Coca Cola, Topper's Grab Tourney Leads

Coca Cola and Topper's Steak House replaced early tournament leaders in the A and B divisions of the Women's Bowling Tournament at Lucky Lanes, but Garrison's in the C Division race remained in first place.

Coca Cola replaced Tule Lanes in the A Division competition, rolling a substantial 2,805 pins. Also pushing the early leader out of the picture were Lucca Lounge, in second place with 2,734 pins, and Billy Golden TV, in third place with 2,725 pins.

Tule Lanes had earned first night honors with 2,693 pins, not enough to hold out against the high-riding second night contestants.

Topper's Steak House rolled enough points up to secure first place from the Darts, but their position is none too secure with the tournament continuing tonight at Lucky Lanes.

Topper's rolled 2,761 pins for top honors. Opal Barrett of Topper's turned in the finest performance of any bowler during the second day activities, as she rolled a 563 high series and a 226 high game. Joanne Azevedo outpointed her by one pin for high series honors however.

The Darts with 2,714 pins remained in second place, and Mac Tool Sales remained in third place with 2,702 pins.

No change was recorded in the C Division competition, with Garrison's holding onto the lead with 2,634 pins. Local Loan held second place with 2,609 and Moulding Craft, Inc. remained in third spot with 2,608.

Action continues through tonight at Lucky Lanes, then shifts to Holiday Bowl for singles, doubles and all-events action. Tourney action will be completed Sunday.

Unknowns Lead Bob Hope Golf Tourney

By JAMES C. ANDERSON
UPI Sports Writer

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) —A pair of unknowns named Stan Thirsk and Kermit Zarley led the pack today in the chase for $100,000 in prizes in the Bob Hope Desert Classic but some dangerous golfing wolves were hot on their trail.

So far this year, Thirsk, a 36-year-old club professional from Kansas City, Kan., has won exactly $0.00 on the tour. Zarley, a Yakima, Wash., tourist, made only $1,665.01 in four starts this year.

But not even such golfing greats as Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper or Tony Lema could argue with their scores after 36 holes of the 90-hole marathon.

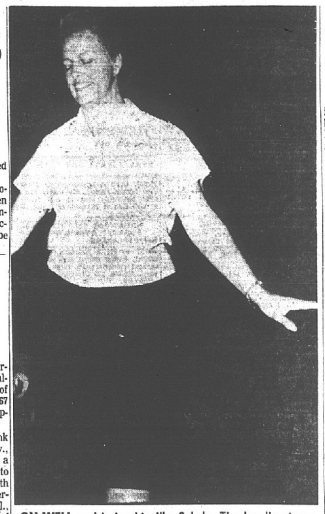
The pair — whose names sound like a vaudeville team — stood at 10-under par 134. Lema, rebounding after a three-stroke penalty on opening day, was five strokes back with 72-67—139. Palmer and Casper were six behind with identical rounds of 70-70—140 and Nicklaus, golf's leading money winner last year, was eight back with 71-71—142.

Zarley had a 68 [illegible]ng day at Bermuda Dunes and stormed in with a six-under-par 66 at La Quinta Thursday. Thirsk showed identical 67s at Indian Wells and the Dunes courses.

At 135 were Rod Funseth of Spokane, Wash., who highlighted a round of 67 at Bermuda with an eagle and the always dangerous Don January of Dallas who turned in a fine 67 at the Dunes to go with his opening 68.

First round leader Frank Beard of Louisville, Ky., matched his opening 66 with a 71 Thursday at La Quinta to head the 137 bracket. In with the same totals were Jerry Steelsmith of Glendale, Cal., with 67-70 and Randy Glover of Florence, S. C., 72-65.

Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez, back on his game after being fitted for glasses; big Mike Souchak and Tommy Aaron each were six under par at 138.



OH WELL — Marion Linville, Schulze Tire bowling team, arms extended in an "oh, well" expression, just missed picking up a spare in the Woman's Bowling Tournament at Lucky Lanes. More than 80 teams from the Klamath area participated in the team event. Action changes tomorrow to Holiday Bowl for singles, doubles and all-events activity.

Oretech Owlings In Meet

The Oregon Tech Owlings, junior varsity wrestling squad, host the University of Oregon Freshman wrestling team at OTI gymnasium here tonight at 7 o'clock.

The Rook contest sets the stage for a two-day wrestling card at OTI, Saturday's contests featuring Lewis and Clark College.

The Owlings posted a 21-11 decision over the Oregon freshmen in an earlier meeting, and the prospects for a rugged revenge contest appears highly probable.

West Coast Basketball Action Resumes Tonight

By United Press International

UCLA and University of San Francisco, who suffered recent defeats on the road, are back home tonight and should be tough to take in conference battles.

The nationally second-ranked Bruins host improving Washington State at the Los Angeles Sports Arena. UCLA is 4-0 in conference play and already has a two-game lead on the rest of the Pacific Eight.

University of San Francisco, ninth ranked nationally, is 3-0 in the West Coast Athletic Conference and battles University of Pacific, which is also 3-0.

Other Pacific Eight tussles pit Washington and Southern California in the other half of a Los Angeles twin bill, and send Stanford against Oregon and California against Oregon State.

