2 Sisters Crazed With Bad Liquor

PORTLAND, July 30.—(United News)—Seventeen bottles of moonshine, the apparent consumption of which brought two sisters to the verge of delirium tremens, were responsible for excitement at Nineteenth and Washington streets on Wednesday afternoon.

Irene Hartman, one of the sisters, stumbled and fell out of the window of her second floor room. She seized an electric light wire, to which she clung, screaming and swinging in her nightgown, while hundreds ran to the scene. She finally let go, striking on her face on the concrete walk. She lay there in a pool of blood for some minutes while the emergency doctor at police headquarters was on his way.

The injured woman was removed to St. Vincent's hospital, but attendants and patients there, unable to stand her screams, transferred her to police headquarters.

Her sister, Betty, 19, believing Irene to be dead, had to be restrained from throwing herself from the window.

A booster for Klamath county and Klamath Falls and every legitimate industry therein—that's the Klamath News.
