YESTERDAY'S RESULTS. Portland 7-0. Oakland, 5-1. San Francisco, 3-2. Los Angeles, Standing of the Clubs, Oakland, 5-1.

One up and one down was the final of the bargain-counter Decoration-day dou-ble-header. If Portland had not won the first game, after Umpire Derrick tried his best to hand it to the visitors, it is cer tain that he would have been punished by the fans, who were in an angry mood. Califf not only had to conquer Oakland, but he, with the rest of the McCredieites, had to defeat the Oslerized Derrick as The ancient umpire started trouble for himself when he called a strike on Donahue in the fifth inning, when Catch-er Bilss had to jump three feet one side of the plate to catch the ball. Donahue told the umpire in plain baseball lan-guage what the fans thought and couldn't say because there were ladies present. Donahue was banished for this, and not satisfied, Derrick took occasion to talk back to the grandstand. As luck would have it, the home talent shoved the winning run over in the eighth, or Derrick would have bad a Decoration day that he would have remembered.

Portland Takes First Game.

Portland won the first game because Truck Eagan was polite enough to drop Lovey Lovett's pop fly. It was a scratch, and so was the one that Oakland grabbed. The Commuters have Catcher Moore's bum heave into centerfield to thank. Derrick could not help them, because the sun had melted his thinking machinery and then he was very passive.

Oakland made one and Portland made three in the second. Four singles were garnered off Bill Reidy by Bassey, Carson. Lovett and Casey. In the third round Califf let down a little, and after setting rid of Reldy. Smith and Van Haltren biffed safe. Heltmuller wiffed. the Oregon City benedict passed an. This put three up and two down, and things were looking rosy until Bliss hit for three stations. He scored on Haley's bingle, making four. This was all they could deposit, for by good pitching and as pretty and sharp fielding as could be seen in any game, Manager Mac's crew headed off trouble on several Second Goes to Oakland.

The second game was a pitchers' battle from the opening to the tragic end.
Groom and Cates fired them down the alley and the broiling sun loosened up their pitching machinery in grand style.
The game drilled along for eight innings
without a score, but all through the locals were touching up Cates. In the pinth were touching up Cates. In the ninth chapter, with two down, Groom walked Bliss. He drew Moore's fire while steal-ing second, and the ball sailed over Shinn's head into the outfield giving Blies time to complete the circuit. The ball that Moore threw to second looked as if Shinn should have knocked it down, but he did not. Two were down and it was a bit of criminal foolishness on the part of Moore to try and catch Bliss. The next man up flew out to Bassey. Casey singled in the last half, but two were in the morgue, and he was forced at second by Donahue and the agony was over.

Casey played a great game at second. In the fourth he saved slaughter by plucking a hot line drive off Heitmuller's bat. The scores: PORTLAND.

APOSTLES WIN ANOTHER GAME

Defeat Trunks 12 to 7 on Diamond at St. Johns.

The Apostles, Charlie Moore's bunch of ball tossers, won another game yes-terday, when they beat the Trunks, 12 to 7. on the St. Johns grounds. Higgins, the tall boy with the curiy hair, who decorated the mound for the valias-makers, was pounded all over the lot. He was wild throughout the game, and was guilty of two wild throws. Porterfield, known in St. Johns as the "Boilermaker," made one of the most sensational catches ever witnessed on sensational catches ever witnessed on the diamond there. Higgins knocked a fly to the right bleachers, and the Bollermaker took after it. There is a light fence between the bleachers and the diamond, and to get the ball Por-terfield was forced to jump over this obstruction. He caught the ball and was warmly applauded.
At the end of the eighth inning

Clarke Moore was substituted for Char-lie Moore, in the box. The small bey did not fare as well as his big brother, and two runs were made by the Trunks while the lad was on the mound. The batteries were: St. Johns. Char-lie Moore. Clarke Moore and Otto Moore; Trunks, Higgins and Emrick;

OREGON BOYS WIN TRI-STATE MEET

Track Team Scores a Great Victory Over Idaho and Washington.

WORLD RECORD IS REACHED

McKinney Puts Out 16-Pound Shot 45 Feet-New Mark in Hammer Throw-Reid Springs Surprise in the Quarter.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 30 .- (Special.)-Oregon won an easy victory over Wash-ington and Idaho in the big intercol-legiate field meet on Denny Field this afternoon. The record-breaking aggregation from Eugene took 78 points, while Washington scored only 29 and Idaho 20. Teday's victory gives the University of Oregon the undisputed championship of the Northwest for the season of 1907. The feature of the meet was the splendid work of McKinney, of Oregon, who raised his own Pacific Coast record for the shot put from 45 feet 11 1-2 inches to 46 feet, thereby tying the world's inter-collegiate record, held by Beck of Yale. McKinney made several puts beyond the 65-foot mark, and in a practice trial he made 66 feet, 5 1-2 inches. Zacharias of Oregon raised his Pacific Northwest record for the hammer throw from 151 feet, 8 inches to 155 1-10 feet.
