additional bleachers are being installed to accommodate the expected crowds. There is no admission charge.

Twinbill Set

Baseball fans have an ideal opportunity to get a good close up look at Klamath Falls hopes for a Babe Ruth World championship tonight when both the American and National League All-Stars parade in a doubleheader to be played at Gem Stadium beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Both teams, who enter the district BR tournament here Tuesday, will meet the powerful American Legion nine in tonight's action. The American Leaguers are set for the first game, a five inning affair, followed by the National League and the Legion in the second, also five frames.

American League coach John Paxton will pick his squad from Sherm Allen, Rod Sparlin, Hank Herrera, Bill Murray, Gary Patzke, Marv Edwards, John Crawley, Dave Spencer, John Crumrine, Mike Tacchini, Chuck Phillips, Ed Case, Sylvan Crume, Dave Stippich, Kent Hunsaker, Bill Kemnitzer, Jay Paxton and Ted Crutchfield.

National boss, Willie Dunster, will use Denny Coleman, Marv Davis, Larry Binney, Doug Floyd, John Lawson, Fred Gunton, Dick Carleton, Sam Walker, Ed Parnell, Larry Chance, Dave Sherman, Jim Puter, Lyle Phelps, Jim Lancaster and Ron Simpson.

Legion coach Hi Hatfield will attempt to get as many of his complete roster into the game as possible.

Stadium gates will open at 5:30 p.m. Admission charges are 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Metlers, Teamster '9' Win

Metler Brothers virtually wrapped up the South Suburban Little League championship Wednesday night at Kingsley Field by breaking an 8-8 deadlock to hand second place Kingsley Field a 13-9 defeat. In the other league contest at Capehart Field, Teamster 911 won their fourth game of the season with a 5-3 triumph over third place DARCO.

The league champs scored five runs in the sixth inning to break the tie with Kingsley, who had rallied for six tallies of their own in the bottom of the fifth frame. Catcher Gene Pahl's three-run homer highlighted the big sixth stanza. Teammate Don McGinnis drove in five of the first six MB markers with a solo homer in the second inning followed by a bases-loaded blast in the third.

Metler's Clarence Nealy added a single and a double to his team's attack while pitching the win, striking out 10 and walking three. Kingsley's Jon Reidon struck out four and walked three in being charged with the loss. Jim Hill rapped three singles and a double and David Brand another two-bagger to lead the losers at the plate.

Lyle Haney held the DARCO nine to but five hits while teammate Bob Middleton inspired a Teamsters eight-hit attack with a third inning bases-empty homer. The balance of the Teamster hits were singles. Haney went the full distance for the win.

Doug Coddington, Bob Buck and Chuck Barlow rapped singles and Doran McBride was awarded a walk in the DARCO big third, accounting for all three runs.

NY Trips Indians; SF Wins

United Press International

One swing of Bobby Avila's bat and Fred Haney can feel the Milwaukee Braves' second - base woes are behind them.

Acquired from the Boston Red Sox only 24 hours earlier, the ex-American League batting champion pulled the Braves out of their seven-game losing streak Wednesday night with a two-run ninth-inning homer that produced a 5-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The San Francisco Giants, meanwhile, increased their NL lead to 1½ games with a 6-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals while the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers bowed to the Chicago Cubs, 7-2. The Philadelphia Phillies crushed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-4, in the other game.

The Chicago White Sox took over first place in the American League by one game when they shaded the Boston Red Sox, 5-4, and the New York Yankees downed the Cleveland Indians, 8-5. The Detroit Tigers beat the Washington Senators, 6-2, and the Kansas City A's downed the Baltimore Orioles, 6-3.

Giants 6, Cards 1

Mike McCormick pitched a six-hitter for the Giants, who snapped a three-game losing streak with a nine-hit attack that included a run-scoring single and a homer by Willie Kirkland.

Braves 5, Reds 4

The win, the Braves first since July 13, moved them back into third place and also presented Warren Spahn with his 12th victory of the season and the 258th of his career. Spahn went all the way, yielding nine hits and contributing a homer to Milwaukee's seven-hit attack.

Cubs 7, Bums 2

Earl Averill's grand-slam homer was the big blow as the Cubs routed Danny McDevitt with seven runs in the second inning. Bob Anderson turned in his sixth victory, his third over the Dodgers.

Phils 11, Bucs 4

Dave Philley drove in three runs and Ed Bouchee, Harry Anderson and Joe Lonnett knocked in two each to lead the Phillies' 19-hit attack on Ron Kline and three successors.

Chicago 5, Boston 4

The White Sox scored their 21st one-run win of the year when Sherman Lollar's ninth-inning single scored Nelson Fox with the decisive run.

Yanks 8, Indians 5

The Yankees rallied from a four-run deficit to deal fireballer Herb Score his eighth defeat and give Duke Maas his eighth win.

Tigers 6, Nats 2

Frank Lary won his 11th game for Detroit with the help of Ray Narleski's late-inning relief job. Frank Bolling hit his seventh homer and Lary his first for the Tigers who moved past Washington into fifth place.

Athletics 6, Birds 3

Ray Herbert pitched a six-hitter for his fifth straight win and ninth of the year for Kansas City. Roger Maris had two hits and Dick Williams homered for the Athletics.
