EAST SIDE LIBRARY .- All citizens inter ested in the establishment of a permanent branch library on the East Side will at-tend a public meeting tomorrow night in the Information Bureau on the corner of East Morrison and Third streets to billing. As the site has been donated building. As the site has been donated it is proposed to raise money by sub-scription with which to put up the library building. By some it is thought that a stone building should be erected if funds one he suited for such a structure H can be raised for such a structure. H. H. Prouty, member of the library com-mittee from the East Side Improvement Association, thinks that a first-class stone structure should be put up. He said that he would be willing to subscribe three times as much for a stone or brick structure as he would toward a frame

WATER INJURES FURNITURE.—The sewer at the corner of First and Yamhill streets, burst yesterday afternoon, and flooded the cellars of I. Gevurtz & Co. The water ran in until it became about a foot deep in the place, and a large constitute of mathematic was injured sons out in clothes which were in imita-tion of those worn by Mrs. Burnett's little lord. It was dramatized and Tommy Rus-sell, now a successful lawyer in Boston or New York, became the pet infant prodigy of the country because of his playing of the part. Since that time it has been an universal favorite with road and stock commanies wherever a child a foot deep in the place, and a mag-quantity of parlor furniture was injured. In the afternoon a fire engine pumped the water out. Mr. Gevurtz called a num-ber of his clerks to the store, and after a few hours hard labor, they succeeded in moving most of the injured furniture. He estimated that the damage done by the water will amount to $2000. OPEN-AIR FLAY WEDNESDAY.-By an error it was announced yesterday that the outdoor production of "As You Like It," by the Oregon branch of the As-sociation of Collegiate Alumnae would be given tomorrow night. This entertainment will be given Wednesday night, June 19, at Cedar Hill, Park avenue en-trance, for the benefit of the University of Oregon scholarship fund. Miss Frank Towslee is chairman of the committee under whose auspices the play will be produced

WILL LECTURE ON SCOTLAND .- Bishop Scadding will give a stereoption lecture on "Scotland, With Memories of Her Hapless Queen and Immortal Bards," at Trinity parish-house, Nineteenth and Everett streets, tonight at $ o'clock. The lecture will be for the benefit of the Mission Guild. The lantern slides were made from original negatives, the photographs having been taken by the bishop and others in Scotland.

ATTEMPT AT INCENDIALUSM.-Sergeant of Detectives Baty was sent by Captain Slover to No. 30 North Seventh atteet about 9 o'clock last night to investigate about 9 o chock that might to investigate a supposed attempt at incendiarism. Baty reported that some one and placed a bundle of paper under a door and had set fire to it. The occupants of the house discovered the flames in time to quench covers but a year and that experience chiefly in small parts. little speeches maturally and without a trace of imperiment "smartness," which usually mars the acting of precoclous stage children. In her scenes with the mother she made the audience cry and by her cute handling of the interviews with the Earl and the tenants she compelled the pleased admiration of every one in the audience who loved a youngster. The young actress accomplished the purpose of acting splendidly, which is a rare thing to do. The work of Ethel Jones, who played Dearest, 'must have convinced all who are fair-minded that the young woman is in the running for the highest degree of success in the profession which she has so wisely chosen. It was a large order for a girl whose stage experience covers but a year and that experience
