OREGON IS THE BEST

Thomas McCusker Returns From the East.

BACK TO GOD'S COUNTRY

Finda Capital Turning to Portland for Investment—Sentiment Is Strong for Roosevelt, Who Must Accept Re-election.

"I am indeed glad to get back to 'God's country,'" said Thomas McCusker yesterday.

"When I arrived home and saw the beautiful roses blooming everywhere it gave me a lot of ecstasy.

"Now, you may not think so little a thing as a rose would influence immigration to Oregon and influence the investment of Eastern money here, but in the case, a woman who visited Portland, and who is a rose-lover, has induced her husband to make a change, and so soon as he can arrange his affairs in the East he will come here.

"I am glad to see that arrangements are being made for the coming year. This should have the encouragement of every one who is interested in the advancement of Portland.

"If the chronic kickers who have their abode in this city or state and who complain of the rain would make a trip East and see some real rain they would say, as I have on several occasions, that while there is a great deal of moisture, still our rain is not 'wet.' I do not believe I experienced a dozen nice days while I was away. It was either cold, raining, windy or hot, but the weather was more late and everybody you meet apologizes for the weather, saying it is unusual in many places in the Middle West, and they are just waiting and preparing to plant their corn. In Canada the trees are only just beginning to bud and some parts of the Eastern States are not much in advance of us here.

"While I met a great many people who are in a measure familiar with the great opportunities in Oregon, and particularly in Portland, still many of them have heard only of Seattle, which they have been informed is destined to outrank New York. I invariably told them that Seattle was a great city, that Angeles was a great city, and that San Francisco would again be a great city, but there was only one Portland, and that supplying them with the facts which they very generally believed what I said.

"I had frequent occasion to meet with those who have capital to invest, and these men were informed of the resources and opportunities to be found in Portland and Oregon. I found quite a number who were prepared to invest, and I was informed that they were making investigations that had found that values were from 25 to 33 per cent lower in Portland than in any other city on the Pacific Coast, and for that reason they had selected this city as the safest place in which to make an investment.

"The work Roosevelt has started here, town and while we are a little conservative, still it is much better than have exaggerated values. In Philadelphia I met some of the men who are here because of its conservatism, saying it was a second edition of Philadelphia. Coming from the source it did, I considered the remarks of these men.

"I was asked by the manager of a large realty company in New York if I could place half a million in Portland so that it would not him 10 per cent. I told him that the way of 10 per cent investments were past, but I thought I might be able to get him 8 per cent. He asked me to look up something and I did in point of attendance, by a number of men in different parts of the country to advise them of good investments here, some of the inquirers representing large amounts of money, and some of them coming to the Pacific Coast."

"Were you on a business or a pleasure trip?" was asked.

"Strictly business, in fact I did not take enough time to visit the Jamestown Exposition which is in an uncompleted state and I do not believe will be finished before the time for the exposition to close."

"What is the sentiment in the East regarding another term for Roosevelt?"

"I met people from all parts of the country and found sentiment largely in favor of President Roosevelt and particularly in this sentiment voice among the rank and file, the common people. I believe that notwithstanding Roosevelt was honest in his statement when he said he would not accept the nomination, I believe conditions have arisen that he did not know of when he made the statement and which will so change the situation that he will accept."

"The work Roosevelt has started cannot be finished during his term and there is no other man now in the public eye who can or will carry to a conclusion the work he has initiated. It is absolutely necessary for the entire country that he be re-elected for another term. I believe that Bryan also sees that this is inevitable and for that reason is giving voice to the opinion that Roosevelt should not accept another term, and this in the face of the fact that he indorses Roosevelt with the Democrats and it is not unlikely that some of the Southern states will declare for Roosevelt."

"I believe that in accordance with Roosevelt and at the present time is a candidate. Hughes is a large possibility, Foraker is a joke, and Fairbanks is the only one who takes his candidacy seriously. Uncle Joe Cannon is a real live candidate, but is as near the throne
