Stone's Market No. 3 Joined to Grocery

Improvements in Stone's Market No. 3, 719 Main street, purchased from Fred Terry this week, were about completed yesterday, insofar as cutting away an archway between the two business establishments is concerned. Stone's market and the former Terry establishment are now linked into practically one store, with a grocery department and market available to customers without patrons being compelled to leave the building.

G. A. Bartlett, who has been manager of the Stone store, will assume charge of the new market, which is being remodeled and fitted up until it will be one of the most practical and serviceable business houses of its kind in the city.

Fred Terry, who formerly operated the market, was forced to sell out, owing to the illness of Mrs. Terry.

McDonald to Attend Pilcher Co. Confab

A. A. McDonald, manager of the R. A. Pilcher Co. department store, left yesterday morning for Portland, to transact business for his company. Saturday he will attend a managers' meeting in Tacoma, at which will be present all the Pilcher New York buyers, and Mr. Pilcher himself.

The R. A. Pilcher company have 15 new stores now opened on the coast. They will have 50 by the end of 1926.
