SCOTT IS INSANE AVER ALIENISTS

Experts Who Defended Loeb and Leopold To Make Desperate Defense

CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—(United News)—The same alienists who saved Richard Loeb and Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., from the gallows by showing that the pineal glands of the "thrill slayers" had calcified at too early an age, have got Russel T. Scott under the scientific eye, and may show that he is in no fit mental condition to be put through the ordeal of a hanging.

The death cell in the county jail in which Scott has been residing for several months, has been fitted out as a laboratory and Dr. Harold S. Hulbert, Dr. Orlando F. Scott and other experts are peering into his brain. They are making gland tests, measuring other reactions, and already have found that he is not the same individual who murdered Joseph Maurer, the youth who was working his way through college, as a drug clerk.

Early reports have it that Scott has fitted out a world all for himself, something similar to the dreamland of Dickie Loeb. However, he has exhibited more ambition in fixing his place in the dream world than Loeb, who cast himself in the role of a master criminal who made dubs out of the police.

Scott pictures himself as a Napoleon of finance, as a great actor and some times, when his food doesn't agree with him, he sees himself as the victim of circumstances.

The mental experts have until Monday to map out Scott's deluded head. On that day they will go before Judge David and attempt to convince a jury that he is insane and unfit to be carried to the gallows.

It was Judge David, who dramatically stopped the execution of Scott last Friday morning, just within a few hours of when it was to take place. It was the second time that Scott had been dramatically saved from death on the gallows.

LEVENS INDICTED FOR GUN LARCENY

fact. There are four different terms in law for larceny. These carry from six months on up to seven years' imprisonment, with heavy fines.

Vandenberg, one of the chief witnesses in the grand jury investigation, was called upon by request to testify, against the Mexican, who is not a citizen of the United States, and not entitled to carry a gun. Instead, the Mexican was released, and the indictment returned against Levens.

An Outrage

Caleb Jones, acting district attorney, was brief in his comment on the case yesterday.

"I am for strict law enforcement of all laws, you understand," Jones declared, "but when it comes to the state of affairs that the highest officer in the state prohibition force, so flagrantly disregards the rights of citizens, or non-citizens, living under the laws of this country, it's high time some criminal action was taken."

It is the contention of authorities that the Mexican when he told Levens he did not own the revolver, was afraid he would be prosecuted if he did divulge that he really was the owner. They claim that Levens was guilty of a serious discrepancy when he kept the revolver himself.

Related Fourth of July

At any rate, with the two indictments, one against E. L. Elliott, who will assume office as district attorney of Klamath county tomorrow, another against the state director of prohibition, and a third not many hours in the offing, Klamath's reputation throughout the state as being full of vim, vigor and plenty of fireworks, will be upheld—detrimental or otherwise.

The warrant, broadcast to all sheriffs in the state, read:

"An indictment having been found on the 27th day of July, 1925, in circuit court, charging William S. Levens with the crime of larceny in a dwelling house, this is to command you further to arrest the defendant and bring him before such court to answer the indictment, or if the court has adjourned for the term, that you deliver him into the custody of the jailer of Klamath county. By order of the court.

important terminal activities here, Klamath Falls is assured of a bright future and, it seems to me, has the right to feel optimistic.

"May I, in this connection say I think we should not overlook the great development coming to this section as a resort region; to my mind your possibilities in that direction are as yet not comprehended. We will be glad to co-operate in making them known.

CONVICTS TO HAVE MEALS WITH MUSIC

SAN QUENTIN, Calif., July 30.—(United News)—They have music with their meals now in San Quentin penitentiary.

When the 3,900 convicts gathered for their noon meal they were greeted with the blare of a 12-piece orchestra thumping out "I'll see you in my dreams."

The cheering fox trot strains subsided while the prisoners were eating, but when they marched out of the hall they were helped along by the snappy strains of "cheatin' on me."

In the evening the concert was even more varied, and included jazz selections during the meal.

"Just an experiment," was the only comment Warden Frank Smith would make.

FORGED AUTO LICENSE

MARSHFIELD, July 30.—C. E. Otis, Marshfield garageman, was fined $35 Thursday for converting his 1922 automobile license plate into a 1925 license plate. Otis "forged" the plate by hammering the figure "2" on the 1922 plate into an "5."

Many Blush When Girl Is On Stand

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—(United News)—Testimony that caused court attendants to hide their faces and brought blushes to the cheeks of many, was introduced Thursday in the preliminary examination of Willard I. Ledloyt, of New York, charged with a statutory offense against Edith Ransom, erstwhile stage vamp.

Miss Ransom occupied the witness chair throughout the morning and recited details of the alleged attack, which she declared occurred in Ledloyt's hotel apartments two weeks ago. She admitted she was intoxicated at the time, but denied pursuing Ledloyt with letters and telephone messages or otherwise trying to "shake him down," as defense counsel charged.

WELL-KNOWN LAWYER TELLS HIS SECRET

All His Friends Pleased

For a long time he had appeared worn and nervous, was very irritable, and appeared to be on the verge of a break-down.

Now he appears in public with ruddy cheeks and a youthful appearance, with the springy step of youth, and his colleagues noticed his quickness in judgment and keenness of vision.

At first when questioned as to the remarkable change, he would only smile, but at last, because of the help it might be to these friends, he told them of Kath, the Gland Tonic.

On account of peculiar ideas some people have of a gland treatment, and fearing ridicule, he had kept silent. He was amazed to learn from his friend, a prominent physician, that gland treatments have been used for years, and extensively in recent years on account of the results of scientific research. Thus his own feelings were fortified, and he revealed to tell his secret, as he called it, to his friends.

He says: "I am very glad that I told my friends of Kath, the Gland Tonic, for a number of my friends who were run-down, nervous, and fagged-out, are now enjoying the best of health, and are in my class in youthful appearance and quick judgment."

Kath, the wonderful Gland Tonic, is now for sale by:

Your Motor's Mile-Power

Depends on Economical Motor Oil

And here's a paradox: The best oil for your motor is by no means the highest-priced. Nor is its economy confined to its cost. It saves most in motor up-keep.

You've paid a high price for motor oil thinking thus to get quality-insurance.

With most things, this would be true. But not so with motor oils.

Aristo Motor Oil, for example, is one of the first quality. It is produced in California, by refining methods of the highest order and with the most modern facilities.

It sells for almost half the price of eastern oils.

And for the very simple reason that it is produced in volume, and carries no heavy freight costs from the east.

Aristo is a rare lubricant. It combats the formation of carbon. And this is its greatest saving.

You can pay twice as much and not get as good motor oil as Aristo. Sold at Union Oil service stations and independent dealers of the first class everywhere.
