Merrill Folk In The News

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry T. Cissell and family are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Orvill Eifert after being stationed four years in Laone, France. Mrs. Cissell will be remembered as Frances Eifert. The Cissells will also spend some time with his parents in Springfield before returning to reside in Klamath Falls where he is to be stationed at Kingsley Field.

The Lou Hill residence has been a busy place recently with the coming and going of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Shelton and family, former residents of Merrill, were recent visitors. Maurice Shelton is now associated with the First National Bank in Bend. Other guests at the time were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Culder and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Culder.

Now staying with the Hills are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Brant and sons of Portland and Mrs. Nora Mae Fleming French of Oakland. Mrs. Brant is the former Laura Lou Hill and Mrs. French is the mother of Mrs. Lou Hill.

Clayton Lewis is the name chosen for the new son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hill after his birth October 21. Clayton, who weighed 7 pounds, 5 ounces, and his mother will spend several weeks with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hill, Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Keno, before leaving for Tempe, Arizona, where his father is completing his senior year at Tempe State College.

HANDY-EFFICIENT

If you're building a utility closet to hold housecleaning gadgets, remember peg-board.

Peg-board walls have a maze of little holes for holding hooks or pegs. These make it possible to hang much cleanliness equipment on limited wall space — mops, brushes, cloths, sponges, dustpans, brooms, and so forth.

OWC Luncheon Features Election, Style Show

Election of officers and a style show were highlights of the October 20 monthly luncheon and business meeting of the Kingsley Field Officers Wives Club held in the Officers Club.

Mrs. Fran Anderson presided over the meeting as president. Luncheon arrangements were made by Mrs. Evelyn Kelly and hostesses were Mrs. Jennifer Kantonen, Mrs. Patricia Kohl and Mrs. Emma Pecchia.

Following routine reports the election of new officers was conducted, Mrs. Jan Meinhold was voted the new president. Other one year officers are Mrs. Mary Murphy, first vice president; Mrs. Ann Buck, second vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Kelly, secretary; Mrs. Sally Schell, assistant secretary; Mrs. Weynette Haun, treasurer; Mrs. Audrey Wilson, assistant treasurer.

The new officers were introduced and presented corsages.

The retiring council members and committee chairmen are Mrs. Fran Anderson, president; Mrs. Barbara Edwards, first vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Kelly, second vice president; Mrs. Doris Holman, recording secretary; Mrs. Jan Meinhold, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Polly O'Connell, treasurer; Mrs. Cathy Baker, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Martha Davis, parliamentarian; Mrs. Lillian LeMay, liaison; Mrs. Marilyn Johnson, publicity; Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan, welcoming chairman; Mrs. Estelle Paulson, hobbies and games; Mrs. Mina Aly, family services representative; Mrs. Yvonne Robben, youth activities; Mrs. Alice Bilyeu, nursery; Mrs. Audrey Tillett, properties.

Mrs. Maryellen MacKenzie, attending her last luncheon before leaving for Germany to join her husband, was presented with a bracelet charm.

The style show presented by Bon Bazaar featured the latest in fall and winter fashions particularly chosen to meet the needs of the club members. Mrs. Paul Angstead was the commentator.

Mrs. Fred Horn and Mrs. Morgan Johnson assisted the models, who were all members of the wives club. They included Mrs. Jennifer Kantonen, Mrs. Patricia Kohl, Mrs. Marge Fuhrmann, Mrs. Rosemary McMillan, Mrs. Evelyn Muzik and Mrs. Barbara Tiernan.

Special prizes were won by Mrs. Barbara Edwards, Mrs. Terry Reynolds, Mrs. Alice Bilyeu, Mrs. Gwendolyn Slaughter and Mrs. Jessie Royse.

Luncheon guests were Mrs. Ann Rickbeil, Gail Mollison and Mrs. Helen Bechen.

BEAUTY TONIC

A leisurely few minutes in a bathtub full of warm soapsuds allow a woman's personality to "hibernate" while she indulges in the most inexpensive and easily available beauty and nerve tonic!

THE GAVEL which Mrs. Fran Anderson, left, has used the past year to call to order meetings of the Kingsley Field Officers Wives Club, is given to Mrs. Jan Meinhold, newly elected president. Election of officers was held at the October 20 meeting of the club.

Beta Sigma Phi

BETA PHI CHAPTER

The regular meeting of the Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held Tuesday October 18, at the home of Aura Mitchell.

A short business meeting was held and plans were discussed for a bowling party for members and their husbands to be held on November 5 at Lucky Lanes. A service project was also discussed and a final vote will be taken at the next meeting.

A very interesting program was given by Jean Bingham on "The History of Dress."

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses Lois Egger and Lillian Hayden.

A model meeting was held October 4 at the home of Betty Dirschl for the benefit of new rushees.

Lois Egger was in charge of the program entitled "Her Crowning Glory." She introduced her guest speaker, Howard Schauer from the Klamath Beauty College, who spoke on hair care, styling, and showed pictures of current hair styles. He also held a question and answer session.

After a short business meeting, rushee Delores Balcom was given a brief introduction into the sorority. The aims and scope of Beta Sigma Phi were presented by Pat Lukes; history of Beta Sigma Phi by Aura Mitchell; achievements of our local Beta Phi Chapter by Marge Seutter, and the scrapbook by Shirley Bissell.

STORK SHOWER

HAPPY CAMP—Mrs. John Kanig and Mrs. Joe Ragsdale were honored at a double stork shower recently at the home of Mrs. Sidney Griffin. Mrs. Ruben Sullivan was co-hostess. Mrs. Glen Speegle decorated the cake for the occasion. Others present were Mrs. Jim Vertrees, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. William Perry, Mrs. James Dukes, Mrs. Earman Pence, Mrs. Richard Priddy, Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, Mrs. Lloyd White, Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mrs. Floyd Waldron, Mrs. Milo Owens and Mrs. Ray Wasson.

Legion Auxiliary

MERRILL—The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Paul Lewis Tuesday, October 11. Mrs. Margorie Newnham, president, officiated.

A report on the District 4 meeting in Klamath Falls September 18 was given.

The auxiliary has three comforters to be given to needy families.

Girls who sold poppies were awarded with gifts of charm necklaces. Eight hundred poppies have been ordered to sell this year.

A donation was given to the Klamath County United Fund.
