Modell Opposes Agreement

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer

PALM DESERT, Calif. (UPI) —The National and American Football Leagues, veterans of a five-year "war," will continue to go their separate ways again in 1965.

Art Modell, president of the NFL champion Cleveland Browns, said today that he would oppose every effort by anyone to get the leagues together in a common draft.

Lou Spadia, head man of the San Francisco Forty-Niners, said no one had even contacted him about the possibility of any kind of a pact.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle admitted that there is "no law in our constitution which would prohibit an exhibition game with the AFL." But he doesn't anticipate any such contest.

There was a report out of the mid-winter meetings Wednesday that 12 out of 14 owners favored some sort of a truce with the AFL.

"That's a ridiculous statement," said Spadia. "Nobody even contacted me on the subject."

Jack Mara of the New York Giants said he was opposed to any such get-together.

"I haven't talked to anyone who wants to come into a pact with the AFL," said Modell. "We don't need their help. There is no sentiment for any alignment."

Elroy Hirsch, assistant to the president of the Los Angeles Rams, agreed.

"There are some interesting statistics on what would happen if we went for a common draft," said Hirsch. "One of them is the fact that if we did, the AFL would wind up with 32 of the top choices that we get now."

Wednesday they went into such items as which club should wear white jerseys at home (the home club has the option), closed circuit TV, and game crowd control.

Beavers, Ducks Face Stiff Tests In Weekend California Outings

Beavers Hit Bruins First

Oregon State's surprising basketeers, winners of 12 out of 20 games this season, face another pair of stiff battles this weekend at Los Angeles against UCLA and Southern California.

Coach Paul Valenti's forces take on the nationally-ranked Bruins Friday night, then tackle the fast-improving Trojans in a Saturday encounter.

Actually, Oregon State has fared far better than most of its followers predicted when the season started. The Beavers won the Far West Classic, and have beaten such clubs as Stanford twice, USC, Tennessee, Army, Northwestern, Oregon, California and Washington.

Getting ready to play the two Los Angeles teams probably requires more concentration than for any other opponents, but both are well-balanced in the scoring department. UCLA quite normally has four or even five players score in the double figures, whereas Capt. Jim Barnes has had to carry the OSU pointmaking load.

Valenti probably will start the same lineup he used in the Bay Area last weekend, providing forward Terry Dreiseword has recovered from a bruised knee he suffered in the California game. Dreiseword has continued to show improvement, and gives Oregon State some much-needed strength on the backboards.

Other Beaver starters likely will be Jarvis, Ed Fredenburg, Charlie White and Ray Carlile. The latter turned in a great defensive job against Stanford's Kent Hinckley, stopping the latter without a field goal. Carlile is a junior college transfer from American River (Calif.) JC.

RECALL VET

BOSTON (UPI)—The Boston Bruins have recalled veteran wing Ab McDonald from the Providence Reds of the American Hockey League.

To make room for McDonald, the Bruins returned center Jean-not Gilbert to Providence.

Big Battle Shapes Up In Medford On Friday

The fourth and fifth ranked scorers in Southern Oregon Prep Conference circles meet head-on this weekend with the first and third ranked scorers, in a tussel between the nice-beaten Medford Black Tornado and second ranked Klamath Pelicans at Medford.

Shaping up as one of the finest basketball battles this season, the Pelicans put their No. 2 position on the chopping block as they hope to add the Tornado to their list of conquests.

Bill Enyart, top ranked scorer in the conference, with an 18.5 overall performance record, along with Bruce Bertrand, Medford, with a 13.6 average, pull their talents against Klamath's Jim Parker, with 13.5 average and Terry Ash, with a 14.3 per game average.

The Pelicans return home following their Medford clash Friday, to meet the stubborn Crater Comets at Pelican Court on Saturday. Crater is fourth in the league with a 2-7 conference standing.

Ducks Open With Troy

Oregon's attempt to reverse a two-game losing trend faces the toughest possible test this weekend as the Webfoots battle USC and UCLA at Los Angeles in Pacific Athletic Conference basketball action.

USC, tied for second place in PAC standings with a 5-3 record, provides the opposition for the Ducks Friday, while league leading UCLA, rated second in the nation, is Oregon's Saturday opponent.

Coach Steve Belko's Webfoots split their series with the two Los Angeles schools when they met at Eugene, downing the Trojans 81-74 and dropping a 91-74 decision to the Bruins.

An ankle sprain and a leg injury could have considerable bearing on Webfoot victory hopes this weekend. Ace guard Jim Barnett, the team's leading scorer, was hobbled in action last week with the ankle sprain, while 6-10 junior center Gene Brockmeyer was forced to sit out last Saturday's loss to Stanford with a ligament tear in his lower left leg.

