Yankees Suffer Third Loss To Cleveland Team; Cubs Beat Braves

By United Press

The New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers sustained further setbacks Monday, the Dodgers being submerged in the cellar position by their 12 to 4 defeat at the hands of the Pittsburgh Pirates and the McGrawites dropping to seventh place through the shut out beating administered by Adolph Luque of the Cincinnati Reds.

Four Brooklyn hurlers were pelted by the Pirates for 18 safe hits, while Larry French held Luque to Nine.

Cards Toppled

In addition to masterly pitching by Luque hit a home run in the 9th inning, the final score being Cincinnati 7, New York 0.

The St. Louis Cardinals were toppled out of first place when Barney Friberg hit a double with the bases loaded in the ninth inning and the Phils won, 10 to 9.

In Boston, the Chicago Cubs opened their first series by taking the game, 6 to 4. The Braves jumped into Jonnard and knocked him out of the box in the first inning but could do little with Root, who replaced him.

Indians Drub Yanks

In the American League, the champion New York Yankees suffered their third successive defeat at the hands of the Cleveland Indians, the score being 4 to 2. Willis Hudlin held the Yankees to six hits.

George Uhle ran his string of straight wins up to six by defeating the Athletics, 5 to 2. The Bengals fell on Earnshaw in his seventh for five hits and all their runs.

The Boston Red Sox captured the first game of the series from the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 1. Elliott Bigelow put the Red Sox in the lead with a home run in the fifth.

Rain prevented the Washington-St. Louis game.

Miracle Man' of Diamond Passes

MACON, Ga., May 13. (UP)—Friends of George T. Stallings, years ago famous as the "Miracle Man" of the diamond, today mourned his death and baseball paused to honor his memory.

The man who won the niche in baseball's hall of fame by piloting the Boston Braves to a world's championship in 1914 died at his plantation home at Haddock, Ga., near here, this morning.

Stallings was forced to retire from the leadership of the Montreal club of the International League last year after he was stricken by heart trouble. His condition has been serious ever since. He was 62 years old.

Troeh Leads in Coast Trapshoot

DEL MONTE, Calif., May 13. (UP)—Frank M. Troeh, Portland, retained his lead in the handicap event of the Pacific Coast Divisional Trapshoot competition with a perfect score today.

Troeh had broken 200 targets with 200 shots. A. H. Remington of Cheyenne was second with 196 and Tony Prior of San Francisco third with 195.

Mrs. C. E. Groat of Long Beach, Calif., was high in the women's division.

DEMPSEY PLANS BOUT

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 13. (UP)—George Cook, Australian heavyweight who arrived here two months ago from England, will meet George Godfrey, negro heavyweight, in Detroit next month, according to Billy Ames of Syracuse, who is handling Cook's affairs in this country.

Jack Dempsey, Ames said, will promote the match.

DARR, HAYES WILL FIGHT

Chiloquin Card Wednesday Will Show Killeen vs. Darr

CHILOQUIN, May 13. (Special.)—Matchmaker Damon Savage states that every fight on the card to be given here Wednesday evening will be a knock 'em cold affair, with few slated to last the limit.

Tiny Hayes, who knocked out Bob Marich in Portland three weeks ago, is down on the main event to fight Orville Darr, Klamath Falls. Darr has never been beaten in a Klamath ring and has put up some hard battles. Hayes on the other hand is said to carry a dynamic wallop which spells tough going for Darr. Darr can take a lot of gruelling as well as give some hard stuff.

The semi-windup is good enough for a main event. Terry Killeen, the boy from Erin, more lately from Eugene, is meeting Mike Daly, a fellow-countryman, over the six-round route.

What happens when two Irishmen get together? They fight, of course. And that's what is going to happen when Killeen and Daly meet. Killeen is a main event boy all over Oregon and wants to break into the top of the card down here.

Austin Rosander, who has been going exceptionally well lately in Medford, is matched to meet Tony O'Dell, a hard-fighting boy from Eugene, in a six-round special. O'Dell fought the main event in Albany last week and won after a hard battle. He fights much the same as Rosander and the battle should be sensational.

Jimmy Lee, University of Oregon, and the only fighting Chinaman in the northwest, will meet Harold Wright, Indian battler, in one of the four-round attractions, which promises to be a slugging match. The China boy has put many a lad to sleep with his powerful left-hand jab.

Big Tom Edmundson, the light heavyweight battler from Lapum's camp, will meet Joe Corbett of Medford in another four-round battle. Corbett is none other than Kid Pallen, a tough youngster who fought in a Klamath ring last year. He has improved a lot since then and will give "Big Tom" plenty to think about.

Three American Women in Matches

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 13. (UP)—Three of the five Americans entered in the British women's golf championship survived the first round today. Glenna Collett, United States woman's champion, defeated Miss Marjorie White of Roehampton, 5 and 3. Marian Hollins of New York beat Mrs. R. V. K. Finlay of the St. George Hill club, 3 and 2. Miss Gertrude Boothby of Rochester, Minn., advanced to the second round when Mrs. Clifford Kitson scratched. Marian Turpie, New Orleans girl and southern champion, lost to Miss S. F. Dampney of Wimbledon, 2 and 2.

