FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CHANCEL CHOIR

Choir Slated To Sing At Service

The chancel choir of the First Presbyterian Church, directed by Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor, lower right in picture, will sing all music for the 9 a.m. service on Easter morning. The 41-voice choir includes young people from the fifth through the eighth grades.

They have sung at the morning worship service once a month and with the adult choir for the Christmas Eve service. Alexis Drew is student accompanist, Mrs. Robert C. Groves is organist.

Officers elected for the youth group include Alexis Drew, president; Michael Veatch, vice president and Tessie Powell, secretary-treasurer.

Not present for the picture but members of the choir are: Jack Adkins, Philip Ball, Susan Drew, Randy Ham, Harold Hill and Cynthia McCoy.

PROTESTANT WOMEN of Kingsley Air Force Base Chapel have organized with a multi-purpose objective: to assist the base chaplain in religious programs, to enter into study groups, social work and to represent the chapel in the Klamath Falls Council of Church Women. The organizational meeting was held in the Officers' Club. The group plans a family night dinner April 24. Hope Lutheran

Hope Lutheran Church, corner of South Sixth Street and Homedale Road will observe Good Friday with the Service of the Shadows at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 15. This is a service based on the ancient service of Tenebrae.

Readers will narrate the Passion story of Christ from the Gospels. Mrs. Thomas Winterringer will sing the "Lord's Prayer," by Malotte. Rae Anne Davis will sing, "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" and a womans' trio will sing, "O Sacred Head Now Wounded." An invitation is extended to the public to worship with the congregation.

The Festival of the Resurrection of Christ will be observed at the 11 a.m. service on Easter Sunday. A special children's program has been arranged for the Church School hour at 9:45 Sunday morning. A special film strip of the Resurrection of Christ will be shown.

The Rev. Albert C. Neubauer, pastor, extends a welcome to all to worship with Hope Lutheran Church.

Meeting Scheduled

The Southwest Oregon Presbyterial will meet in the First Presbyterian Church on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 19 and 20, with Miss Rachel Benfer, San Francisco, as keynote speaker. A second distinguished guest, Mrs. Harold Ploense, Portland, will also be present.

Registration will open Tuesday from 12 noon to 1 p.m. with the first session opening at 1 p.m.

A dinner is to be served at 6 p.m. Tuesday by women of the Klamath Lutheran Church for $1.50 per plate. Wives and their husbands are invited to be present. The meeting which will follow is open to the public.

Registration on Wednesday will be at 8:30 a.m. with the first meeting to start at 9:30. Luncheon will be served at noon for $1.

The Rev. Robert C. Groves, pastor of First Presbyterian will give the welcome.

Child care will be provided during all daytime sessions. All women who are interested, whether a member of the Women's Association or not, are cordially invited to attend one or all sessions of the Presbyterial.

Peace Memorial

The observance of Easter Sunday in Peace Memorial Church will begin with a 6 a.m. youth breakfast for eighth graders and high school young people at the church. An Easter film will be shown following the breakfast.

Three worship services in the church sanctuary at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. are planned with the Rev. Laing W. Sibbet bringing the Easter message on "Burning Hearts." There will be special music by the robed adult and youth choirs at each service. Child care will be provided at each service.

The pastor and congregation will welcome those who wish to worship with them.

There will be two special services of Scripture and music in the sanctuary on Good Friday, April 15, at 12:10 and 1:10 p.m.

The observance of Good Friday, also called God's Friday or Holy Friday, the Friday before Easter dates back as far as 260 A.D. The Greek name for this day is the Great and Holy Parasceve, and in much of the Christian World it is a day of fast, prayer and adoration of the Cross upon which the Savior died. In England the day has been known as Long Friday because it is a day of fasting and meditation.

Palestine Talk

Brig. Harold Barry, San Francisco, will speak on the subject of Palestine as a special service of the Salvation Army at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 16.

Brigadier Barry spent some time in Palestine while serving as a chaplain in the United States Army. He will speak on the economical, political and religious life of the Israelites. He will give an insight also on the implications of these areas as applicable to the Arabic nations.

During World War II the speaker was a combat chaplain in the European area, spending many months in the Italian campaign under fire, providing moral and spiritual strength to the fighting forces. He resigned from the service with rank of major and since his resignation from active service, he went into the active Army Reserves as a chaplain where he spends time counseling and conducting religious services at Letterman General Hospital.

Brigadier Barry will also speak at the Easter services. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Berry, an accomplished musician who will provide special music during meetings conducted over the Easter weekend. The public is invited to attend the services.

Dorris Nazarene

The Rev. Roland E. Griffith, evangelist, will hold services at the Dorris Church of the Nazarene beginning Easter Sunday morning and continuing through Wednesday evening, April 20. Evening services will begin at 7:30 p.m. in a school of prayer.

The pastor has served in New Zealand for nine years and with Mrs. Griffith and daughter has traveled widely in Europe, Africa, Asia and many islands of the Pacific, the United States and Canada.

Topics for his meetings have been announced as follows: Sunday a.m. "Does God Answer Prayer Today?" Sunday, 6:45 "New Zealand Travelogue;" 7:30 p.m., worship service, "Prayer and Power;" Monday, April 18, 7:30 p.m., "Prayer and Healing;" Tuesday, April 19, 7:30 p.m., "Prayer and Healing;" Tuesday, April 19, 7:30 p.m., "Prayer and Practice;" Wednesday, April 20, 7:30 p.m., "Praying in the Holy Ghost."

Pastor of the Dorris Nazarene Church, the Rev. J. Marvin Horn, invites the public to share in the services.

Klamath Lutheran

Easter worship services at Klamath Lutheran Church will begin with the children's worship service at 9 a.m. when children are reminded to take their Easter baskets.

The festival Easter worship services will be at 11 a.m. to include special numbers by the choir.

Due to weather and ground conditions, the Lutheran Easter sunrise service at the Shasta Drive-In Theater has been canceled.

Laki Presbyterian

Two worship services are planned for the Mt. Laki Community Presbyterian Church on Easter Sunday at 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. The junior high choir will sing at the first service under the direction of John Guther. The sanctuary choir will sing at the second service under the direction of Mrs. James O'Donahue.

The Rev. Andrew Jarvis, pastor, will bring the two Easter sermons.

At 7:30 p.m. the sanctuary choir will present a concert of sacred music in the church and the public is invited to be present.

Crater Lake ICE CREAM FIRST AGAIN!

FIRST PLACE
WASHINGTON-INTERNATIONAL ICE CREAM SCORING

For the first time in the history of the competitions the same dairy has won BOTH the Sweepstakes Award for "Oregon's Finest Ice Cream" . . . AND the Washington - International Ice Cream Scoring Trophy. In competition with dairies from many western states and western Canada, Crater Lake Vanilla Ice Cream was judged "BEST" by experts. In addition to these two most coveted trophies Crater Lake has, already this year, received a trophy for Oregon's best strawberry ice cream . . . and the FIFTH CONSECUTIVE Gold Award for buttered almond ice cream from the state of California. Crater Lake is the ONLY ice cream made for you right here in Klamath Falls, food product of a dairy that has been part of your community for more than half a century.
