LAWN PARTY EVENT OF WEEK

One of the most interesting events of the week was the lawn party at the Burt E. Hawkins home, when Miss Dorothea Hawkins and Miss Dehlia Hawkins entertained for a number of friends on Wednesday evening. The lawns were attractively adorned with Japanese lanterns in brilliant shades. Guests of the Misses Hawkins included Miss Mercedes Boyd, Miss Ellvera Call, Miss Beatrice Pearson, Miss Beulah May, Miss Winnie May, Miss Edna Dunbar, Miss Charlotte Grover, Miss Jennie Grover, Miss Eva Miller, Miss Joy Miller, Miss Florine Tunnel, Miss Bernice Phenecia, Miss Eda Jones, Miss Adamson, Miss Lorraine Mordoff, Miss Faye Drew, Miss Beulah Bennett, Mrs. Arthur L. Rice, and Boyd Yaden, James Grover, Ren Hollister, Ralph Adamson, Ervin Keller, Wendell Smith, Kenton Hamaker, John Hawkins, Frank Moser, George McIntyre and Rev. Arthur L. Rice.

MISS JONES JULY BRIDE

The many friends of Miss Myrtle Jones will be interested in the announcement of her marriage to Frank Brazill which took place in Portland Wednesday, July 29. Mrs. Brazill is a popular Klamath Falls girl who has resided here the majority of her life. An interesting picture of Mr. and Mrs. Brazill appeared in the Portland Oregonian of Saturday morning with the following story:

This picture was not taken while they were waiting at the church, for they didn't wait. While their friends were expecting them to be married yesterday, as per announcement, Frank Brazill, ex-Portland manager and present Seattle third baseman and leading Coast league home-run swatter, and Miss Myrtle Jones of Klmath Falls were married Wednesday. Brazill celebrated the wedding by winning yesterday's game for Seattle with another home run. Mr. and Mrs. Brazill are staying temporarily at the Stellwyn apartments here, but after next week will be at home in Seattle.

KLAMATH GIRL IS BRIDE

A wedding of interest to many Klamath Falls residents was that of Wayne Biehn and Miss Iris Cartwright, which occurred Saturday, July 25, when Miss Cartwright and her fiance were married quietly in Yreka, Calif., at St. Mark's church, with Rev. Hadlow reading the ceremony. They were attended by Miss Estelle Luscombe and Roy Rinehart. Mrs. Biehn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cartwright of Klamath Falls, where she has made her home for many years. Mr. Biehn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Biehn of this city, and has a host of friends who congratulate him. They are at home at 223 Mortimer street.

Local Briefs

From Merrill—Albert Myers, one of the most prominent ranchers of the Merrill district was in the city Saturday to visit and transact business. Myers is one of the old pioneers of this section and was at one time a member of the crew who worked for wages in building the Adams Tule cut, one of the first irrigation projects of the Merrill country.

Dalton Returns—W. C. Dalton, of the Carr ranch in the Malin country, has returned from San Francisco, where he has been for the past week transacting business. Dalton also attended a meeting of the board of directors of the California Cattle Growers asociation.
