Yanks Claim 58 Medals At Tel Aviv

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — The United States sent its largest team ever to the Maccabiah Games and today had collected its greatest harvest of gold medals, 58 — more than double the total of runner-up Israel.

The 18-sport Jewish Olympics which drew about 1,100 athletes from 26 nations, winds up an eight-day run with a colorful closing ceremony at the Ramat Gan Stadium.

Weightlifters Gary Gubner of New York University and Mike Herman, an NYU graduate; gymnast Ron Barali of Los Angeles; and swimmers Dave Abramson of New York and Maggie Rosenberg of Oakland, Calif., were the major U.S. stars. Each collected three or more gold medals.

The United States finished in a blaze of glory by winning 16 gold medals on the final day of competition. The swimmers won 5 more for a total of 18 gold in 20 events; the weightlifters took 5 gold in 7 events, and the shooters, tennis players and fencers bagged 2 each on the last day.

In addition, the basketball team thumped Israel 83-68 to retain the title with an unbeaten record.

Israel was second to the United States with 28½ gold medals, followed by South Africa, 11; Britain, 10; Holland 7; Australia 6; and Canada 5.

Prothro Keeps Doors Locked

CORVALLIS (AP) — Tommy Prothro's Oregon State University football squad resumed twice-daily drills Labor Day in preparation for powerful Syracuse in the Sept. 23 season opener.

Since the Beavers are holding secret practices, no one knows for sure what they are doing. Prothro said squad spirit is holding up well and injuries have remained at a minimum.

It has been estimated that man gets 83 per cent of his knowledge through the sense of sight.

Ore-Tech Gridders Report For Work; Owl Staff Greets Heavy Initial Turnout

One of the heaviest opening turnouts, both in beef and numbers, in the history of Oregon Tech, greeted head coach Rex Hunsaker and assistants George Miller and Jim Cordial today as the Owls prepared to get the 1961 campaign underway.

Thirty-seven players, including 12 returning Owl lettermen, checked out their gear yesterday and attended a get-acquainted spaghetti feed in the Wineme Hotel Monday night.

This morning at 9:30 the squad settled into the opening practice session, the first of a "daily-double" routine which will fill their time until the season opener against Westminster here Sept. 16. The afternoon workouts will be held daily at 3:30.

The biggest man on the squad is newcomer Claire Hawkins, a 245 pounder from Calistoga, Calif., who will vie with big Jim Madden, 225, Ed Anderson, 220, Larry Ambrosek, 200, all three returnees from the 1961 OCC championship crew, and freshman Don Vidic, 225, from Pennsylvania in the battle for starting tackle jobs.

Returning guards are Windell Winterbottom, 175, and Mel Smith, 210. Gary Hancock, a former KU star who appeared in the State-Metro Shrine game recently, weighed in at 215 and was joined by three more newcomers, Frank Benesky, 226, from American River Junior College, Irwin Schemmel, a 190 pounder from Rainier, and Tom Brose, 180, from Yreka.

Don Anderson, the battle-scarred 190 - pound veteran, and Leroy Laine, 220, from Astoria will contest each other for the center job.

Roger Hooper, 190, and Ted Morriss, 215, both two-year letter winners, lead the end prospects. Wayne Dennis, a 185-pound freshman from KU, Jack Fox, 185, from South Salem, Charles Roller, 180, a former member of the Merrill Huskies, Dick Putnam, 175, from Springfield, Bob Loomis, 175, from Fossil, and Bob Cox, 170, from Springfield, round out the candidates for end positions.

In the backfield, 1960 lettermen Bud Maupin, 200, and Jack Williams, 185, are joined by a pair of veterans who laid out last season but who were letter-winners in 1959. Stan Glass, the 210 fullback who made everybody's all-star list, is back, as is Leland Koepke, 180, from Grants Pass.

New faces trying for spots in the backfield include Bill McClure, 165, Eagle Point; Max Hull, 160, Grants Pass; Jack McCreary, 185, from Springfield; Richard Mikilke, 155, North Bend; Lanny Myers, 175, St. Helens; Harvey Graham, 185, Grants Pass; Don Austin, 225, from Marshfield; and Chuck Gonzales, 180, from The Dalles.

