

LOPS HEADS OFF BENSON'S TOOLS

Ballinger Dismisses Valk and Harlan From Land Office.

BOLD SECRETS TO THIEVES

Hitchcock Kept Them Lest He Lose Their Evidence—Changes Among the Officials to Increase Efficiency Are Numerous.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 1.—Commissioner H. A. Ballinger does not propose to run the General Land Office as a harbor of refuge for crooks, nor does he propose to operate it as a charitable institution. Today he summarily removed William E. Valk, of Maryland, and Woodford D. Harlan, of this city, two clerks who appeared before the grand jury in this city in February, 1904, and admitted that they had accepted bribes from Benson and Hyde, the perpetrators of vast land frauds in Oregon and Washington, whose trial was recently set for next October. Valk and Harlan confessed that they had furnished Benson and Hyde with advance information about the creation of forest reserves, which enabled the ring to profit to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

No Dishonest Men Wanted.

Notwithstanding the confessions of both men, Secretary Hitchcock refused to remove them from office, and for more than three years these self-confessed felons have been drawing good salaries from the Government, Valk at $2000 a year, Harlan at $1500. Mr. Hitchcock protected them on the ground that their testimony had enabled the Government to make a case against Benson and Hyde. He furthermore insisted that it would be easier to get hold of Valk and Harlan as Government witnesses if they were kept on the Government payroll than if they were turned out and allowed to drift.

Mr. Hitchcock once expressed a fear that if Harlan and Valk were dismissed, Benson and Hyde would induce them to leave the country. Mr. Ballinger takes a different view. He does not propose to keep in the General Land Office any man who has proven untrue to his trust, and clearly a man who has confessed, as Harlan and Valk have confessed, to having deliberately sold Land Office information.

Ballinger Must Make Good.

In his campaign to improve the Land Office, Mr. Ballinger has the unqualified support of Secretary Harfield. In fact, Mr. Harfield has told Mr. Ballinger that he will hold him strictly accountable for the conduct of the Land Office, but that he will uphold him in any move he makes to improve the service.

Coincidentally with the removal of Harlan and Valk, Mr. Ballinger has made many other changes, taking from high places men who have been found incompetent and promoting those found capable. In the shake-up John H. Ballinger, of Washington, is promoted from clerk at $1500 to principal examiner at $2000.

LAWTON AS SPECIAL AGENT

Bourne Gets Land Office Job for Grant's Pass Man.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 1.—D. J. Lawton, of Grant's Pass, Or., was today appointed special agent of the General Land Office on recommendation of Senator Bourne. There are only five special agents in the classified service. Mr. Lawton gets one of these positions. He was formerly endorsed by Supervising Special Agent Dixon, of Portland.

Oregon Postal Affairs.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 1.—Francis M. Rich has been appointed regular, Horatio H. Welch substitute, rural free delivery carrier, route 3 at Sherwood, Or. Oregon postmasters appointed: Juniper, Charles E. McLellan, vice F. E. Larson, resigned; Pokenanz, William A. Brown, vice C. B. Walters, resigned.

Beatty to Back Up Borah Charges.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 1.—Judge Beatty called to see the Attorney-General today in regard to Senator Borah, but the Attorney-General was in Baltimore and the visit was postponed. It is understood that Judge Beatty is here to sustain District Attorney Kluick. Judge Beatty's known hostility towards Mr. Borah is known in administrative circles.

REPLIES FOR HIS CLIENTS

bone, who settled in New England in 1652. I have a revolutionary ancestor buried at White Plains. Haywood is of old revolutionary stock, has an ancestor buried at Mount Vernon and one of his forefathers signed the Declaration of Independence. Meyer comes from Pennsylvania Dutch and the Pennsylvania Dutch have been Americans for some time." Ada County Courthouse, brick and conventional in type, stands on an unfenced square of beautifully green lawn, treed in at the sidewalks. Haywood, Meyer and Pettibone are caged in steel at night, but their days are spent in a large room with steel-barricaded door and windows. For two hours each day they exercise on the lawn under guard, and this has probably been the means of their good health. A Sheriff who might have been the model of "The Virginian" and three or four deputies, tall, lithe, clear-eyed chaps, men of the West, are the alternating guards. In the group on the lawn it is often difficult to distinguish prisoners from officials. Pettibone tells with glee of a farmer who mistook one of the guards for him and desecrated on his ferocity and depravity.

No Need of Martial Law.

"They are good prisoners," said the Sheriff. "The hotels of Boise are gradually filling up in anticipation of the trial. The town itself, however, shows absolutely no sign of unusual conditions other than the presence of many strangers. The people of the place seem to be almost apathetic and are not discussing the matter. Notwithstanding alarmist reports, there does not appear to be the slightest reason to anticipate disturbance; in fact, the citizens ridicule the suggestion. "Martial law will not be declared in Boise unless disturbances should occur and make such a step necessary," said Governor Gooding today to the Associated Press, when shown a statement that it was his intention to place Ada County under martial law at the commencement of the trial of Haywood. "I do not expect any such breach of the peace on the part of the people of our state, and I should very deeply regret the necessity for a declaration of martial law. Any statement that martial law has ever been under consideration is absolutely without foundation."

