Udall Visits Dunes Seashore

PORTLAND (UPI) — Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall and Sen. Maurine Neuberger flew to Southwest Oregon today to visit the site of the proposed Oregon Dunes National Seashore Park.

The secretary arrived last night from Washington, saying he was "quite optimistic" about ultimate creation of the park.

"We're on the verge of legislation," he told reporters, but added that some intricate details had yet to be worked out.

Special attention during the tour was to be paid to proposed boundaries of the area in Lane and Douglas counties between Florence and Reedsport.