Three quarterbacks, two of whom are transfers, the other a freshman, are looking for work. Bill Ransome, 5-9, 180 pounds, played his high school ball at John Day, then attended college of Idaho for one year before joining the Owls.

Gary Vroman, also, 5-9, 180, moved to Oregon Tech from American River Jaycee. The freshman is James Henson, 165, from Myrtle Creek.

Patterson Faces NBA Disciplining

HERSHEY, Pa. (UPI) — A crackdown on heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson for failure to defend his title in six months and a floor fight over the presidency may highlight the National Boxing Association meeting which opened here today.

Disciplinary action against Patterson, possibly the vacating of his title, would come during the meeting only if the champion completed a reported agreement to meet Tom McNeely Jr. of Brookline, Mass., on Nov. 13 at Boston under the auspices of Championship Sports, Inc.

The NBA's 14-member executive committee studied the Patterson case at length behind closed doors in a pre-convention meeting here Monday but postponed action until Sept. 13, the deadline for Patterson to defend against an NBA-approved contender.

The NBA bylaws state a champion must defend within six months against one of the top six contenders in the NBA rankings. McNeely didn't make the NBA's top ten. Patterson last defended by knocking out Ingemar Johansson at Miami Beach last March 13.

NBA President Dave Ott of Cleveland said the executive committee decided it could do nothing at this time because the Patterson-McNeely bout had not been put on paper and the six-month period had not expired.

"I have no knowledge that Patterson and McNeely signed for any fight," Ott said. "But if they sign, say before the convention ends, I'll have a statement on the NBA's position."

Paul G. Sullivan of Pittsburgh, chairman of the NBA world championships' committee, said he thought the title defense rule of six months should be enforced but said that if "Patterson signs before Sept. 13 to make a suitable defense any time after that, we would probably give him an extension."

The floor fight over a successor to Ott as president loomed over the nominating committee's selection of third vice president Dr. Charles P. Larsen of Tacoma, Wash., for the post.

Passed Over

NBA attorney John Y. Jordan of Asheville, N.C., said first vice president Charles Mayer of Montreal and second vice president Stan Goldberg of Indiana were passed over on grounds they were "not eligible to advance in office because they are no longer members of their respective commissions."

Jordan said he was "pretty sure" there would be a floor fight over the action which he described as a move to "put the affairs of the NBA back in the hands of active commissioners of respective localities."

An executive committee resolution that the NBA refuse to recognize suspensions for violation of return-bout clauses in fight contracts also was to be acted on at the meeting. The resolution opposed return-bout clauses because they can be used by a title holder to tie up the crown and ward off dangerous contenders.

Lewiston, Yakima Set Playoff Tilt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lewiston narrowed the gap to one game, but Wenatchee hurler Art Thompson kept the Broncs from making it even closer as the Northwest League closed out the second half of the baseball season Monday night.

Yakima, the second-half champ, will open a playoff series against Lewiston, the first-half winner, in the Idaho city Tuesday night.

Yakima's Bears dropped a doubleheader to Eugene 4-2 and 7-5. Lewiston won its opener from Wenatchee 5-4 but lost the nightcap 6-0 as Thompson pitched a no-hitter. Tri-Cities bested Salem 4-3 and 6-2.

But even if Lewiston had swept the two bill the Broncs would have finished five percentage points behind Yakima, which played four fewer games.

Eugene's Emeralds scored three runs in the sixth inning of their opening game. Herb Raybourne got the frame under way with a homer. The nightcap went eight innings after Yakima tied it with three runs in the seventh. Five singles gave Eugene two runs and the victory in the eighth.

Lewiston's Ed Olsen drove in four runs with two singles and an infield out in the first game at Wenatchee. Three unearned Lewiston runs in the fifth broke a tie. In the second game, Thompson struck out nine Lewiston batters but let runners get to third base in each of the first three innings.

