Last Concert Of Series Set Thursday

The third and final concert of the Klamath Union High School music department's spring series will feature the a capella choir and the concert band in Mills School Auditorium Thursday at 8 p.m.

M. Dale Hallack and Ephraim Hackett are the respective directors. They are offering a variety from religious choir music to light operetta, march overtures and popular songs. Tickets will be available at the door.

The choir will sing "Agnus Dei" by Thomas Morley, "Salvation is Created" by P. Tschesnokoff, "Advent Motet," by Gustav Schreck, featuring an antiphonal choir composed of Mikell Thurston, Ann Rexford, Carol Ross, Julia Lawrence, Charlton Currin, Dennis Montague, Lawney Hallack and Richard Stemler; "Hosanna" by Robert G. Olson; "Deo Gracias" from "A Ceremony of Carols" by Benjamin Britten; "The Creation" by Will Richter, and "Hespodi Pomilui" by Alexis Von Lvov.

The concert band will offer "Meadowlands" by L. Knipper; "Sonatina" by Charles Carter; "Trumpet Tune" by Henry Purcell; "Celebrated Air" by J. S. Bach; "Fantasy for Band" by Frank Erickson; "Spiritual from Symphony No. 5" by Don Gillis; "Pavanne From the Second American Symphonette," featuring Larry Neimi on the trumpet, by Morton Gould; and "Student Prince Overture" by Sigmund Romberg.

The combined chorus and orchestra will sing and play "Alleluia" by Roger C. Hannahs; "A Tribute to Romberg" by Sigmund Romberg, and "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by Peter J. Wilhousky. John Lawson and Lael Weston will have outstanding trumpet parts during "Alleluia." Mikell Thurston will sing a solo in "Tribute," a medley of nine of Romberg's more popular compositions.

SCOUT NEWS

Several Cub Scouts of Pack 77 received awards during a monthly meeting March 25 in the Congregational Church.

Cubs and the awards they won were Raleigh Larimer, lion gold arrow and silver arrow; Gordon Tomlin, wolf silver arrow and service star; Wayne Bohannon, wolf gold arrow; George Knudson, wolf silver arrow; Charles Bath, wolf silver arrow and service star; Darrell Shear, wolf award, and Steven Eccles and Johnny Britton, bobcat awards.

The meeting opened with a salute to the flag led by members of Den 2. Den 1 and 2 displayed rock collections and plaques depicting the theme, "My Home State." The two dens visited the county museum recently as a portion of the project.

Cubs won a ring toss game, competing against their parents. Den 1 sang "Good Night Cub Scouts" and recited the cub promise to close the meeting.

Den 2 members served refreshments.

Mother, 2 Tots Perish In Fire

NEW YORK (AP) — A mother and two of her children died today in a fire that burned out their four-room tenement apartment on the lower East Side.

The father, bleeding and in shock, was found on the apartment stoop with a third child he had carried to safety.

The dead were Maria Luperena, 26; Yvonne, 8, and Dennis, 2 months. The mother's body was found in her bed and the children's bodies under it.

The father, Juan, 28, and his son, Milton, 7, were taken to Bellevue Hospital, suffering from burns, cuts and shock.
