Take a look at the South hand only. You open with one spade and your partner responds one no-trump. What do you rebid?

In the world championship team trials five South players chose to rebid three spades and wound up in game. Four South players rebid two spades only and played the hand at that contract.

Every declarer made at least 10 tricks. When a heart was opened against four spades declarer would win the heart, cash the ace and king of diamonds, lead a club and rise with dummy's ace. When he would discard his small heart on the queen of diamonds, lead a spade and finesse the jack. The queen of spades would make five odd.

Against a diamond opening each declarer cashed the ace and king and laid down the king of spades. Later, South discarded his losing heart on the queen of diamonds and made only four odd.

At one table West opened the club finesse. East won with the king and returned the suit. South led a spade and his jack lost to West's ace. A third club was ruffed by East's queen of trumps and a heart was returned.

At this point it would seem that South was doomed to defeat but such was not the case. East had played the queen and eight of spades. South was able to cash his ace and king of diamonds and enter dummy with the seven of trumps for the essential heart discard.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., is the latest victim of official Washington's most fashionable ailment—"executive flu."

Yarborough was unable to go to his office or attend Monday's Senate session because of a bad cold. His office said he became ill during the weekend.
