West Coast Teams Run Up Rugged Weekend Schedule

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stanford's Indians didn't win a football game in 1960, yet Monday they were the only undefeated major collegiate team on the West Coast after two games in 1961.

All the others have been beaten at least once, and the undefeated label may fall from Stanford Saturday when the Tribe goes against the Spartans of Michigan State at East Lansing.

The Indians pulled the shocker of last Saturday by whipping two-touchdown favored Oregon State 34-0. Outplayed in a 0-0 first half, the Stanford club bounced back for two touchdowns in the third period and three in the fourth. A week before, a fourth quarter touchdown provided a 9-7 victory over Tulane.

So, as the team returned by plane from Corvallis, the student crowd greeting at the airport chanted, "On to the Rose Bowl."

UCLA's Bruins, tabbed as the best on the Coast, fell hard before Michigan's Wolverines at Ann Arbor 29-6. Washington, defeated by Purdue in the opener, squared 1961 accounts with the Big Ten with a 20-7 triumph over Illinois.

In the other games, sprinkled liberally with upsets, Utah beat Oregon 14-6, Idaho upended San Jose State 27-18, Utah State spanked Washington State 34-14, and Iowa, the No. 1 team, walloped California 28-7. Southern California, on Friday night, downed Southern Methodist 21-16.

Michigan State, favored to knock Stanford out of the undefeated ranks this week, blanked Wisconsin 20-0 in their Big Ten engagement.

Most Coast teams draw rugged assignments again. The rivalry with the Big Ten also includes UCLA at Ohio State, Iowa at Southern California and Oregon at Minnesota. California plays at Missouri, Pittsburgh at Washington, Washington State at Texas, Idaho at Oregon State and Colorado State at San Jose State.

Washington's Rose Bowl champions became the first Coast team to turn in a victory this year over a Big Ten outfit.

Senior quarterback Kermit Jorgensen directed a pair of touchdown drives of 54 and 72 yards, scoring both times on one-yard runs. Then speedster Charlie Mitchell sewed things up with a 66-yard scoring run in the final period.

Linfield Retains Pre-Season Rate

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Linfield, Lewis and Clark, Eastern Oregon and Oregon Tech won weekend football games but Oregon's other small college teams were losers.

Linfield, pre-season favorite for the Northwest Conference title, defeated Oregon College, 13-7. Bill Parrish passed 20 yards to Val Barnes and 8 yards for Bernie Grant for the touchdowns against the Oregon Collegiate Conference team.

Lewis and Clark of the Northwest Conference shaded Southern Oregon, 28-26. Gary Grill ran 17 and 37 yards for the touchdowns that beat the Oregon Collegiate Conference entry.

Bill Hilger and Bill Showers, gaining 185 yards between them, led Eastern Oregon of the Oregon Collegiate Conference to a 19-13 victory over Whitman of the Northwest Conference.

Oregon Tech grounded its opening kickoff in the Grays Harbor end zone for a touchdown and went on to a 14-0 victory.

Humboldt State handed Willamette its first home defeat in five years, beating the Northwest Conference Bearcats, 27-13.

Chico State scored twice in the final period to edge Pacific of the Northwest Conference, 20-17.

At Reno the University of Nevada, pushing across three touchdowns in the last quarter, beat Portland State of the Oregon College Conference, 41-20.

College of Idaho, a Northwest Conference team, dropped a 13-7 decision to Westminister of Utah.

Fleck Wins Golf Title In Playoff

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Someday Jack Fleck may win a golf tournament within the regulation distance. But so far he's needed a playoff to gain every victory of his career.

Fleck ran his playoff record to 3-2 Sunday, out-stroking Bob Rosburg on the first sudden-death hole to capture the $25,000 Bakersfield Open.

Fleck, best-known for his shocking extra-round upset of Ben Hogan at the 1955 National Open, birdied the 73rd hole after he and Rosburg tied at 276. The victory was good for $3,500 and one year's royalties from a Bakersfield oil well.

