Two Admit To Burglary

The Clackamas County Sheriff's Office said Tuesday that two ex-convicts had admitted the burglary of the Ace TV Company in Klamath Falls on Nov. 21.

The burglars were identified as James Donald Yarbrough, 21, and Charles Snowberger, 19, both of Portland. The men were apprehended Sunday as they tried to enter a tavern in Milwaukie.

State Police Sergeant Bruce Lattin said the thieves used a screwdriver to pry open a window and three locked doors to gain entrance to the Ace TV building. Two television sets, six radios and three phonographs were taken. Lattin said one of the phonographs was recovered at the home of Yarbrough's girl friend in Milwaukie.

WOULD LIKE VISIT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower says he would like to visit New Zealand after he leaves the White House.

The President said Tuesday in response to an invitation from Prime Minister Walter Nash that a trip to New Zealand would be "a source of happiness" to him and Mrs. Eisenhower.
