THE ANNOUNCEMENT has been made in Salem of the engagement of Barbara Morris, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morris of that city, to Joseph Riker, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Riker of Klamath Falls. Both young people are sophomore students at Oregon State College. The bride-elect is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. The future bridegroom is a graduate of Henley High School. The couple plans a June wedding.

Club Members Enjoy Weekend

DUNSMUIR — Chico State College students spent the weekend in Dunsmuir as participants in a Canterbury Club outing.

The Canterbury Club is an Episcopal Church group and the male members of the party used St. Barnabas Guild Hall as a dormitory.

The female contingent was housed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kelby. Their daughter, JoAnne Kelby, who is also a Chico State student, was hostess for the occasion.

The weekend started with a dinner and party at the Kelby home on Friday night. After prayers in the morning, the group spent Saturday at the Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl enjoying a variety of winter sports. A dinner and dance at the Guild Hall was the final social event of the weekend. Members of the Wesleyan Club, Methodist students at Chico State, were weekending at Mount Shasta and joined the Canterbury Club for the dance on Saturday night.

After an early service Sunday morning, the group headed back to classes.

FOR CHIC LOOK

For that chic look, do keep your costume and accessories simple. Better too little adornment than too much.

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE REEDER of Roseburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Faye Louise, to John Wright, son of the Rev. and Mrs. L. Dow Wright of Klamath Falls. The bride-elect was graduated from Roseburg High School and is attending Northwest Nazarene College in Nampa, Idaho, where her fiance is a ministerial student. No date has been set for the wedding.

Beauty Tips from ME to YOU

BY Mary Martin

It's not only what you wear but how you wear it, that brings off that well-dressed look. 1st, keep in style, adapting new trends to your own shape and taste. 2nd, choose the proper accessories. 3rd, know how to use color, not only to harmonize with your outfit, but also to flatter you. Add to this careful grooming as to hair, face, nails, etc . . .

Have doubts about eye make-up? Here are a few tips to help: How much? . . . this depends on your natural coloring. Brunettes usually need little and blondes more. The best test is to hold a mirror at arm's length . . . if it's too much, it's too obvious. What color? . . . Usually it is [illegible] iris . . .

RECENT GUESTS at the Carl Hagel home, 891 Kane Street, were the Rev. and Mrs. Dwayne L. Proett and their two children, Paul and Debbie. The Rev. Proett, former pastor of Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, now pastor of the Community Church at Davis, California, was a recent guest at the Tulelake Community Presbyterian Church. The talk was illustrated with colored slides of his recent visit to the Holy Land. He was one of a selected group invited by King Hussein of Jordan to visit that country during the Christian season. After leaving Klamath Falls the Reverend Proett was pastor of a church in Mexico. — Photo by Kettler

Bethel No. 61

Barbara Vinson, grand junior custodian of the Order of Job's Daughters, was honored at the regular meeting and reception held by Bethel No. 61, on Monday evening, February 1, at the Scottish Rite Temple. Honored Queen Patricia Anderson presided at the meeting with Natalia Reichenburg, guardian, and Lacey Whetal, associate guardian, welcoming guests and members.

Escorted and honored were Barbara Vinson, grand junior custodian, and Susan Moss, honored queen, Linda Heyden, senior princess, and Joan Wizner, junior princess of Bethel No. 6. Gus Vlahos, worshipful master of Crater Lake Lodge No. 211, was also introduced.

Commander Willis Glidden of Cavalry Commander No. 16 made a presentation of a check to the bethel, on behalf of the Knights Templar and Elgin Phillips, grand commander.

The winner of the black "doggie," a project of the queen's, was Cheryl Bingham.

Jackie Dukes, librarian, entertained with a report on the book, "Borrowed Angel."

After the meeting a reception for the honored guest, Barbara Vinson, was held in the dining room. Virginia McClure, hospitality chairman, presided at the punch bowl and Helen McCornack at the coffee service. Incidental music on the piano by bethel members provided entertainment during the refreshments.

Buffet Supper Honors Couple

The George Kovich home, 1540 Pacific Terrace, was the scene of a buffet supper on February 23 honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hayes who will leave Klamath Falls soon to make their home in Eugene. Hosts to the 40 guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Kovich and Mr. and Mrs. Al Fullaway.

STICKY IRON?

Are you bothered with your iron sticking to starch? There are reasons for this. Excessive starching, excessive sprinkling or too cool an iron can cause starch to stick to the iron. Fabric should be just damp when ironed. Starch and water should be accurately measured each time and iron that is too cool will cause slow ironing and cause sticking.

FAMILY REUNION

FORT KLAMATH — A family reunion dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Roeder on Sunday, February 21, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hinz and Mr. and Mrs. Art Schneider of Merrill, Wisconsin.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs Fred Slusher and granddaughter, Teresa, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder of Fort Klamath and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bricco and son, Terry, of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Hinz is a sister of Mrs. Marvin Roeder and Kenneth Bricco and has been a guest of the two families for the past two weeks.