MARTYRS IN RIGHTEOUS CAUSE

How New York Unionists Picture Federationists in Parade.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Singing the "Marseillaise," more than 6000 Socialists and labor unionists paraded through the Brownsville and East New York sections of Brooklyn today to show their sympathy for Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, the labor leaders under indictment, charged with the murder of ex-governor Steiensenberg, of Idaho. Every man wore a picture button of the accused men and several large banners, picturing them as martyrs in a righteous cause, were also displayed. Red flags and American flags were equally in evidence. During the parade and meeting in Congress Hall, there was no disorder. The meeting adopted resolutions for Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. One of the speakers criticized President Roosevelt's allusion to the labor leaders in the letter to Representative Sherman, of New York.

COMES HOME TO MARRY

MABELLE GILMAN IS TO WED COREY ON MAY 13.

Declines to Discuss Her Private Affairs on Arrival in New York, but Settles Mooted Question.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Miss Mabelle Gilman, who arrived here today from Paris on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, accompanied by her mother, said when seen concerning her reported marriage to William E. Corey: "I must refuse to discuss my personal affairs. However important you may regard it for me to gratify the curiosity of inquiring friends and strangers, I am afraid I cannot share your view. But I will depart from this resolution far enough to say that Mr. Corey and I will be married in this city on May 13, and both Mr. Corey's family and mine will be present. That is all." Several weeks ago Mr. Corey leased a house on Fifth avenue, to which he will move soon after the marriage. Mr. Corey, who was yesterday re-elected president of the United States Steel Corporation, dined tonight with his fiancée, her mother and her two sisters in Miss Gilman's apartment.

LIST OF INJURED IS FORTY

Chicago Fire Causes Panic Among Members Women's Lunch Club.

CHICAGO, May 1.—About 40 women were injured in a fire that broke out today in the building at 255 Wabash avenue. The first floor was occupied by the Story and Clark Piano Company and the three upper floors by the Lotus Lunch Club, patronized exclusively by women. When the flames were discovered two hundred women, including the employees, were in the place and at the first cry of fire panic ensued.

A number of the women leaped from the windows of the second and third stories. By far the greater number, however, rushed to the fire escapes. These were filled in a few seconds with a struggling mass of women, making desperate efforts to climb down. Several of them lost their holds and fell to the street and others were pushed off. The flames started in the basement and ran up the elevator shaft with terrific speed, cutting off several women in the front of the building and a number of these, despite the warnings of the spectators, leaped to the ground. The others who remained were taken out by the firemen without injury. It is believed that any of the women will die of their injuries.

Mrs. Cecilla Maloney, one of the proprietresses of the room, was rescued by a fireman from one of the fire windows. Miss Willey and Miss Ross O'Rourke, who were in the lunch room at the time of the fire, were injured internally. They, with others, made a rush for the rear windows, there being only one opening on the alley. Policeman Daniel Kerr put up a short ladder. Running up it he rescued Miss O'Rourke and was carrying her down when several other women jumped from the window square on top of him and Miss O'Rourke. All of them fell to the ground. Miss O'Rourke is under them all. She was badly crushed and the result of her injuries are uncertain. Miss Willey was among those who jumped and was badly hurt. The loss on the building and contents will aggregate $50,000. Miss Mary Studemyer, who was thought to have perished in the fire, was later discovered, badly bruised, in the crowd outside the building.

BALLOON VOYAGE FAILURE

Changeable Air-Currents Force Aeronautes to Descend.

GOLCONDA, Ill., May 1.—Captain DeF. Chandler, United States Signal Service, and J. F. McCoy, of New York, failed to break the long-distance balloon record and to win the Lahm cup. The balloon, which left St. Louis at 7:20 Tuesday evening, landed five miles north of Golconda at 2:30 this afternoon. To have won the Lahm cup the balloon would have had to go more than 42 miles. Golconda is only 130 miles from St. Louis. Changeable air currents demonstrated to the aeronauts that they could not win the cup and for that reason they made the landing near here. It was brought to Golconda in wagons. Mr. McCoy will go with it from here to New York, while Captain Chandler will go to Washington.

Echo of Harriman's Letter.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Frank M. Hill, former stenographer for E. H. Harriman, who is charged with having sold to a newspaper the now famous letter from Mr. Harriman to Sidney Webster, was held in $1500 bail today for trial.

Now Look Out for Rheumatism.

The grip has been unusually prevalent during the past winter, and in many cases is likely to be followed by an attack of muscular rheumatism. This is the most common variety of that disease and least dangerous. There is no swelling of the joints and the pain is not so excruciating as in acute or inflammatory rheumatism. It is sufficiently severe to disable a man, however, and every movement increases the pain. Keep as quiet as possible and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Treat it with thoroughness, and you are certain to get quick relief.

ENTOMBED MINERS SAVED

SEVEN MEN OF FOUSTWELL WILL RECOVER.

Devote All Time to Sleep. With Occasional Doses of Stimulant. Kept Up Spirits Well.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 1.—Taken from the dark recesses of a coal mine where they had been imprisoned for more than 100 hours, the seven men rescued from the Berwind-White mine at Foustwell are lying in the hospital, physically exhausted and oblivious to all around them. The physicians say all will recover. "We knew the men on the outside were pumping out the water in an endeavor to release us. We kept a careful watch and could note the water going down. There was nothing we could do to help, and we all chafed under this until we could hear the tapping on the pipe, and knew it meant for us to keep up courage," said Foreman Bolja. "We always signaled back whenever we heard the tapping. All the men had full dinner buckets when they came into the mine Friday morning, but the food was soon exhausted. I don't think the men, after the third day, ever expected to see their families again, but the way they kept up their spirits was admirable."