Final scores of money-winners at the tournament:

Jack Fleck, $3,500 — 71-71-69-65—276
Bob Rosburg, $2,300 — 69-66-71-70—276
Jim Ferree, $1,800 — 71-70-69-67—277
Gay Brewer, $1,500 — 70-72-71-65—278
Eric Monti, $1,200 — 71-73-67-68—279
George Bayer, $1,200 — 70-66-74-69—279
Jon Gustin, $1,200 — 64-71-67-74—279
Bob Harrison, $1,000 — 71-73-7-69—280
Marty Furgol, $925 — 69-72-70-70—281
Jerry Barber, $925 — 70-70-71-70—281

Paret Sets Europe Tour

NEW YORK (AP) — Welter-champion Benny (Kid) Paret is looking toward Europe and a series of non-title bouts today while Emile Griffith, the dethroned champ, is screaming for a rematch.

Asked if he would give Griffith another chance, Paret's manager, Manuel Alfaro, replied emphatically:

"No place, no time, no how."

If Griffith had won, as the 4-1 odds in his favor had indicated, he was to have risked the title Dec. 9 against Argentina's Jorge Fernandez in Las Vegas.

The referee, Al Berl, was the only official to vote for Griffith. His ballot was 8-6-1. Judge Artie Aidala saw it 9-6 and judge Tony Castellano 8-6-1, both for Paret.

Griffith had knocked out Paret in the 12th round April 1 at Miami Beach in what had been an even fight for 11 rounds.

Celtics Even Cage Battle

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Boston Celtics evened their record with Los Angeles Sunday night by defeating the Lakers, 120-114, in a National Basketball Association exhibition contest at the University of San Francisco gymnasium.

The Lakers defeated the NBA defending champions, 111-106, in the opening game of their exhibition tour Saturday night. The two teams meet again tonight in San Luis Obispo.

Hudson Cup Event Tie; Ace Scored

SEATTLE (AP)—Jim Mallory, former University of Washington basketball player, scored the first hole in one in the history of the Hudson Cup Golf Matches Sunday as the amateurs tied with the professionals.

The Spokane amateur used an 8-iron to score the ace on the second hole of the morning round. He lost his match 4 and 3 to Boots Porterfield, a Grants Pass, Ore., professional.

The pros were ahead 4-1 after Saturday's Scots foursome, but the amateurs won six of Sunday's 10 singles matches and tied one. This made it 7½-all for the two days.

It was the second tie in the 13-year history of the event. The amateurs have won twice.

Gene Counter of Glen Acres, Wash., had seven birdies and an eagle Sunday. He finished five under par in defeating amateur Dick Price of Longview 5 and 4.

Another winning pro Sunday was Tom Everham of Grays Harbor, who defeated Dick Estey of Portland 7 and 6.

Price and Bruce Cudd of Portland saved the amateurs from a shutout on Saturday, scoring a 1-up victory over Everham and Bunny Mason of Portland.

Porterfield teamed with Chuck Congdon of Tacoma in defeating Jack Westland of Everett and Harry Givan of Seattle 4 and 3 in the only Scots foursome match that didn't go the full 36 holes.

Big Ten In Favor Of Bowl

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten wants another Rose Bowl football contract and voted Sunday in favor of negotiating with the Athletic Association of Western Universities.

Minnesota, defeated 17-7 by Washington last New Year's Day, cast the deciding ballot for a 6-4 majority in favor of a tie-up with the Big Five of the West Coast.

The measure will now be reviewed by each individual school and a final vote, considered to be a formality, will be taken at the Big Ten winter meetings in Chicago Dec. 7-9.

The Big Ten and the defunct Pacific Coast Conference had an agreement which lasted 14 years. That arrangement expired with the 1960 game after the Big Ten voted 5-5 in the spring of 1960 on the question of resuming the contract.

The deadlock vote killed the issue but a loophole remained which permitted a Big Ten team to go to Pasadena on an individual basis if such a team were invited. Minnesota accepted such an invitation although it had voted against the Rose Bowl.

Twins Renew Mele Paper

MINNEAPOLIS-ST.PAUL (AP) —Minnesota manager Sam Mele, given a new one-year contract to manage the Twins, said he has some definite ideas which should help to strengthen the team next year.