Brockmeyer is still listed as doubtful for this weekend by trainer Bob Officer, who reports the injury is extremely uncommon.

If the Webfoot center is unable to perform in Friday's struggle with USC, 6-6 junior John Franz will open at the pivot. Franz subbed for Brockmeyer against Stanford and tallied 12 points, while hitting six of ten field goal attempts.

Franz, incidentally, enjoyed his best rebounding effort of the season in the earlier encounter with UCLA, when fouls forced Brockmeyer to the sidelines, Franz came off the bench to grab 13 rebounds.

The rest of the Oregon starting lineup is unchanged with Barnett and 6-2 sophomore Nick Jones ready to start at guards and 6-4 senior Jerry Anderson and 6-6 junior Bill Jennings set to open at forwards.

Anderson and Jones rate as two of the top field goal shooters in PAC league play. The rugged Anderson boasts a .571 field goal average, compiled on 32 baskets in 56 attempts, while the classy Jones is hitting at a .518 clip with 43 buckets in 83 tries from the field.

Oregon heads into the weekend PAC activity with a 3-5 league record, which puts the Ducks just two games out of second place in the tight battle for that spot in league standings, as Pacific athletes have compiled a 9-11 overall record.

ON THE SLOPES

By ADOLPH FALLER

Skiing over the past weekend makes us wonder if the weekend wasn't 48 hours too early or too late. Mt. Shasta was unable to operate at full capacity because of high wind, Mt. Bachelor received more snow, Tomahawk had rain and Mt. Ashland fog. However, during the two days before or after the weekend weather has been beautiful and conditions excellent.

The long range forecast is for continued mild weather in our area with little storm activity expected for the next few days. This has caused the cancellation of the Fun Race, for skiers who are members of a ski club, at Tomahawk for this coming weekend. We are truly sorry since this promised to be a real success.

It is hard to believe, but nominations of officers and elections for next year are on the agenda at several clubs. Club members should attend the next few meetings to participate in these elections and to make sure each office is contested.

News in and around the sport. Rusty Robinson placed 20th in a slalom event at Mt. Hood last weekend indicating lack of practice is hurting his form this year. Doug Bucklew went looking for a Pacific training camp in the Snoqualmie Summit area and finally located someone who had heard about it. Must be part of Nordic skiing to get lost occasionally.

There will be a giant slalom event at Willamette Pass for high school racers on Feb. 27. We are looking for full recognition of interscholastic skiing soon. Helen Hunsaker reports that the Klamath Union Skiers will be holding their annual rummage sale Feb. 26 and 27 to raise money for this club's trip to Hoo Doo Ski Bowl during spring vacation. The rummage is of highest quality and the high schoolers will appreciate your support.

On our first trip to Mt. Ashland last weekend we gathered many impressions of this fast growing area. We were impressed by the friendly people operating the lifts and working on the ski patrol and the feeling of "growing up with the area," which was expressed by many people we talked to. We had a chance to talk to Jim Smith, a former coach and science teacher at Klamath Union, who is now teaching at Grants Pass. He is the club sponsor over there and has a club of 130 paid members. Not bad for a first year group. About the hill itself. We think that many skiers will enjoy it and find that long, steep pitches, which are available, will rapidly improve technique. We hope to visit the area often.

Finally Jerry Dodaro and Pete Knapp made a long trip the flanks of Pelican Butte and had a day of fun ski tour last Saturday. Congratulations fellows on your job.

Fishing Report

PORTLAND (UPI) — The weekly fishing report prepared by the State Game Commission:

Northwest: Main Nehalem in good shape for drift fishing; Wilson river has good color above slide area; Nestucca in good condition; Siletz and Alsea were clear at midweek but rain will muddy them quickly; steelheading fair to good below Willamette Falls.

Southwest: South coast streams only fair at present. Chetco started to clear; Rogue producing an occasional steelhead on eggs in lower river; Illinois producing fair to good; sturgeon now biting on lower Umpqua; Umpqua below Elkton slow for steelhead, while upper Umpqua is fair at Cleveland and the Forks.

DIAZ REPLACES

CHERRY HILL, N. J. (UPI) —Gil Diaz of New York has been named to replace Charlie Cotton in an exhibition nine-hole fight against middleweight champion Joey Giardello here on April 5.

The state athletic commission disapproved Cotton because he has not won a fight in five years. Giardello is donating his purse to institutions involved in rehabilitation of the mentally retarded.
