

ASKS EWING TO RECALL DERRICK

"You Like Him—Take Him," Says Judge McCredie to League President.

PORTLAND BEATEN AGAIN

With Aid of Two Bad Base Decisions by Derrick, Los Angeles Downs the Home Team, 3 to 0—Fine Work Done by Kinsella.

PORTLAND, May 24.—J. Cal Ewing, President Pacific Coast League, San Francisco, Cal.; We have had enough of umpire Derrick. We like him—take him. W. W. McCredie.

That is the message that Judge W. W. McCredie, vice-president of the Pacific Coast League sent to President Ewing after yesterday afternoon's game. Judge McCredie is one of the most patient of men, but the exhibition of umpiring that Derrick gave during the 3-to-0 Los Angeles victory, would have made him as mad as a hatter, and it is no wonder that Judge McCredie at last decided to wire President Ewing to call Derrick off.

In the days since Portland joined the Pacific Coast League, its officials have furnished some very raw material as umpires, but the limit has been reached in this fellow Derrick. As a matter of fact, Derrick is one of the most patient of men, but the exhibition of umpiring that Derrick gave during the 3-to-0 Los Angeles victory, would have made him as mad as a hatter, and it is no wonder that Judge McCredie at last decided to wire President Ewing to call Derrick off.

FAST TIME, LOW HURDLES

Oakland 0; San Francisco 1. SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—The home team and Oakland played an unusual game today. For 11 innings not a single run was made by either side. At the end of the 11th inning Hendley, who had been pitching remarkable ball, grew tired and was relieved by Jones. The new pitcher was rapped for a couple of hits, but there was no scoring for Oakland. In the last of the 12th inning a brace of hits against Hogan gave the locals the winning run. Hogan's showing was little short of wonderful. The score: R. H. E. San Francisco 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 6 0 Oakland 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 8 1 Batteries—Hogan and Hackett; Henley, Jones and Street. Snapshots of Ball Game Incidents

THEY say that marriage is an eye-opener. Umpire Derrick has not shown any evidence of such benefit since he made a call on a minister.

The error that was marked up against Kinsella yesterday, was the first charged against him this season. Had Derrick been looking, Kinsella's record would still be clear of smudges.

A bound volume containing the hisses of the fair fans, the cuss words and the rich-ripe and juicy comments of the fans, would make nice reading for the umpire's posterity, provided he ever has any.

Donahue made a low leg to Casey in the sixth, when Portland went to pieces. It gave Braabear a chance to tally. Mott, Carson and Schimpff were also charged with errors in the same inning.

Fans are a heartless lot. Carlisle was hit on the kneecap by Kinsella and he dropped as though he had been shot. He also hurt it again when Donahue and