Saturday night it's Washington State-Southern California and Washington-UCLA at Los Angeles; Stanford at Oregon State and California at Oregon.

In other West Coast Athletic conference activity tonight, St. Mary's and Santa Clara match 2-1 records, Santa Barbara is at Pepperdine, and San Jose State at Loyola.

Saturday night, USF faces St. Mary's at Richmond, Calif., San Jose State is at Pepperdine, Santa Barbara at Loyola, and Pacific at Santa Barbara.

If the Bruins and Dons gain a lock on their respective crowns, they qualify for the post-season NCAA tournament that produces the national champion.

But there are four other spots in the Western division of that tournament and some of the teams with dreams of winning a berth also are getting tested. Gonzaga, for instance, ran its record to 13-5 with an 83-69 over Eastern Washington Thursday night. Gary Lechman scored 20 to lead the Zags.

Seattle, which has a 13-6 record, hosts Idaho State tonight and Portland, which boasts an 11-6 mark, meets Wheaton Saturday night at Chicago.

Touring San Francisco State is at Akron tonight.

Negotiating Settlement

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) —Promoter Dave Dixon confirmed Thursday night he was negotiating with the American Football League for a settlement of losses caused by removal of the AFL All-Star game from New Orleans to Houston last month.

The AFL cancelled the contest and changed the site after 20 Negro players walked out because of racial discrimination.

American League Opens Early

BOSTON (UPI) — The American League will open its 1965 baseball schedule one day earlier than usual although Washington will get underway a day later than usual, it was announced by league headquarters today.

Generally, Washington launches its season at home one day prior to the other clubs but this year eight of the 10 AL entries, including the Senators, will begin on Monday, April 12.

On that date, Boston will be at Washington, New York at Minnesota, Detroit at Kansas City in a night game and Cleveland at Los Angeles in another night contest. Baltimore starts its home season against Chicago on April 13.

The secondary openers are scattered from April 15 to April 21.

Chicago begins its home schedule against Washington on April 15 and Boston opens at home on April 17 against Baltimore. On April 21, Minnesota will be at New York, Los Angeles at Cleveland and Kansas City at Detroit.

A total of 411 night games have been scheduled. This total does not include 19 other games which are called by a variety of names and which will start either at 6 p.m. or 7 p.m. local time.

Eagles Meet Yuba

The COS Eagles will meet Yuba College at 8 p.m. this Saturday night at the COS gymnasium in a Golden Valley Conference game. A preliminary game, matching the COS Bookstore team and McCloud High School, will start at 6 p.m.

The Eagles are currently in third place in the GVC with a 3-2 record. Yuba is in a three-way tie for fourth at 1-3. The Eagles' losses have come at the hands of league-leading Marin (5-0) and second-place Santa Rosa (4-1).

The Eagles will play the remainder of the season without the services of George Corder, who completed his eligibility last weekend. Corder, with 241 points, has been the team's leading scorer thus far, although he has had plenty of competition from Bob Corson, with 240, Gene Landoe, 236, and Cecil Dillard, 217.

With Corder gone, the probable starting line-up for Saturday night's game will consist of Corson, Dillard, Landoe, Fulton Smith, and Bill Buehl. John Dixon is also expected to see a good deal of action.

Wrestlers Meet In Grants Pass

Klamath Union High School Pelican wrestlers journey to Grants Pass for a return engagement with the strong Cavemen tonight.

Grants Pass has bested the local grappling club in two previous meets, but the Pels are hopeful of making an improved showing in tonight's action.

On Saturday, the Pelicans will host A-2 Lakeview at Pelican Court. In this contest, Klamath is expected to use sophomores extensively.

Baseball Meeting Slated

With spring peeking around the corner, members of the reorganized Northern California Baseball League, semi-pro clubs from Southern Oregon and Northern California have slated their first organizational meeting of the year at Weed Sunday.

Klamath Falls will be represented in this league. Bruce Houck, Klamath restaurateur, will sponsor the club and serve as general manager.

Houck made several announcements this week in advance of the Weed meeting. They include:

Adoption of a new name for the team, Klamath Cubs; a new coaching staff and a board of directors to guide the club during the coming year.

Named to the club operation are Joe Caraher, league representative and member of the board; John Houck, field manager; Jim Cavanaugh and Henry "Hank" Schortgen, board members, and Don McKinnon, member of the board and coach.

These six representatives convene with league president Andrew "Hi" Hatfield in Weed Sunday to take part in the preliminary meeting at Weed City Hall. Also attending will be Jim Hatfield, league secretary-treasurer, Klamath Falls.

Houck purchased the franchise previously held by Medo-Bel Dairy.

Uniforms for the Klamath nine were secured by Houck through the Chicago Cubs, National League organization. Indications at present are that at least one exhibition contest will be slated in Klamath Falls this summer with a Chicago Cub farm team. No details on this are available.

Klamath Cubs will represent the Basin in a circuit comprised of Weed, Dunsmuir, Yreka, Medford, Redding, Red Bluff and Scotts Valley. The exact number of clubs will be determined at the Sunday meeting, provided teams have submitted their charters to the league's governing body.

No date has been set for Cub workouts but notice on opening practice sessions will be published well in advance of that date. Candidates should contact the management between now and the time workouts begin.