Jake Rushing of Tri-Cities held Salem to three hits in the opener at Kennewick. He also singled in one run. The only extra-base hit for Salem was a double by pitcher Bob Radovich. A pair of singles, two walks and an error spelled three runs for the Braves in the first inning of the nightcap, in which they led easily all the way.

Boosters To Meet

The Pelican Booster Club will hold its regular weekly session tomorrow night at 6:30 in the Spruce Room of the Willard Hotel, it was reported this morning by club vice president George Demetrakos.

All fathers of KU football players are especially urged to attend. An interesting football game film is scheduled as part of the program. The Boosters will also complete their plans for the opening of the 1961 Pelican campaign this weekend.

Tacomans Clinch PCL '61 Pennant

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Portland Beavers, who will return home tonight for the final week of the Pacific Coast League baseball season, defeated Vancouver 4-3 in 10 innings in a Labor Day contest in Canada Monday.

Portland pitcher Satchel Paige held Vancouver to four hits and two runs in the first seven innings. He struck out seven and did not walk a single batter.

Portland opened its scoring in the third inning when Bill Wilson homered with Don Landrum, who had singled, on base.

Jim Brideweser added another for Portland in the fourth. He singled, advanced on a walk to Phil Gagliano and a wild pitch and scored on an infield bouncer by Landrum.

The Beavers won in the tenth when Jerry Buchek hit his 13th homer of the season.

The Beavers will open their final week tonight with a doubleheader against Spokane.

Elsewhere in the league, Tacoma clinched the PCL pennant with a 10-7 victory over Hawaii.

Both Tacoma and Vancouver have nine games to go, and Vancouver wound up Monday night 9½ games behind the league leaders.

Tacoma had to come from behind to win its game, but the Giants did it in a big way with two runs in the ninth and three in the 10th to beat Hawaii.

In the other games, Seattle beat Spokane 5-2, and San Diego spilled Salt Lake 6-3.

In the ninth at Honolulu, singles by Gil Garrido, Dusty Rhodes, Dick Phillips and Chuck Hiller accounted for the two runs for Tacoma and a 7-7 tie, which the Islanders could not top in the last of the inning. In the top of the 10th, Bob Farley homered after Garrido and Manuel Mota got on base on singles.

Whites Blank Blues On Hornet Gridiron

The Whites, quarterbacked by Earl Allbritton, "upset" the Blues 13-0 Monday night at Henley High School in the Hornets' annual pre-football season intra-squad game.

Allbritton's Whites, although outplayed in every department except scoring, pushed across their first touchdown in the first quarter when the junior combination of Allbritton and Steve Reiling clicked for a 22-yard pass play.

Sophomore Elton Shiro, a defensive end, racked up the second White TD in the third quarter when he picked up Blue Jim Stenberg's fumble and raced 27 yards to paydirt.

The Blues, with transfer Steve Rand handling the quarterbacking chores, held a 14-4 advantage over the Whites in first downs, and a 178 to 77 margin in total yardage, but four lost fumbles and 85 yards in penalties by the Blues gave the winners all the "breaks" they needed.

Mike Beymer, who missed his target after the first White TD, split the uprights on the second PAT attempt to close out the scoring.

Hornet coach Len Weber pointed out after the game that "we'll be working the rest of the week on our timing and polish. We certainly need it."

Weber also noted that the line play of Charlie Thompson, Leo Huff and John Riggs "all but insured themselves of a starting position" for Friday night's season opener against Chiloquin.

Game time for the non-counting contest on the Hornet turf will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Van Hurler's 2.36 ERA Tops League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ron Piche of Vancouver trimmed his earned run average to 2.36 to remain at the top of the baseball pitchers in the Pacific Coast League.

He has won 13 and lost 7 for a .650 average. He has struck out 109 in 164 innings.

Gaylord Perry of Tacoma, with 16 victories, is the leading game winner. He has lost 8. His ERA is 2.85.

Sam McDowell of Salt Lake City remained the strikeout king with 145. He's also the most generous with 143 walks. His ERA is 4.39.

Holiday Fan Appeal Down

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Major league baseball drew 180,948 fans on Labor Day, almost 34,000 less than attendance figures for a year ago despite a double-admission doubleheader.

