'Senors' About Due For Name Change

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Saturday's shorts:

The new name of the Oakland football team in the American League, "Senors," may not be long for this world. Most of the club officials oppose the selection.

The favorites now are "Jets," "Oaks" and "Saints." Coach Eddie Erdelatz likes "Saints," because, he says: "We could have a band playing 'When the Saints Come Marching In' for every game . . ."

Coach Payton Jordan of Stanford University, host for the 1960 Olympic games trials, says indications are that there will be 60,000 in the stands for the big event July 1-2 . . .

It already sounds like World Series time in San Francisco—with scalpers asking—and getting—as high as $20 a copy for tickets to the opener between the Giants and St. Louis on Tuesday. . .

And speaking of the Giants, the city officials like the idea of fans going to the park in their yachts so well that they are considering construction of a small yacht dock within a stone's throw of Candlestick Park . . .

Swinging Start

John Brodie, San Francisco 49'er Niner quarterback, is off to a swinging start as a golf professional. During his first two months of competition in the pro ranks, he won $1,300—with the big chunk being $900 at Palm Springs. "And my total costs have been only around $1,000," said John. "So I guess you could say I'm a winner right from the start. . . ."

Chet Soda, beleaguered president and general manager of the Oakland Senors (some fans want to call the club the Soda Jerks), says that in two months since his organization got the American Football League franchise, they have: 1) assembled an entire coaching staff, headed by Eddie Erdelatz; 2) set up a permanent office; and 3) signed "about" 40 football players to contracts.

New Outlook

Soda, new to the football business, says that in the two months it has changed, entirely, his outlook on life.

"I used to walk down the street eyeing the pretty girls," he says. "Now all I do is look at men and wonder how tall they are, how much they weigh and if they can play football."

Final Team Standings Revealed

Friday evening concluded the women's team bowling competition with The Ranch copping the Class A title, Bonanza Cafe the Class B crown and the Klamath Lockers club taking home the Class C championship.

Eole Tomlin took individual honors Friday evening by firing a series high of 583 and a high game of 209. Jesse Z. Smith Real Estate and Southern Oregon Music both donated $5 cash prizes to her for top bowler of the evening. Close behind Tomlin was Mary Lou Schortgen of Bonanza Cafe firing a 550 series and Mary Ellen Hankins with a 208 high game Thursday evening. House of Shoes and Deane Sacher Real Estate contributed $5 cash prizes to the high scorers of the Thursday evening first shift sessions.

Class A winner, The Ranch, fired a 2929 team total. LaVonne Kellow bowled 443, Pat Putnam 430, Willie Solomon 506, Mary Ellen Hankins 540 and Carolyn Erickson a 574. The team had a 327 handicap. Second place honors went to Lucca Lounge with 2779.

In the Class B division the Bonanza Cafe team fired a 2850 score, Mary Lou Schortgen was high scorer with 550, followed by teammates Peggy Kelleher 472, Ellen Meek 416, Nellie Shephard 445 and Marge Wolf 430. The team had a total handicap of 537. Runnersup in the division were Belcastro's Dairy Maids with 2810, Al's Drive In with 2763 and Wright Real Estate with 2754.

Ruth Harris' 463 series paced the Class C champions, the Klamath Lockers team which had a total 2727 pins. Irene Williamson bowled 457, Beryl Gordon 330, Sylvia Stroud 411, Donna Stern 447. The team had a 639 handicap. Second and third place honors went to One Hour Martinizing with 2709 total points and Jeff's Barber Shop with 2688 pins.

Clark, Soni Please TV'ers

OGDEN, Utah (AP) — Did Lamar Clark get knocked out or did he get robbed in his rousing brawl with young Bartolo Soni of the Dominican Republic?

Ringside fans, managers, and probably a lot of TV viewers are wondering about that after the confused ending of the televised (NBC) bout here Friday night.

Officially, the 181½-pound Soni was credited with a knockout in 2:02 of the ninth round. The loss ended Clark's record knockout streak at 44 straight and was his first ring defeat in 46 pro bouts.

It was even harder for Clark to take because he was ahead on all the judges' cards and could have taken the decision by merely finishing. However, the bull-shouldered Soni lashed out with a flurry of hooking uppercuts which nailed Clark. When the strong boy from Cedar City, Utah, hit the canvas his head bounced.

To some fans, it seemed Clark, 182, was up before Referee Ken Shulsen finished the count. But Shulsen took Clark by the hand, waved Soni off and led Clark to a corner. Later Shulsen said he had finished the count and besides, he said Clark appeared to be out on his feet.

Clark's manager, Marv Jenson, hotly disputed this. "I won't permit Shulsen to referee another fight for one of my boys," fumed Jenson, who also handles NBA champ Gene Fullmer. Jenson claimed the count reached only seven and that Clark could have continued.

Pancho May Quit

VIENNA (UPI) — Pancho Gonzales plans to quit Jack Kramer's pro tennis tour following Sunday's matches at Nice, France.

"I'm physically tired and I don't want to impair my health," the husky Californian said.

Gonzales admitted his contract with Kramer runs through next December but he said he has no intention of completing it.

Detroit Set For Keglers Next Year

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — When next spring's American Bowling Congress tournament is held in Detroit, there will be a new "classic" division in which the pin-toppling professionals will be grouped.

This was decided by an overwhelmingly favorable voice vote of 600 delegates at the ABC convention Friday.

Establishment of the "classic" division is the most radical change in the 57-year history of the ABC tournament. In addition to separating those who bowl for a hobby from those who bowl for a livelihood, the amendment is designed to attract bigger spectator gates at the ABC championships.

Six games will be involved in the team event, three on successive nights. This will give the big name teams two nights for drawing spectators, compared to the one they have under the system now in effect. The "classic" division teams will use lanes at the center of the arena, flanked by the open division teams on the same shift.

Open or booster division teams may, if they desire, compete in the professionals' division. Entry in the "classic" division will be mandatory for any team with two or more individuals in its lineup who have 190 averages and who earn their livelihood from the game.

Tournament competition Friday produced no changes in the top tens of the singles, doubles and all-events standings, but in the open team division Crossroads Lanes of Peoria, Ill., rolled into ninth place with a 2,004.

Rademacher Draws

BERLIN (AP)—Former Olympic champion Pete Rademacher's string of five wins came to an end Friday night when the ex-Yakima Valley, Wash., heavyweight and Ullie Ritter of Germany fought to a 10-round draw.

The 4,000 fans at the West Berlin Sports Palace applauded the decision after the fast-paced bout, which Rademacher had been favored to win.

The balding Rademacher, who once fought Floyd Patterson for the world heavyweight title, now lives in Columbus, Ga.

Both fighters weighed in at 200 pounds.

Duck Linkers Win

EUGENE (AP) — Oregon defeated Oregon State, 19-8, Friday in matches that opened the golf season for both teams.

Oregon won five of the six two-man matches.

The medalist was Denny Strickland of Oregon, who posted a one-above-par 73 in defeating Garry Parrish, 3-0.