While Mele was being named manager Sunday, the Twins were dropping an 8-3 decision to Detroit. They finished in seventh place.

"The team this year was definitely weak on some of the main fundamentals of the game," Mele said.

Mele cited poor bunting, bad throws from the outfield, indecision of the shortstop and second baseman as to who will cover second on steals and double plays, and general lack of infield knowledge as to where to play as definite drawbacks the team had in 1961.

U.S. Gains Davis Lead

NEW DELHI (AP) — The United States advanced to the interzone finals of the Davis Cup tennis competition today when Whitney Reed of Oakland, Calif., defeated Indian's 19-year-old Jaidip Mukerjea 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

The straight set victory gave Americans a 3-1 lead on the best-of-five matches and made the final match between Chuck McKinley of St. Louis and Ramanathan Krishnan a mere formality.

The triumph of the 29-year-old Reed, oldest member of the U.S. team, sent the Americans into the interzone finals against Italy, European zone champions, at Rome Oct. 13-15. The winner earns the right to challenge Australia for the coveted trophy in December.

Injury Fatal To Footballer

Dykes Fired By Indians

CLEVELAND (AP) — Jimmie Dykes, fired as manager of the Cleveland Indians, says the man who will be named to pilot the club next year faces "suicide."

Dykes, given his pink slip by general manager Gabe Paul Sunday, said the new manager's job will be "murder because there are too many lawyers on the club."

The Indians are expected to announce a new manager without delay. Mel McGaha, a Cleveland coach, has been rumored as the most likely choice.

Referring to the "lawyers" on the club, Dykes added: "They've got to get rid of some of them, but who's gonna take 'em? Besides, the team needs a big rebuilding job. They need a first baseman and a second baseman. And if they get rid of (Jim) Piersall they'll need a centerfielder."

Asked whether he had any regrets, Dykes said: "Well, I'm disappointed that we didn't finish higher. This is a better club than it's shown, but those lawyers really hurt." The Indians finished in fifth place in the American League.

Major League Attendance Shows Decline

By United Press International

Major league baseball attendance fell 5.1 per cent this year despite the excitement of Roger Maris' assault on Babe Ruth's home run record and a close National League pennant race.

Total attendance for the two leagues was 18,894,518—a drop of 1,016,971. The National League fell 18.2 per cent from 10,684,963 in 1960 to 8,731,502 this year while the expanded American League totaled "only" 10,163,016 this season compared with the eight-club total of 9,226,526 in 1960.

The National League attendance was the lowest for the circuit since 1956.

The pennant-winning Cincinnati Reds were the only team in the NL to show a increase, with a rise of 454,117 to 1,117,603. The New York Yankees and the Detroit Tigers were the only AL teams to show an increase—the Yankees having their largest attendance total since 1950 and the Tigers their best since 1951.

Batting — Roger Maris Yankees, hit his 61st homer in fourth inning for highest total in major league history and a 1-0 victory for New York over Boston.

Pitching—Joe Gibbon, Pirates, scattered seven hits to beat the pennant-winning Cincinnati Reds 3-1.

Indians Select McGaha

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians today replaced major league baseball's oldest manager with its youngest, naming 35-year-old Coach Mel McGaha to succeed Jimmie Dykes, who will be 65 next month. McGaha's contract was for one year.

McGaha, brought here by former General Manager Frank Lane as first base coach for the 1961 campaign, never played in the major leagues. The University of Arkansas graduate spent 11 seasons in the minors, playing several positions and mostly in the Texas League for Shreveport and Houston.

As a manager for three minor league seasons, McGaha had good success, bringing Mobile to two runnerup finishes and leading Toronto to the 1960 International League pennant.

McGaha's selection was no surprise. It had been expected several weeks. General Manager Gabe Paul gave Dykes his pink slip just before the Indians' finale in Los Angeles Sunday.

Cleveland has had a poor year in both victories and attendance. The won-lost record of 1961 is the worst in 15 years, and attendance fell off by 225,000 from 1960 to 725,000.

Dykes said Sunday that the man who will pilot the Indians next year faces "suicide." He explained the job will be "murder because there are too many lawyers on the club."