The American League, topped by the 34,683 who sat in for the Washington-New York doubleheader at Yankee Stadium, was 106,413. That included 32,576 for the day-night separate admission doubleheader between Chicago and Minnesota at St. Paul-Minneapolis.

The National League drew 74,535, with the largest crowd, 32,109 attracted by the Los Angeles-San Francisco night game at Los Angeles.

Last year, the American League drew 93,254 and the National 121,653 for a combined total of 214,907.

Vandals Work Twice A Day

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) —Twice-daily football drills are on tap this week for the University of Idaho Vandals, who lost a letterman Monday when halfback Bill Steinbock of Salem, Ore., decided to drop football.

Coach Skip Stahley called the results of the Labor Day scrimmage satisfactory. He particularly praised the work of senior quarterback Mike Mosolf of Carmel, Calif., and sophomore fullback Mike Jorden of Spokane, Wash.

Huskies Have Lot To Learn

SEATTLE (AP)—The University of Washington Huskies switched from slow motion to full speed Monday on the football practice field.

After several sessions of running plays slowly to gain precision, Coach Jim Owens started his players going through their paces full tilt.

Nobody got hurt, and Owens said he was generally pleased. But he added: "This squad has a lot to learn."

U. S. BOXER LOSES

CARDIFF, Wales (UPI) — Howard Winstone of Wales, featherweight champion of the British Isles, easily outpointed Gene Fosmire of Rockaway, N.J., Monday night in a 10-round bout. Winstone weighed 125¼ pounds to Fosmire's 126½.

Near Empty Fuel Tank Costs Driver

DARLINGTON, S.C. (UPI)—Newcomer Nelson Stacy's embryo fan club was convinced today he won the 12th Southern 500 mile stock car race because his Ford was the fastest car while Fireball Roberts' fans were just as sure a near empty fuel tank cost their man's car the victory.

Stacy, a rookie on the national stock car racing circuit at 39 but a grandfather of five years and a veteran of 12 years on the mid-western stock car circuit, averaged a record 117.602 miles per hour in Monday's Labor Day classic before a packed Darlington Raceway crowd of 85,000.

The World War II tank soldier and former cab driver from Hamilton, Ohio, passed Marvin Panch of Daytona Beach, Fla., driving relief for Roberts, with six laps to go in the 364-lap grind to take the checkered flag.

Panch, when asked how Stacy slipped by the Roberts Pontiac, explained he was so low on fuel all his gasoline ran to one end of the tank each time he hit the high banked turns of the mile and three-eighths asphalt track. This, he said, caused the car to lose acceleration and the Pontiac didn't have the pep it needed to duel head-to-head with Stacy.

Stacy crossed the finish line 3½ seconds ahead of the Roberts Pontiac, which ran out of fuel half a lap after crossing the finish line.

Attendance Figures Fall

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite the increase from 16 to 18 teams, the major leagues are likely to fall almost one million short of their 1960 baseball attendance this season.

Through Sunday's games, total big league attendance for 1961 was 16,678,233, a drop of five per cent from the comparable number of dates last year. Should this same ratio continue in the remaining four weeks of the campaign, the majors would finish about [illegible] million under its final 1960 total of 19,911,489.

The National League, which set an attendance record with 10,684,963 paid customers last season, has played before 7,701,625 this year for a decrease of 18.8 per cent so far. The American League shows an increase of 800,000. But this figure includes 1,684,000, the combined aggregate for the two new franchises, Minnesota (1,126,000) and Los Angeles (558,000).

The only teams ahead of their 1960 attendances are the Cincinnati Reds (325,000), Detroit Tigers (326,000) and New York Yankees (61,000).

Hawaii Boss Admits Loss

HONOLULU (AP) — The owner of the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League says he will contribute to travel expenses of some teams which visit Hawaii.

Last week, owner Nick Morgan Jr. said he would not pay any such expenses after this season. But he backtracked Monday. He said:

"I have had a very substantial loss, and I do not intend to pay transportation for teams who made a profit nor for those owned by major league clubs.

"It adds up to helping where help is needed but certainly not paying bills for clubs able to show black ink."