Blue Larkspur Likes Muddy Track

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13. (UP)—Col. E. R. Bradley's Blue Larkspur showed a liking for sloppy going in today's workout when he negotiated a half mile in 50 seconds, a splendid performance considering the track conditions. The other Kentucky Derby eligibles performed poorly. Folking, Minotaur, Esnars and The Nut are expected to complete the colony of derby hopefuls on their arrival.

SUSPEND BERLENBACH

PHILADELPHIA, May 13. (UP)—Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight boxing champion, now a heavyweight wrestler, was suspended indefinitely today by the Pennsylvania athletic commission after a hearing on charges that his match with Pay Mackay last week was "no contest." Mackay also was suspended. The suspension will be effective in New York state.

WALKING CHAMP DIES

NEW YORK, May 13. (UP)—Edward Payson Weston, America's most famous walking champion, died today at the age of 90.

Weston participated in more than 1,000 athletic events after he first sprang into fame by hiking from Portland, Me., to Chicago in 1867, taking less than 25 days for the trip.

MISS JACOBS TO SAIL

NEW YORK, May 13. (UP)—Miss Helen Jacobs, California tennis star, will arrive in New York Tuesday en route to Europe, where she will join other American women tennis stars in an invasion of English and continental courts. Miss Jacobs is No. 2 in the National women's ranking.

Bus Bids Opened By City Council

L. R. Graham, all of Astoria, Ore., it was specified that Pelican City, Mills Addition, and South Sixth street would be served. This bid allowed the city two per cent of the gross receipts yearly. This bid also provided for a bus every 15 minutes from 6:30 until 8:00 p. m. and every 20 minutes from 8:00 p. m. until 11:30 p. m. Wheeler is general manager of the Astoria Transit company.

W. E. Young, who is now operating a bus line in Portland, offered the city one per cent of the gross receipts in a bid. This bid also contained 30 minute service until after 8:00 p. m. when there would be a car leave all terminals every 45 minutes.

All the bids provided for a maximum fare of 10 cents, special tickets to school children, and service to start within 90 days after the awarding of the contract.

U. S. to Buy Site

Upon the recommendation of the council as a whole, ordinances were passed authorizing the city to enter into contracts with Hartenbower Bros. of La Grande, for sewer units 2 and 4, and with Dunn and Baker for units 5A and 5B, all units of the new trunk line sewer system being installed within the city.

A letter was read at the meeting from George Neuner, United States attorney, in which definite assurance was given that the site of land on Seventh and Walnut, proposed for the new federal building, would be purchased by the government. An ordinance providing for the vacation of the alley in this block, which has been pending the assurance that the land would be purchased, was given a third reading and passed.

An ordinance was passed providing for the sale and delivery of $150,000 worth of sewer bonds. This is the balance of the $300,000 bonds voted by the city for the construction of the new sewer system.

Approve Contracts

Form of the contracts was read which will be used by the city when entering into an agreement with residents outside the city who wish to connect their property to the city sewage system, and was approved.

After some discussion, the council agreed to let merchants of the city, who are constructing marquees in front of their business houses, make them 10 feet wide and 8 feet high. These are the specifications generally favored by the merchants.

J. J. Preo was granted a permit to operate a barber shop at the corner of Eighth and Klamath avenue.

Twenty-seven building permits, aggregating $30,215, were approved.

MISSIONS NOW EIGHT AHEAD

Other Clubs in League To Attempt to Stop S. F. Team's Streak

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13. (UP)—Seven teams of the Pacific Coast League will start the second quarter of the season Tuesday with one primary thought—to stop the sensational winning streak of the first place San Francisco Missions.

The Missions won two out of three games played in the first quarter of the season, which ended Sunday. They were victorious in six out of seven series and have now won 11 straight games, to be eight full games ahead of Oakland and Los Angeles in the percentage column.

In addition to this advantage they came home today to play Hollywood.

Hollywood dropped six out of seven games to Oakland last week while the Angels were beating Portland by the bare margin of one game. Oaks and Angels are tied for second place and the San Francisco Seals are two games behind them.

The Seals will invade Los Angeles this week. Oakland will play against Sacramento's Senators, who lost seven straight to the Missions last week, and Portland will meet Seattle in the Puget Sound city.

McTigue Returns To Ring, Wins

NEW YORK, May 13. (UP)—Mike McTigue, former light-heavyweight champion, returned to the ring tonight after a long layoff and won a decisive victory over Paul Hoffman of Holland in a 10-round bout at St. Nicholas arena. McTigue weighed 175 and Hoffman 192½.

McTigue held the lead all the way, giving his opponent a boxing lesson which left the Hollander with a badly cut face. Hoffman was down for the count of seven in the seventh round.

CARD PITCHER ILL

PHILADELPHIA, May 13. (UP)—Herman Bell, pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals, suffered a hemorrhage of the stomach here today and was taken to the Jefferson hospital, where he will be confined for a week. He will be lost to the team for a longer period, it was said.
