Suit Questions Coupon Policy

SALEM (UPI)—A suit to ban the sale of certain types of coupon- bearing life insurance policies is being tried in Marion County Circuit Court.

Oregon Insurance Commissioner Walter Korlann contends that life insurance policies requiring the clipping of coupons in certain instances mislead the public about the benefits provided and the costs for them.

In asking questions the possible ban of such policies, but Korlann contends he has the right to prohibit sales under regulatory power granted him by law.

He claims state regulations provide that coupons must not be detachable, and that the premium for the dividend coupon be listed separately.

Watching the suit is ICOA Life Insurance Co., head quartered here. The firm sells a policy bearing the detachable dividend coupons.

I HAVE A BUYER

For a good 3 bedroom in Hot Springs, in fact, I have 3 customers, ready and waiting. One needs: A good 3 bedroom home for not over $12,000 big enough to hold their family of 5.

One needs: A fine, large, fairly new home in the $20,000 class. They have 5 children, so they need room.

One needs: A quality home, up to $30,000. And this is a cash deal. So give me a call.
